Sharon Newell
Speech Winner

Sharon Newell, Davis high sophomore, won first place and $10 in the conservation speech contest held last night at the high school.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Newell of route 9. Topic for all speeches: "How Soil and Water Conservation Affect My Future."

Runner-up was Donald Rysdam, a senior, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rysdam of route 3, who received $7.50; and third prize of $5 went to Paul Wray, junior, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Wray of route 7.

Miss Newell will advance to district speech competition, scheduled for Washington, Iowa, on June 10.

Seven competed in the contest here. Others in addition to the three winners were Linda Harris Hayes, Kenneth Sidwell, Donna Taylor, and Leonard Camp.

Judges were Mrs. Lyle Bare, Walter Morrison and Clay Barnett. Ted Kappes, speech and dramatics teacher at Davis high, supervised the event.
