

Shown is a reinforced concrete drop structure built in September of ~~the~~ 1959. The structure ~~stabilized~~ helped to stabilize the grassed waterway and provided an outlet for the till drainage system. Pictured in 1959 from L/R are landowners Tony Broghammer and Gib Hoffman along with the late George Carlson, district conservationist for the SCS.