

Elect Dean Kelsey Soil Conservation Regional Director

Dean Kelsey Iowa Falls, Commissioner in the Hardin Soil District was elected regional director at the regional commissioner meeting held in Nevada Thursday.

Kelsey was elected to a three-year term to represent Region 5, an eleven county area in central Iowa. There are nine directors representing Iowa in the Iowa Association of Soil Conservation Districts.

Kelsey, who operates a 240 acre farm southeast of Iowa Falls, served as chairman of the Hardin Soil Conservation District for three years. Harold Marsh, Union, was elected chairman in April 1960.

Elected assistant director was Robert Nelson from the Boone Soil Conservation District.
