MARRIED IN MASON

CITY JULY 30TH

A wedding of interest to the many State Center friends of the young couple became known this week when announcement was made of the marriage of Louie Riemenschneider, a son of Mrs. Mary Riemenschneider, and Miss Lela Petteys, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Petteys of this city. The wedding occurred at the Hotel Cecil in Mason City on Wednesday, July 30th. The ceremony was performed in the hotel parlors by Rev. H. F. Wilkinson, pastor of the First Methodist Church, Mason City.

The young couple motored to Mason City and the fact that they have not returned led their friends to believe that they had been secretly married, altho there was no announcement until this week. Mr. and Mrs. Riemenschneider are spending their honeymoon at Spirit Lake.

Mr. Riemenschneider has been engaged in farming near State Center, and Mrs. Riemenschneider has for a number of years been head clerk in the M. M. Wensel store at State Center. Mr. and Mrs. Riemenschneider will make their home on the Riemenschneider farm at the western edge of town.

RULING IN SUIT

Judge Tankersley also issued a ruling in the suit in which Mrs. Lela Riemenschneider is seeking a divorce from Louie Riemenschneider. Mrs. Riemenschneider's attorney previously asked that the husband's books be opened to the court in order that an equitable property settlement might be reached.

Judge Tankersley's order provided that Riemenschneider file with the clerk of court copies of his income tax report for the last five years and his books of accounts showing assets, liabilities and business transactions.

Minor Items Of Business Occupy District Court

Miscellaneous business for the day was limited to the only items on the docket of the district court here Saturday and Monday morning. With the completion of March 15 federal income tax returns, however, it was expected that lawyers here would have more time to devote to non-tax business and that court activity would increase.

Complaining that his wife had sent items of his wearing apparel and miscellaneous account books to a State Center pool hall, the defendant in a divorce suit here asked the court to order the items be moved back to the plaintiff's home.

MEANT "POOL ROOM"

Louie Riemenschneider, the defendant in an action being brought by Mrs. Lela Riemenschneider, asked the court to order the items to move the clothing and other items into the "pool room" of her home. He asserted that the things had instead been moved to the pool hall. The court set a hearing on the complaint for March 23. A decree was filed with the clerk on Saturday ordering Mr. and Mrs. Roy Johnston to vacate a house at 704 Union street owned by C. V. Kidd. Kidd had brought a suit alleging that the Johnstons had overstayed a lease.

Riemenschneider Divorce Hearing Opens In Court

The October term of the district court opened here Monday with the presiding judge, B. F. Thomas, absent and Judge B. O. Tankersley, the presiding judge for the October term in Tama county, on the bench to begin hearings in the Lela versus Louie Riemenschneider divorce case.

Judge Thomas will be here Tuesday to make an assignment of cases for October. Meanwhile the Riemenschneider case will probably keep Judge Tankersley busy here for several days.

No Settlement
In Prospect In Divorce Trial

The Riemenschneider divorce case went into its third day in district court here Wednesday with no prospect of an early settlement. Court opinion was that the case might carry into next week. A complicated property settlement is the principal item which is extending the case. It was estimated Wednesday by a court source that the actual divorce proceedings will not take over half an hour.

Riemenschneider Divorce Case Affirmed In Decision By State's Supreme Court

The state supreme court Tuesday affirmed Judge B. O. Tankersley in his decision of the ruling in which Mrs. Lela Riemenschneider, State Center, was granted a divorce from Louis Riemenschneider, city.

Judge Tankersley granted a divorce and property settlement to Mrs. Riemenschneider in district court here. She appealed the property settlement but the supreme court affirmed the original decree.

Services for Louis Riemenschneider, formerly of State Center, are to be held this morning, Friday, at 10:30 from the Estel-Perrin Chapel, with Rev L R Meinecke officiating. Mr Riemenschneider, 86, died Tuesday at MACH West where he had been a patient for the past two months.

He was born November 30, 1891 at State Center, the son of William and Mary Wantz Riemenschneider. He attended the rural schools of this county and was graduated from State Center High School. He was a farmer until starting the Marshall Packing Company Inc. in 1934, which he operated for 36 years before the business was sold to Dean Garland in 1970. He served the company in an advisory capacity after the sale.

Mr Riemenschneider was a State Center School Board Member for several years and was an active member of the Elks Lodge No. 312.

Preceding him in death were 10 brothers and sisters.

