KILLED BY A BELT.

Fred H. Hilleman Instantly Killed
While Attempting to Start a Gasoline Engine.

Was Grinding Feed to Last
Through the Following Day
When He Expected To Be Away From Home.

Fred H. Hilleman, one of the prominent young farmers and stock raisers who resided on the old homestead five or six miles north of town, was instantly killed at about 8 o'clock last Wednesday evening, October 2nd, by being caught in a large driving belt used to propel a feed grinder. Both of deceased's arms were broken, while his chest was quite badly bruised. The only cut to be found on the body was behind the right ear where there was a wound similar to one made with a blow from a hammer or some other heavy instrument. It is supposed that this laceration was caused by contact with some obstacle while the body was whirled around with the shaft. Further it is the general opinion that this blow resulted in death, which was pronounced to have been instantaneous.

Shortly after supper Mr. Hilleman went to the barn to do some grinding as he had planned to attend the wedding of a cousin on the following day and wished to have enough feed on hand to supply the stock while he was away from home. The grinder is run with power furnished by a gasoline engine, which has given more or less trouble, especially when being started, and the generally accepted opinion is that Mr. Hilleman was caught in the fly wheel or belting in some way when he set the machinery going. Deceased, who had been in town during the greater part of the forenoon, had complained during the day of a severe headache, which physical condition, together with the poor light provided by a solitary lantern, and the hurry incident to the work, combined to facilitate the terrible result. From his watch which was found on the ground with the crystal broken and the works removed from the case, it is reasoned that the accident occurred at ten minutes after eight o'clock, as the hands indicated that the timepiece had ceased running at that hour, although the body was not found until 10 o'clock, two hours later, when the engine had stopped because the supply of gasoline was exhausted.

At that time Mrs. Hilleman, who was alone in the house with the children and the house girl, noticed that the machinery had quit running, and her husband not having returned to the house, she became somewhat alarmed at the unusual circumstance and sent the girl to barn to ascertain the trouble. With the aid of the lantern which he had placed in the door of the corn crib the woman instituted a careful search for Mr. Hilleman, whom she had already been convinced was missing. In the course of a few minutes she found the rigid body of Mr. Hilleman lying face-upward a few feet from the engine, where it had been thrown by the rapidly revolving machinery, the clothing of the upper part of the body being completely saturated with blood. After making this discovery the girl returned to the house to inform Mrs. Hilleman, who could not be restrained from going to the scene, where she was completely prostrated, being in extremely delicate health, and it was feared for some time that she would not survive the shock. Her cries brought the nearest neighbors to the place and she continuing in a faint induced them to dispatch a messenger to town for medical assistance. Dr. P. W. Coe and Officer Cowan hurriedly responded to the call and the former labored for some time with the patient before her condition was such as to permit him to go to the dead man.

Naturally nothing could be done for the lifeless and cold body of Mr. Hilleman and it was removed to the house and prepared for burial. Upon returning to town Officer Cowan notified Coroner Lierle of the accident and the circumstances were shown to be such that that official decided it unnecessary to conduct an inquest.

Frederick H. Hilleman was the only son of a family of six children of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hilleman highly respected citizens of State Centre, who several years ago retired to town from the old homestead to which their son succeeded. He was born on the home place October 3rd, 1868, consequently would have been 33 years of age on the day following his sudden and horrifying decease. In the month of September, 1892, he was married to Miss Emma Riemenschneider, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Riemenschneider, and to them were born five children, four girls and one boy, all of whom with the prostrated widow are left to mourn the loss of an industrious, honest and frugal supporter. Mr. and Mrs. Hilleman continued to reside on the old homestead and were counted among the first families of the extensive German settlement which occupies nearly all of the country north of town clear to Mormon ridge. At the time of his death Mr. Hilleman was, and for a number of years prior had been, one of the directors of the State Centre Farmers' Creamery association, in which institution he took the greatest interest and was one of the most eagerly sought advisors in matters pertaining to the business thereof.

Funeral services were not held until Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the French Grove Lutheran church, following a brief family ceremony at the home at 1 o'clock. Rev. A. Boehm, pastor of the church had charge of the obsequies, which were very largely attended. Burial was made in Hillside.

