

Speech Contest Set For Monday Evening

4/2/64

About seven high school students are expected to compete Monday evening in a speech contest sponsored by the local Soil Conservation Service district.

The event, open to the public, will begin at 8 p.m. in the vocational agriculture room at Davis high school.

Topic for the contest is: How Soil and Water Conservation Affect My Future. Prizes for the first three places are $10, $7.50 and $5.

The winner will advance to regional competition at Fairfield on July 2.