Survivors include two sons and two daughters, Wayne Riemenschneider and Floy (Mrs Leonard) Steffensen of State Center, Don Earl Riemenschneider of Boone and Jean (Mrs Everill) Daters of Iowa City. Also surviving are 11 grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren.

Burial is to be at the Hillside Cemetery at State Center.

Miss Floy Riemenschneider To Wed Leonard Steffensen

Wedding Will Take Place Feb. 22—Announcement Revealed at Dinner

STATE CENTER — (Special) — The approaching marriage of Miss Floy Riemenschneider, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Riemenschneider of State Center, to Leonard Steffensen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Steffensen of State Center, was announced at a dinner party given recently at the Englewood tearoom. The marriage will take place Feb. 22.

The three course dinner was served to 16 guests seated at a long table centered with an arrangement of roses and gladioli. A green and white color scheme was carried out. The announcement was written on scrolls concealed in bouquets carried by miniature Floy Riemenschneider brides which served as favors.

Bridge and bunco were played following the dinner and prizes were won by Mrs. Harley Riemenschneider and Mrs. Gordon Yager. Both Miss Riemenschneider and Mr. Steffensen were graduated from the State Center high school in 1939. Miss Riemenschneider was also graduated from Central Iowa Business college and is employed in State Center. Mr. Steffensen is employed as a carpenter.

State Center Presbyterian Church Is Scene of Pretty
Wedding Sunday Afternoon

STATE CENTER—(Special)—In a pretty candlelight ceremony at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, Miss Floy Riemenschneider, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louie Riemenschneider of State Center, and Leonard Albert Steffensen, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Steffensen, also of State Center, were married at the first Presbyterian church here. Rev. James Denny Ransom used the single ring service as he received the nuptial vows of the couple before the altar banked with baskets of pastel colored gladioli, a profusion of palms and ferns and lighted tapers set in silver candelabrum. Two-hundred relatives and friends attended the wedding.

Before the ceremony Wayne Richards, organist, played soft music, Don Earl Riemenschneider, a brother of the bride, played "Canzona Amarosa" (Nevin), and Floy Daniels Bagge, a close friend of the bride, sang "At Dawning" (Cadman). At the conclusion of the ceremony Mrs. Bagge sang "Believe Me, If All Those Endearing Young Charms" (Moore). Both soloists were accompanied by Mr. Richards.

As the bridal party proceeded down the white satin-carpeted aisle, Mr. Richards played the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin" (Wagner). He also played Mendelssohn's wedding march as the recessional.

BRIDE'S ATTENDANTS.

Miss Wilma Harrington of Downey, the bride's high school commercial teacher, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Lela Mae Ferguson, cousin of the bride, and Betty Lou Steffensen, the bridegroom's sister. The little flower girls, wearing green net dresses, green bonnets and wrist corsages, were Sandra Ann Ferguson and Kay Jean Homer. Wayne Riemenschneider served as best man, and the ushers were Daryl Richeson and Delmar Woodward.

The bride's dress was of white lace net with a train and her floor length veil was fastened to a silk net halo. She wore a necklace of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom, and for "something old" carried a 75-year-old knitted handkerchief that had been used by Mrs. Bagge at her wedding several years ago. The bridal bouquet was made of white roses, gardenias and sweet-peas.

Miss Harrington wore a pink crepe chiffon dress with pink shoulder veil. Her flowers were Tallman roses and blue iris. The bridesmaids wore blue crepe chiffon with blue shoulder veils and their flowers were pink roses and blue iris.

RECEPTION AT HOME

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents at 4 o'clock. A three tier cake centered the table. Mrs. Lilla Steffensen and Mrs. Robert Nichols hosted. Mrs. John H. Ferguson was hostess and Mrs. Gordon Yager and Miss Arlene Buck served. Mr. and Mrs. Steffensen left late Sunday afternoon for Chicago, Ill., on a brief wedding trip, and upon their return will be at home in State Center after March 1.

RECEPTION AT HOME.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents at 4 o'clock. A three tier cake centered the table. Mrs. Lillie Stouffer and Mrs. Robert Nichols poured. Mrs. John H. Ferguson was hostess and Mrs. Gordon Yager and Miss Arlene Buck served.

Mr. and Mrs. Steffensen left late Sunday afternoon for Chicago, Ill., on a brief wedding trip, and upon their return will be at home in State Center after March 1.