Fred Henry Hilleman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hilleman, of State Centre, was born October 3rd, 1868, in Marshall county, Iowa. He was prosperous and successful because energetic, not only in earthly things, but also in spiritual. In youth he was instructed in the way unto salvation through Christ Jesus. He was confirmed April 2nd, 1882, in French Grove Lutheran church. On September 22nd, 1892, he was married to Emma Riemenschneider, which union has been blessed with five children. Wednesday evening, October 2nd, an awful disaster befell the unfortunate man. Although no one was present when the tragedy occurred the circumstances place it beyond a doubt that he must have met his death while grinding feed for his cattle. In some inexplorable manner he must have been caught and carried by the belt of the machinery to the engine where he was instantly killed, probably a little after 8 o'clock when his watch stopped. On the following day, October 3rd, was his thirty-third birthday. Funeral services were held in the French Grove Lutheran church, of which he had been a life long member. The largest attendance that has ever been present at a funeral in this church showed its sympathy to the grief stricken family. Two hundred teams were at the church of which 150 took part in the procession to the cemetery. Interment was made in Hillside.

YOUNG FARMER KILLED

Fred Hilleman, Jr., of State Center, Caught in Belting of an Engine.

Was Working Alone at Night Engaged in Operating a Corn Sheller.

Body Not Discovered Until Morning—An Inquest Considered Unnecessary.

An accident that caused the instantaneous death of Fred Hilleman, Jr., a prominent young farmer near State Center, occurred some time during the early part of Wednesday night, altho the accident was not discovered until morning.

Mr. Hilleman, who is a member of a well-to-do family residing three and one-half miles northeast of the town of State Center, was engaged in shelling corn at the Hilleman homestead, the work being carried on night and day. Young Hilleman was operating the sheller at night hours, and Wednesday night was alone. The motive power of the sheller is a gasoline engine. In some manner Hilleman was caught in the belting and it is supposed from the nature of his wounds that he was carried between the belt and the large wheel of the engine. Early this morning he was found lying beside the engine, cold in death.

From indications the accident occurred Wednesday evening between 8 and 9 o'clock, as Mr. Hilleman's watch stopped shortly before 2. A physician who was summoned from State Center examined the body and gave it as his opinion that death was instantaneous. The body was crushed across the chest and both shoulders were broken. It is presumed that while passing from the corn crib to the engine the belting caught in his clothing and drew him in to the wheel. The engine was running at a high rate of speed at the time.

Word was sent to Coroner Lierle, in this city, early this morning, and the facts so far as known were presented to that official, but the coroner concluded there was no reason for holding an inquest.

Mr. Hilleman leaves a young wife and children. The funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

BIG WEDDING AT VAN CLEVE.

Oscar Wehrman Takes Miss Lauretta Hilleman as Bride.

One of the largest social events of the spring in the Vancleve neighborhood was the wedding of Miss Lauretta M. Hilleman and Oscar Wehrman, which took place Wednesday afternoon, at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Boerish, one and one-half miles southeast of Vancleve. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Kreuger at 3 o'clock before 260 guests.

The bride wore an exquisite gown of white net over silk crepe de chine, her long veil of tulle being arranged into a cap, and held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried an arm bouquet of sweet peas and lilies-of-the-valley. Esther Bosch and Freda Amendt preceded the bride as flower girls, dressed in pink satin messaline and carrying bouquets of bride roses. Miss Alice Wehrman, cousin of the groom, played Mendelssohn's wedding march and the service was read in the parlor, the bridal party standing under a canopy of ribbons, from which hung a large wedding bell.

Mrs. Boerish was assisted in serving a three-course dinner by Misses Carrie and Ida Tigges, Ruby and Leona Hilleman, Laura Auchtemeyer, Bertha Freese, Priscilla Augustine, Emma Markland, Florence Reimenschneider, Bessie Wehrman, Elsie Bargman and Elsie and Iltra Amendt.

The bride is the second daughter of Mrs. Boerish, and the groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wehrman, who live four miles south of Vancleve. Both are well known young people of the neighborhood where they possess many friends. The evening hours were spent socially and dancing was greatly enjoyed.

