

A DAY OFF TO SEE A BALL GAME—These members of the First American Engineers, not on duty for the day, are arriving at a training camp in motor trucks to witness a baseball game between teams of rival regiments.

(Photograph copyright by the Committee on Public Information.)