1939 GRADUATES.

Mrs. Steffensen was valedictorian of the class of 1939 when she was graduated from the State Center high school. She was president of the class for that year and also was editor-in-chief of the Schoolgram, school paper published during the school year. Later she was graduated from the Central Iowa Business college and for the past year she has been employed as bookkeeper for the Houghton Motor company in State Center. She will continue in that position.

Mr. Steffensen also was graduated from the State Center high school in 1939. He is employed with his father in the carpenter trade in State Center.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT D. LANE

Miss Connie Steffensen
And Robert D. Lane Wed

The Thanksgiving season with its divine beauty and blessings shed its golden glow picturesquely into the pre-holiday day candlelight formal wedding of Miss Connie Steffensen and Robert D. Lane, Saturday afternoon, November nineteenth at the First United Presbyterian Church and made a day of memorable happiness.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Steffensen and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lane, all of State Center.

The Rev. Norman Lawton spoke the marriage vows to unite the couple in holy matrimony with the impressive double ring service at three o'clock in the afternoon before an all-white altar setting.

The two brass seven branch candelabra, bearing slim white conical tapers, were intertwined with garlands of smilax from the top to the base, and were flanked by large potted wood-winter leaves. Baskets of stately white gladioli, ranunculus, other side of the altar and the focal point was a graduated arrangement of the same white gladioli on the choir railing at the back. Clusters of woodwardia ferns, contoured with a tall white taper adorned the window ledges and white satin bows marked the pews along the white carpeted bridal aisle.

Miss Carolyn Dennis of Des Moines, cousin of the bride, groom played the nuptial organ music and accompanied Miss Anne Nofa of State Center, cousin of the bride, who brought the nuptial blessing in song with "The Lord's Prayer." A shaft of bright sunlight gleamed through the windows and touched the kneeling couple in the prayerful moment.

The bride was a portrait of youth and loveliness as she entered the church on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. Her floor length gown of French lace was a regal although simple was fashioned with a scooped neckline accented with seed pearls and seed pearls and long fitted sleeves.

The Thanksgiving season with its divine beauty and blessings shed its golden glow picturesquely into the pre-holiday candlelight formal wedding of Miss Connie Steffensen and Robert D. Lane, Saturday afternoon, November nineteenth at the First United Presbyterian Church and made it a day of memorable happiness.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Steffensen and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lane, all of State Center.

The Rev. Norman Lawton spoke the marriage lines to unite the couple in holy matrimony with the impressive double ring service at three o'clock in the afternoon before an all-white altar setting.

The two brass seven branch candelabra, burning slim white cathedral tapers, were interwined with garlands of smilax from the top to the floor, and were flanked by large potted woodwardia ferns. Baskets of stately white gladiolus graced either side of the altar and the focal point was a graduated arrangement of the same white gladiolus on the choir railing at the back. Clusters of woodwardia fern, centered with a tall white taper adorned the window ledges and white satin bows marked the pews along the white carpeted bridal aisle.

Miss Carolyn Dennis of Des Moines, cousin of the bridegroom, played the nuptial organ music and accompanied Miss Anita Nolte of State Center, cousin of the bride, who brought the nuptial blessing in song with "The Lord's Prayer". A shaft of bright sunlight gleamed through the windows and touched the kneeling couple in the prayerful moment.

The bride was a portrait of youth and loveliness as she entered the church on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. Her floor length gown of French Rosepoint lace was a regal creation. The princess silhouetted bodice was fashioned with a scooped neckline accented with seed pearls and sequins and long fitted sleeves.

The bouffant skirt was designed with five tiers of lace over taffeta, each tier tapering slightly to a V in the back and cascading into a voluminous train. Her matching triple-tiered lace-edged mantilla fell from an open pillbox accented with seed pearls and she carried a crescent arrangement of waxy gardenias and greenery from which trailed maize and green garlands. Her heart shaped necklace with diamond center, was a gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Gary Steffensen of Marshalltown, sister-in-law of the bride; Miss Terry Riemenschneider, cousin of the bride and Miss Mary Lane, sister of the bridegroom, both of State Center served as matron of honor and bridesmaids, respectively. They were charming in their sheath styled gowns of maize crepe, designed with boat necklines, just above the elbow length sleeves, detailed with a small material bow, and a floating back panel which fell in a floor-length train sweep. Their fly-away tulle veils were held in place with floral beaded headpieces and they wore matching maize satin shoes and white short gloves. They carried cascades of gardenias and garlands.