The guests who attended the wedding from a distance were Ernest, George and Will Reimenschneider and families, Mrs. Reimenschneider, daughter, Florence, and son, Louis, Dr. Woods and family, Dr. and Mrs. Engle, Mr. and Mrs. Benson, Mr. and Mrs. Reese, Mr. Wengert and family, Mr. and Mrs. Buschhorn and family, and Matt Doman, all of State Center; Miss Selmer, and the Messrs. Cold Hits Area Following Mild Arrival Of New Year

With the holidays over, Central Iowans can settle back to face the long winter and the weatherman was prompt in serving up a taste of what may be expected. The mercury skidded and winds were stronger and colder early Monday with little immediate change likely.

After a mild New Year's Day when the temperature range was 36 and 31, and a high Sunday of 36, the red line started downward and the overnight low was only 11. The 8 a.m. Monday reading was just 13 with winds making it seem much colder under mostly cloudy skies.

Clearing conditions are seen for Monday night resulting in even chillier readings, the low likely to be between 5 and 10 above with continuing brisk northerly winds. Tuesday's high — even with sunshine — probably won't get out of the teens.

There'll be little change Wednesday, then cloudiness will increase Thursday and a slow warming trend is seen which may bring a high of around 30 by Friday. Up until then below normal readings may be expected.

Ruth Harper And Rogert Amendt Are Married In Church Ceremony

Rev. A. L. Brueggemann Reads Service at St. John's Evangelical Church

ON SUNDAY AFTERNOON at 2 o'clock at St. John's Evangelical church of Haverhill, Miss Ruth Mae Harper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edward Harper of Randolph, Kan., and first grade teacher in the Rogers school here, became the bride of Roger Edward Amendt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Amendt of Melbourne. Rev. A. L. Brueggemann read the single ring ceremony as the couple stood before the palm decorated altar. The immediate families were present.

The bridal party entered the church to the strains of the wedding march from "Lohengrin" (Wagner) played by Miss Esther DeVries. Before the ceremony Miss Arlene Amendt, sister of the bridegroom, sang "Because." During the ceremony Miss DeVries played softly "Oh Promise Me," "My Heart At Thy Sweet Voice" and "I Love You Truly."

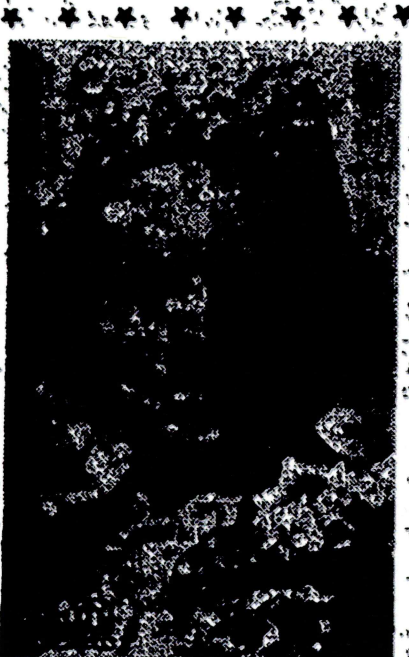

The bride and bridegroom wore matching brown hand tailored "sweetheart" suits. Brown and white accessories and a shoulder corsage of Talisman roses set off the bride's costume.

Harry R. Roberts served as best man and the bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Grace Lee Nordmark of Fort Dodge.

After the service the group attended a bridal dinner at Stone's restaurant.

Out-of-town guests were the bride's mother, Mrs. Harper of Randolph, Kan., Mr. and Mrs. Edward Amendt and daughter Arlene of Melbourne, Miss DeVries of George, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Knowles and Miss Nordmark of Fort Dodge and Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Roberts of Marshalltown.

Mrs. Amendt is a graduate of the Iowa State Teachers college, Cedar Falls, and has been teaching in Marshalltown for the past two years. Mr. Amendt attended the Van Cleve school and is now engaged in farming with his father.

MRS. ROGER AMENDT.

He married Miss Ruth Harper of Randolph, Kan., a former Van Cleve and Marshalltown school teacher, March 23, 1941, and since that time has been assisting his father in farming.

