See the Spitzer record,

pages 557 - 573.

*According to church records
this was 18 May 1865, but a descendant who secured a certified copy of the marriage certificate
reports that the actual ceremony took place on 11 Mar. 1865, officiated by Rev. Muehlmier, current pastor at Emmanuel Church, Town Herman.

W4²4Z Simon Heinrich Wehrmann came to America in 1851 with his parents and settled on a farm next to his brother, Frederick "Karl" in Town Herman. He married Wilhelmine Fredericke Nagel, the daughter of Conrad and Caroline Nagel, who was born in Helfsensdorf, Germany. I have been unable to find a record of her arrival in Town Herman. Three children, all boys, were born to this union.

On 21 Aug. 1862, Simon enlisted in the Civil War and was a Private in Company C of the 27th Regiment of Wisconsin infantry. He died on 19 July 1863 in Snyders Bluff, MS of a fever, his body remained there. I have tried to locate the place of burial—the following letter, from the Veteran's Administration will indicate my problem in the search.

Simon Wehrmann's sons were five years, two years and his youngest son about six months. Simon Heinrich never saw his youngest son.

After his death Fredericke Wehrmann married Peter Spitzer. The Spitzer record appears in the chapter after the Wehrmann records.

IN REPLY
REFER TO: 41A
WEHRMANN, Simon Heinrich
DOD: 7-19-1863

Mrs. Avis Wehrmann Schlintz
Route 2
Black Creek, Wisconsin 54106

Dear Mrs. Schlintz:

This is in reply to your letter of April 30, 1978, requesting the burial location of the remains of Simon Heinrich Wehrmann, a veteran of the Civil War.

We have searched the burial records maintained in this office for decedents buried in national cemeteries, Confederate plots, and soldiers' lots under the Veterans Administration. These records fail to show by name that the remains of Simon Heinrich Wehrmann are interred in any of these burial locations.

As a matter of information, during the Civil War, those who fought and died in the Battle at or near Snyder's Bluff, Mississippi, were originally interred in vicinities near that area. Those graves, if marked at all, were designated by wooden headboards with the name and identifying data painted thereon. Many of those headboards deteriorated through exposure to the elements with the result that when the remains were later disinterred and reinterred in Vicksburg National Military Park and Cemetery, Vicksburg, Mississippi 39180, identifications could not be established and their graves were marked as unknowns. There is a possibility that the remains of Simon Heinrich Wehrmann are among those so interred. This cemetery is under the immediate supervision of the Director, National Park Service, Department of the Interior, Washington, D. C. 20240.

Sincerely yours,

- for and in

BOB R. BELLIER the absence of Director, Cemetery Service

W4²4Z11 Meta Mathilde Wehrman, first born of William Simon and Augusta Machinsky Wehrmann, married Albert Litzkow and raised five of her six children. She took care of her father in his advanced age until his death on 17 May 1937. The last months of his life, he was confined to his bed and was quite senile. He is interred in the little Immanuel Lutheran Cemetery on State Road in the Black Creek Township.

W4²4Z12 Walter Ferdinand Gustav Wehrman operated the farm owned by his mother, west of Binghamton. In the winter of 1928, in December, a blizzard closed the highway. In those days, farmers got out and cleared the road themselves. Walter had a cold and went out to help work on the road. Exposure led to Pneumonia, this being before "wonder drugs", rarely did one survive with Pneumonia. His condition worsened and he died on 29 Dec. 1928, leaving three living children and one born several months later. This last baby followed her father in death in Feb. 1930. His widow left the farm and lived in a house at Binghamton, owned by her father, Chas. Smith.

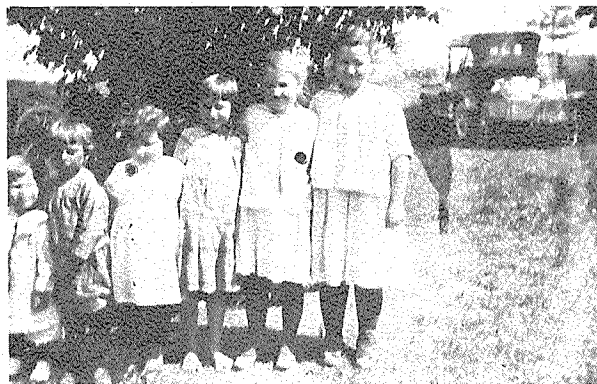

W4²4Z13 Henry Carl Wehrman married Ella Amelia Kollath, daughter of August and Augusta Martin Kollath. They were married in Menominee, MI and operated a farm on State Road, northwest of Black Creek. They sold the farm to their son, Le Verne, when they retired and moved to Black Creek.

W4²4Z131 Ruth May Wehrman attended Black Creek and Seymour Schools. She was married to Orval Carl Meyer, son of Otto and Emma Torberg Meyer of rural Black Creek, later Appleton. They operated the Meyer farm, later he was an employee of Meyer Tree Service. Ruth, in the last two years of her life, battled cancer and after chemotherapy was free of the malignancy. The treatments, however, weakened her heart and she passed away of a heart attack in her home on 17 Nov. 1975.

Orval, also, since her death, has experienced heart trouble and retired at 62, still making his home at rural Black Creek.

W4²4Z132 Vera Eunice Wehrman was married to Elmer Drephal and they operated the Drephal farm, later moving to the village of Black Creek. Elmer underwent open heart surgery successfully and is still employed, at the present time, by the Burdick Furniture Company.

Vera was a bookkeeper at the City School of Cosmetology until she retired in 1979 for reasons of poor health. She, too, valiently battled cancer, but passed away on 26 Sept. 1980 after an extended stay at Appleton Memorial Hospital. She is interred at Appleton Highland Memorial Park.

W4²4Z133 LaVerne Henry ("Sonny") Wehrman was born 31 July 1931 in the town of Cicero and farmed the family homestead. He was an active member of the Wisconsin Guernsey Association and also worked with the youth in 4-H.

Sonny was stricken with Diabetes and in time, had to have one leg amputated. He was in very poor health and died at age 45, having lost the other leg and because of his rundown condition, died during surgery on 22 July 1977. His wife, Norene Zahn Wehrman still lives in the farm home and is employed by Zwicker Knitting Mills.

Their two daughters were very active in 4-H and the youngest, Kitty, appeared at the State Fair with her Championship Steer. She also took blue ribbons on her sheep. Both girls graduated from Seymour High, Cynthia went on to college and is a teacher in Gillette, WI. She is married to Reid Coley and has two small daughters. Kitty also is furthering her education.