Petite Kay Daters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everill Daters of Iowa City and cousin of the bride, served as flower girl and was pretty frocked in a floor length dress of white crepe with a lace top and short lace train. She wore a tiny seed pearl crown with fly-away veil and carried a white basket of yellow rose petals.

Gary Steffensen of Marshalltown attended the groom as best man and James Mackin of St. Anthony and Richard Goodman of State Center, were groomsmen. Tom Lane, brother of the groom was junior usher and John Heishman and Dennis Westphal, both of State Center, lighted the candles and seated the guests. All of the men of the bridal party wore black formal tuxedo wear and white carnation boutonnières excepting the bridegroom, who wore a white rose.

The bride's mother wore a three piece bluejay knit outfit with matching shoes and a navy blue veiled hat. The bridegroom's mother was attired in two-piece plum colored suit with a poisley hat. Their corsages were of gardenias.

Grandparents present for the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Steffensen and Mrs. Lela Riemenschneider of State Center; Mrs. George Lane and Mrs. Albert Bagnall, of Newton and Louie Riemenschneider of Marshalltown. The grandmothers wore corsages of white carnations and yellow roses and the grandfathers had white carnation boutonnières.

Following the ceremony, the bridal party and parents received congratulations at the rear of the sanctuary after which a reception was held in the church parlours.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Riemenschneider of State Center, uncle and aunt of the bride, were diningroom host and hostess.

The serving table was overlaid with a white floral damask cloth and centered with a four tiered white square wedding cake, topped with a cluster of spun sugar bells and touched with florets of maize. Other appointments were in maize and white. Presiding as coffee pourers were Mrs. Donald Nolte of State Center and Mrs. Joe Dennis of Des Moines. Mesdames Everill Daters of Iowa City and Wayne Bagnall of Newton cut and served the cake. Mrs. Don Earl Riemenschneider of Marshalltown and Mrs. Leo Lane of Newton, dipped the punch. They all wore white nylon aprons and maize tinted carnation corsages.

Miss Sherry Riemenschneider of Marshalltown, cousin of the bride, registered the guests and the Misses Norma Jean Schladetzky of Des Moines, Toni Daters of Iowa City and Sandra and Linda Schaper of Marshalltown cared for the gifts.

Members of the Presbytereers of the church, assisted with the serving.

Guests were present from out of town from Iowa City, Des Moines, St. Anthony, Norwalk, Nevada, Ira, Marshalltown, Arnolds Park, Newton, Fairfax, Albert City, Ames, Roland, Ogden, Albion and State Center, Iowa and Milwaukee, Wis.

The couple left later on a week's wedding trip to the Ozarks and the bride chose an olive green knit shift with harmonizing accessories and a gardenia corsage for traveling. Upon their return they will make their home in the Keith Pollock two apartment house on 4th Ave. N. E.

The couple are both graduates of the West Marshall High School and the bride is attending Ames School of Practical Nursing at Ames. Mr. Lane is employed at the local Denniston and Partridge Lumber Company.

Lou Wayne Riemenschneider, 83, a lifelong resident of State Center, Iowa, died Sunday, September 16, 2007, in his home surrounded by his family.

Memorial services celebrating his life will be held at 11:00 a.m. Wednesday, September 19th, at First Presbyterian Church in State Center with Pastor Bobby Shomo officiating. Friends may call from 6-8:00 p.m. Tuesday, September 18th at the Mitchell Family Funeral Home West Marshall Chapel in State Center. Private family burial will be held later.

Wayne was born January 5, 1924, in State Center, Iowa and was the son of Louie and Lela (Petteys) Riemenschneider. He was a graduate of State Center High. Wayne served in World War II and was a member of the 27th Infantry of the 25th Division. He was wounded in action and earned three bronze medals and a purple heart. Wayne married Margie Ann Buschbom on May 21, 1943 in Lathrop, Missouri and they had celebrated their 64th wedding anniversary this year. As a long time resident of State Center, Wayne was engaged in farming.

He was co-owner of State Center Plumbing and Heating for 10 years and was a 62 year continuous member of the American Legion. He was also a member of the 1st Presbyterian Church where he had previously served as an Elder. He was a member of the State Center Cemetery Board, the State Center Investment Club, B&D Club, and a previous Sunday School teacher. Wayne was a loving and devoted husband, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather. His four favorite past times were fishing at their pond, playing pool, horseback riding, and going South in the winter time.