He was confirmed in St. John's church Jan. 8, 1930, and was graduated from Van Cleve high school in 1934. Besides his parents and his widow, he is survived by a sister, Arlene, employed in Marshalltown.

Bruce Robins, 58, of rural Clemons, died in the peace of his home on the evening of Thursday, January 10, 2013, with his loving family at his side. Bruce was under the tender care of Iowa River Hospice from New Years Eve until his death.

Funeral services will be held at 2:00 p.m. Monday, January 14, 2013 at St. John Lutheran Church north of State Center with Pastor David Klinge officiating. Visitation will be held at the church one-hour prior to the services. Private interment will be at a later date.

Born on January 12, 1954, in Marshalltown, he was the son of Blair and Elaine (Davis) Robins. He graduated from the West Marshall High School and began truck-driving. Bruce then fell in love with farming- the place he said he wanted to die, and with Gods blessings he was able to do so.

He loved nature, the prairie and farming the land as well as raising animals. Even though he could be opinionated or as his sisters say, stubborn, he had a very compassionate and generous side as well. Bruce stated that one in eight people get cancer, and he was glad it was him so cancer would leave the rest of his family alone! He was a man of his word and did whatever it took to fulfill his promises. In years past, Bruce enjoyed his Triumph motorcycles. Especially in recent times, faith became very important to him, as he was going to receive his fountain of youth from God. Bruce was a baptized and confirmed member of St. John Lutheran Church.

Clemons, as well as many nieces, nephews and friends. In eternal life, he rejoined his dad, Blair, and his grandparents.

Bruce's family also found many treasures in people at this time- those who made his final days blessed. So many people gave of themselves and will not be forgotten- so thank you to Pastor Klinge and Pastor Spratt as well as Lee and Mary Tollefson, Dave and Wendy Harrison, Dave Schmidt, Dan and Brian Freiberg, Bill Pfantz, Chance Flynn, Ivan Walker, Ray Helland, Allen Armbrecht, Art Duncon, Pat Byers as well as many others that because of emotions don't come to mind. Also a special thank you to Iowa River Hospice for their dedication in caring for Bruce. All of you are precious to Bruce's memory.

United States education program.

Bud Davis (represented by his daughter Vicky at the assembly) has a very special connection with our school as he is the father of our very own Mrs. Messina and grand daughter Megan who is a sophomore. Bud Davis attended Colo high school and was 22 years old when he served in Korea. Bud cannot be with us today as he is very ill.

Bud was drafted on July 7, 1952 just before his 22nd birthday. He was sent to Camp Chaffee, Arkansas for basic training. Later that year he was shipped to Korea on the General R.L. Howze. He was assigned to the 300th Armored Field Artillery Unit and was sent to North Korea in 1953. His division supported the 6th Republic of Korea Division, there were 15 South Korean trainees in his unit. Winter was very cold and conditions were poor, sometimes sleeping on the ground in a sleeping bag when it was 27 degrees below zero. The common denominator for most soldiers who served in Korea was the bitterly cold conditions in the winter, the lack of basic survival gear such as warm blankets, insulated boots, and gloves.

The war ended on July 27, 1953 at 10:00 p.m. His unit remained in Korea and guarded the demilitarized zone until he shipped home aboard the U.S.S. Marine Lynx to San Francisco. He was stationed at Camp Carson, Colorado and was discharged in April 17, 1954.

Bud returned to State Center and married wife Nancy. They have two daughters, Vicki Messina and Valerie Forrest and one son Galen. They have two granddaughters, Megan Messina and Gracie Davis that attend West Marshall Schools. Bud lives north of town and has been a farmer and a trucker. Bud is my neighbor and I have always admired how clean his acreage is and he always has the ditches mowed on the land that he owns. Bud has taken grade pride in his land. I always loved that Bud rode his motorcycle up and down Canfield Ave. to check his crops. Bud and Nancy have been very active in the north Church and are great examples of the type of people who make Iowa such a great place to live.

Bud's advice to high school students is "Be sure to study and graduate because Education Is Important".

Iowan's death investigated by Marines

By NICK LAMBERTO

Register Staff Writer

The bodies of two Marines, including one from Marshalltown, have been found in a stream at the Cherry Point, N.C., Marine Corps Air Station, an official said Wednesday.