Wayne is survived by his wife Margie of State Center, their daughters: Peg Johnson and husband Robert of Albert City and their children Teresa Lagomarcino and husband Mark of West Des Moines and Jeff Johnson and his wife Krista of Albert City; Terry Weber and husband Gordon of Keota and their children Angela Sieren and husband Kurt of Johnston, and Heather Weber of Denver; Becky Riemenschneider and husband Mark of State Center and their children Jodie Riemenschneider of State Center, Christine Kern of State Center, and Matt Riemenschneider and wife Jill of State Center. He is the proud great-grandfather of 13 great grandchildren. He is also survived by his brother, Don Riemenschneider of Boone, Iowa and sister Jean Daters of Iowa City, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson

The approaching holiday season with its Christmas red and snowy white was beautifully reflected in the wedding of Miss Peggy Ann Riemenschneider and Robert Joseph Johnson, which was solemnized Saturday morning, November 30th at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in State Center. The Rev. Francis Heimerman officiated at the double ring service at ten o'clock before an altar appointed with arrangements of white chrysanthemums and red carnations in milk glass and softly lighted with the altar candelabra.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Riemenschneider of State Center and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Johnson of Albert City.

Richard Daters brought the nuptial message in song with "Ave Maria", "Mother At Your Feet We Are Kneeling", "The Wedding Prayer" and "On This Day O Beautiful Mother" and was accompanied by Miss Jill Figgins at the organ.

The radiant bride was a picture of youthful loveliness as she came down the white satin-carpeted aisle on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage. She wore a floor length gown of white Chantilly lace over net, fashioned with a molded bodice, scalloped sabrina neckline outlined with pearls and sequins and long bridal point sleeves. Her bouffant tiered skirt was poised over hoops and her butterfly length veil of imported illusion fell from a pearl and rhinestone encrusted tiara. She wore a pearl pendant, a gift of the bridegroom and carried a bouquet of white carnations and red roses and a white Rosary. She also carried a white silk handkerchief that her great grandmother, Mrs. Amelia Buschbom of State Center, had carried at her wedding.

Miss Terry Riemenschneider served her sister as maid of honor and Miss Becky Riemenschneider, another sister, was junior bridesmaid. The Misses Sheryl Foster of Des Moines and Lenis Herbold of Newton were bridesmaids. They were all charming in Christmas red satin ballerina length gowns, designed with round necklines, fitted bodices, cap sleeves and bustle-backs. The maid of honor and bridesmaids wore matching red crown shaped head veils adorned with pearl droplets and they carried white muffs from which baby red roses cascaded in streamer-effect. The junior bridesmaid wore a white fur headpiece to match her muff. Their pearl necklaces with rhinestones, were gifts of the bride.

Tim Fitzloff of Indianapolis, Ind., attended the bridegroom as best man and Ron Madiox of Des Moines and Clarke Deacon of Varina were groomsmen. Milton Wile of Pomeroy, cousin of the groom was junior groomsman.

The guests were seated by Gary Steffensen of Iowa City, cousin of the bride, Bill Bryne of Fonda and Neil McMillan of Des Moines. All of the men in the bridal party wore white dinner jackets, black trousers and white carnation boutonnières.

The bride's mother was attired in a beige brocade jacket dress with which she wore a rust feather hat, matching gloves and shoes. The groom's mother wore a two piece blue brocade dress with black accessories. They both wore white carnation corsages.

Mrs. John Foitle of Marshalltown and Mrs. Lela Riemenschneider, grandmothers of the bride, and Mrs. Amelia Buschbom, great grandmother of the bride, wore corsages of red and white carnations.

A dinner and reception in the church parlours followed the ceremony. The table was overlaid with a red satin cloth and overskirt of red tulle and centered with a four tiered wedding cake topped with spun sugar balls and wreathed at the base with red carnations and evergreen.

Mrs. Lee Minnich, aunt of the bride from Grundy Center, poured from the silver coffee service and Mrs. Don Earl Riemenschneider, aunt of the bride from Boone, dipped punch from the silver bowl. Mrs. Everill Daters, aunt of the bride from Iowa City, cut the cake.

The dinner was served by members of the Rosary Society of the church. The wedding party was seated at a table covered with a red satin cloth and centered with red and white carnations in milk glass flanked by white tapers in matching milk glass holders.

Servers were the Misses Connie Steffensen, State Center; Tomi and Jeri Peters, Grundy Center and Sherri Riemenschneider, Boone, cousins of the bride. They wore red net aprons and red and white corsages.

Mrs. Delos Honeck registered the guests and the gifts were cared for by Mrs. James Smith, Colo; Miss Maria Johnson, Des Moines; Mrs. David Lively, Marion and Mrs. Rodney Davis, State Center.

The couple left later on a southern wedding trip and the bride chose for traveling, a royal blue suit with cranberry accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Upon their return they will make their home at 3608 Douglas Ave., Des Moines.

The bride is a 1962 graduate of the West Marshall High School and a graduate of the American Institute of Business. She is employed by Augustine and Company, Des Moines. Mr. Johnson is a graduate of Albert City High School and the American Institute of Business. He is employed by the Iowa Paint Company in Des Moines.

Guests were present from Indiana, Pocahontas, Albert City, Des Moines, Marshalltown, Laurens, Varina, Fonda, Pomeroy, Grundy Center and surrounding communities.

MOURN DEATH OF INFANT DAUGHTER

An Angel Mass was held at St. Columbkilles Church at Varina Tuesday afternoon for Brinda Lou Johnson, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson. Interment was in the Fairfield Cemetery.

Brinda was born at the Buena Vista County Hospital Saturday morning and died Monday morning of a heart defect.

She is survived by her parents, a sister, Teresa, a brother, Jeff, besides grandparents and other relatives.

Terry Riemenschneider And Gordon Weber Wed

Miss Terry Riemenschneider of 829 Douglas Ave., Ames, and Mr. Gordon A. Weber of Ackley exchanged wedding vows Saturday, Aug. 17 at First Presbyterian Church in State Center.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Riemenschneider of State Center and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Weber of Ackley.

Rev. Stewart Congdon, pastor, officiated at the 7:30 p.m. double ring ceremony. Mrs. Warren Weber, sister-in-law of the groom, was organist and accompanied Mike Henderson, a fraternity brother of the groom. He sang "Oh Promise Me" and "Wedding Prayer."

Baskets of white gladioli with yellow spider mums and candelabra decorated with plumosa and white bows decorated the church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in a floor-length costume of imported Chantilly lace and silk organza. The fitted bodice featured a scalloped sabrina neckline with long sheer lace sleeves that tapered to bridal points over the wrists. The princess styling of the gown was dramatized with an all-lace cage silhouette mantle train with matching lace veil. She carried a nosegay of white roses with green accents.

Mrs. Robert J. Johnson, Albert City, served as her sister's Matron of Honor, wearing a lime green empire dress with short puff sleeves trimmed with white and green daisies. She carried a nosegay of white and green daisies.

Bridemaids were Becky Riemenschneider, State Center, sister of the bride, and Louise Thompson, Ames, former roommate of the bride. They were dressed identically to the Ma-

Bridemaids were Becky Riemenschneider, State Center, sister of the bride, and Louise Thompson, Ames, former roommate of the bride. They were dressed identically to the Ma-

Iron of Honor and also carried nosegays of green and white daisies.

Warren Weber of Nashua, Ia., brother of the groom, served as best man. Don Lamb of Indianola and Jim Hamer of Colfax, both fraternity brothers of the groom, served as groomsmen. Ushers were Terry Voy of Ames, Steve Brown of Chariton and Denny DeVault of Aplington.

The bride's mother wore a empire light pink crepe dress with matching lace coat and a corsage of white roses with pink trim. The mother of the groom wore a yellow two-piece dress and a corsage of white roses with yellow trim.

A reception for 225 guests was held in the church basement. Mr. and Mrs. Lee A. Minnich, Grundy Center, were host and hostess. The four-tiered cake decorated in the bride's colors was cut by Mrs. Frank Tucker of Clemons, assisted by Mrs. Don Riemenschneider of Boone, aunt of the bride.

Mrs. Norma Anderson, Belle

Plaine, poured coffee and Mrs. James Adair, Arlington, Va., served punch. Waitresses were Christine Constantine of Ames and Toni and Jeri Peters of Grundy Center.