Their deaths were listed as apparent drownings, but an aura of mystery remains because another Marine seen leaving a party with them Saturday night is "now aiding the investigation," although he did not notify officials that they were missing.

The search for the missing men and the subsequent investigation was prompted by the discovery of their boat moored at a dock Sunday, said Marine Capt. Donald Miller, a public affairs officer.

The body of Sgt. Michael Lee Hilleman, 30, of Marshalltown, was found in Slocum Creek on the Air Station about 9:45 a.m. Tuesday and the body of Sgt. Michael Turner, 25, of Anniston, Ala., was found about 7:25 a.m. Wednesday, Miller said.

Both were found floating on the surface of the half-mile wide stream. Their bodies were about 100 yards apart and a half mile from where their boat was docked, Miller said.

The two dead Marines were last seen with a third Marine at a party Saturday night at Pine Cliffs, a state recreation area east of the base, Miller said.

Marshalltown Police Sgt. David Buffington, Hilleman's brother-in-law, said he had been told the two dead Marines and a companion had decided to do some night fishing after leaving the party.

The wife of one of the Marines notified authorities Sunday her husband was missing and the pleasure boat they had used was found moored at the Slocum Boat docks on the base.

The third Marine was found unconscious on the boat, Buffington said.

"There was no sign of foul play, but the investigation is continuing," Buffington said.

"The apparent cause of death is drowning, but it is still under investigation," Miller said.

Hilleman, a former Grinnell police officer, returned several months ago from a tour of duty at Bierut, Lebanon, said Buffington.

Fred Hilleman Is Killed In Truck Accident

Fred H. (Fritz) Hilleman, 51, farmer living southwest of Haverhill was killed instantly Friday afternoon in a truck accident five miles south of Grinnell on highway 146. Mr. Hilleman in company with Harold Halblom of the Haverhill neighborhood was returning from Montezuma with a truck load of cattle when a rear tire blew out causing the cattle to shift and the truck plunged over an embankment. Mr. Hilleman was thrown from the cab. Mr. Halblom was taken to the Grinnell hospital where he was treated for a broken collar bone and severe bruises. He was later taken to his home.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at two o'clock at the St. John's Evangelical and Reformed church with interment in the Melbourne cemetery.

Mr. Hilleman was born December 21, 1901 at State Center, the son of Frederick and Emma Hilleman. He was married to Lenora Grier on April 4, 1925 at Lancaster. Mr. Hilleman was engaged in farming most of his life but for a short time operated a grocery store in Van Cleve.

He was a member of St. John's Evangelical and Reformed church south of Haverhill and the Modern Woodmen of America at Melbourne.

He is survived by his wife and three children, Lorraine, Fred E. and Lota, all at home. Also surviving are four aunts, Mrs. Oscar Wehrman of State Center; Mrs. Edward Amendt of Melbourne; Mrs. Carl Davis, Colo.; Mrs. Clyde Ramsey, Perry and a brother, Herbert Hilleman, Van Cleve and a half brother, Walter Bohrsch, State Center.

Lenora F. Hilleman

Services have been set for Thursday at 2 p.m. at St. John's United Church of Christ in rural Haverhill for Lenora F. Hilleman, 74, Strafford, MO, who died there Sunday. The Rev. Robert Snyder will be officiating with burial to follow in Melbourne Cemetery.

Mrs. Hilleman was born October 28, 1907, in Fillmore, Saskatchewan, Canada, the daughter of Park and Murial Funk Grier; she was married to Fred Hilleman on April 4, 1925, and he died in 1952.

Survivors include her mother, Mrs. Murial Grier, Springfield, MO; two daughters, Lorraine (Mrs. Obert) Thompson, Des Moines, and Iola (Mrs. Alden) Snow, Atlanta, GA, and four grandchildren. She was preceded, besides her husband, by her father, one son and two brothers.

Mrs. Hilleman came to Deep River, Iowa, in 1912, and then after her marriage, lived in the Melbourne and Haverhill areas where they farmed; after her husband's death she moved to Springfield, MO, and following her retirement, moved to Strafford to care for her mother.