Mrs. Robert Kline, Des Moines, attended the guest book and Mrs. Robert Lane was in charge of gifts, assisted by Misses Lola Burmiester, Mary Beth McKinney, Paulette Carpenter and Mrs. John Faircloth. Joan Mason, Radcliffe, was in charge of scrolls.

For the wedding trip to Chicago, the bride wore a light blue sheer dress with long sleeves, trimmed in white. On their return the couple will reside at 700 W. Detroit, Apt. 5, Indianola.

The bride, a 1965 graduate of West Marshall High, attended Ellsworth Jr. College. Mr. Weber graduated from Ackley High School in 1964 and attended Ellsworth Jr. College. He is now a second semester senior at Simpson College, Indianola, and is affiliated with Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

Out-of-town guests attended from Arlington, Va. and Grand Rapids, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Weber entertained a party of 24 at a rehearsal dinner at Sylvia's Cafe the night before the ceremony.

The Story County Rural Commencement was held Friday evening at Colo and of interest here is the fact, that four State Center young people were members of the Eighth grade graduation class. Johnny Lively, son of the Kenneth Lively's, Joleen Foote, daughter of the Carl Foote's and Betty and Garland Mattingly, children of the Guy Mattingly's were the local youths to receive their certificates of advancement. Supt. Truesdall of Colo was the speaker.

Johnny Lively was named highest ranking student of the class and Joleen Foote was given honorable mention.

About fifteen members of the State Center Volunteer Fire Department went to Marshalltown Tuesday where they put on a one act play entitled "How Not To Conduct A Firemen's Meeting," during the afternoon program of the twenty-third annual Iowa Fire School at the coliseum.

The Fire School is sponsored yearly by Iowa State college, the Iowa State Board of Vocational Education, Iowa Firemen's Advisory Training Committee and the State Fire Marshal's office. The school will run through to Friday night.

Jefferson Girl and Don Riemenschneider Are Married at Des Moines Saturday

Before an altar banked with baskets of spring flowers and lighted with tall white tapers in candelabra, Miss Vicky Jeane Price, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer M. Price of Jefferson, became the bride of Don Earl Riemenschneider, son of Mrs. Lela Riemenschneider of State Center on Saturday, May 17th in the chapel of the Westminster Presbyterian Church in Des Moines. The Rev. Dr. W. E. Orr read the marriage lines for the double ring service at two o'clock in the presence of immediate relatives.

Preceding the ceremony, Ruth Emmert, organist presented a prelude of nuptial music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a pastel pink gabardine suit with black accessories. She carried a Colonial bouquet of white snapdragons.

Miss Marjorie Ann Price, attended her sister as maid of honor and was becomingly attired in a fawn colored gabardine suit with black accessories and carried a Colonial bouquet of pink snapdragons.

Attending the bridegroom as best man was Leslie Weber, a fraternity brother at the University of Iowa and the usher was also a fraternity brother, Kenny Hobson. The usher also lighted the candles preceding the ceremony.

The men of the bridal party all wore white carnation bouton-

The bride's mother was attired in a grey suit with black accessories and wore a corsage of white gardenias. Mrs. Riemenschneider, mother of the bridegroom wore a navy blue dress with white accessories and a gardenia corsage.

A wedding dinner for the bridal party and immediate relatives was served at Younkers Tea Room.

Mrs. Riemenschneider is a student at Drake University, Des Moines.

Mr. Riemenschneider is a graduate of the State Center high school and Chillicothe Business College and is now a junior student in the College of Commerce at the University of Iowa, where he is affiliated with Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity.

The young couple will be at home in Iowa City after June 10th where Mr. Riemenschneider will continue his studies at the University.

Attending the wedding from State Center in addition to the bridegroom's mother, were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Steffensen, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Riemenschneider and Miss Jean Riemenschneider.

Mrs. George Biensen Jr., and children returned home Wednesday from Omaha, Nebr., where they spent a week visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles Weatherford and family.

Barbara Powers

Buried at Linwood Park Cemetery, Boone, Boone County, Iowa.

Don Earl Riemenschneider was born March 3, 1926, to Louis and Lela Riemenschneider in State Center Iowa. He graduated to heaven on April, 10, 2012.

Don spent his early years in State Center. He continued his education at the University of Iowa, Iowa State University and Drake with his masters in education. He retired in 1988 as the superintendent of the Boone school district.

He also had a modeling and acting career, starring in several commercials, print ads and billboards.

Don continued to work in his "retirement" as an interim superintendent for four school districts. He was 80 years old at the time of his last interim position. His life was filled with the love of his family and friends.

Don was a man who lived life well. Everyone who knew him was a recipient of his love and wisdom. His influence was far reaching and his legacy will live on in those who were privileged to be a part of his life.

Don was married to Barbara Powers on October 20, 1975. They enjoyed 36 years as husband and wife.

Don enjoyed playing violin in the Rovers Band and with the "Terrific Trio." He also played violin on the worship team at the Boone Open Bible Church. He loved playing cards with his buddies, playing golf, camping, fishing and family get togethers.

He was a past member of the Boone Chamber of Commerce, the Iowa Association of School Administrators and the Boone Rotary Club.

He was a member of the Boone Open Bible Church where he served on the worship team and as an elder and advisor. His faith in God was strong and he gladly and openly shared his faith with his family and friends. No family dinner was complete without a blessing by "Papa Don."

Don was the best man we ever knew. God truly smiled on us all the day He brought Don into our lives. What a gift he was to us!

He was preceded in death by his mother, his father, his brother Wayne, sister Floy Steffensen and his grandson Ian Riemenschneider.

He is survived by his wife, Barbara, his children Vidonne (Bill) Tsamis, Bob (Elaine) Riemenschneider, Kim Abbey, Kris (Dave) Toyne, Bob (Lois) Powers, Barb (Tim) Biersner and his sister, Jean Daters. He is also survived by 14 grandchildren, 19 great grandchildren, numerous nieces and nephews and an abundance of friends.

Words cannot adequately express the love we have for Don. His love, faith and words of wisdom will be passed down through the generations. A life well lived, a legacy never forgotten.

Following cremation, a celebration of his life will be held Saturday April 14, at 10 a.m. at the Boone Open Bible Church, at 1224 Hancock Drive in Boone with Rev. Phil Waldo officiating. Inurnment will follow at Linwood Park Cemetery in Boone.

Visitation with the family present to greet friends will be Friday, April 13, from 5:30 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. at the Boone Open Bible Church.

Don requested that in lieu of flowers memorials would be made to the Boone Open Bible Youth Group and the Boone Educational Endowment Fund.

Barbara Riemenschneider
June 4, 1931 – October 1, 2018

Barbara Jean Riemenschneider was born June 4, 1931 to Martha and Heman Barnard in Boone Iowa. She entered heaven on October 1, 2018.

Barb graduated from the Boone school district and went on to receive her Bachelor of Nursing from St. Mary's hospital in Omaha, Nebraska. She married Robert Powers in 1954 and they had four children. After their divorce, she married Don Riemenschneider and they lived happily ever after until his death in 2012.

Barb was a true "people person" who never met a stranger. Her extraordinary talents in sewing and handwork created beautiful crafts, quilts and Christmas Stockings that will be treasured for generations to come.

We will remember her as a compassionate nurse, a trusted friend, a wonderful mom, mother in law, aunt and grandma and a devoted follower of Christ.

She was preceded in death by her mother, father, two sisters, and her husband, Don. She is survived by her children: Kimberley (Brian) Pontius of rural Boone County, IA, Kristine (David) Toyne of Clear Lake, IA, Robert (Lois) Powers of Boone, IA, and Barbara (Tim) Biersner of Boone, IA, 12 grandchildren, 23 great grandchildren and 1 great-great grandchild.

A memorial service will be held at 11:00 a.m. Monday, October 8, 2018 at the Boone Open Bible Church, 1224 Hancock Drive, Boone, IA, with Pastor Phil Waldo officiating. Burial will take place at Linwood Park Cemetery, Boone, IA. Visitation will be on Sunday, October 7, 2018 from 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. at Schroeder-Stark-Welin Funeral Home, 609 7th Street, Boone, IA.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations will be received by the family and distributed to the Boone Open Bible Church and the Eastern Star Masonic Home in Boone. Online condolences may be left at www.schroederfuneral.com.

Miss Jean Riemenschneider Is Wed

Lovely in its simplicity was the wedding of Miss Jean Riemenschneider, daughter of Mrs. Lela Riemenschneider, and Everill F. Daters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Daters, which was solemnized Monday morning, August 22nd at nine o'clock at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in State Center. The Rev. G. V. Stelert officiated at the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with baskets of mixed gladioli and lighted with tapers.

Nuptial music was provided by Miss Esther Daters, sister of the bridegroom, who played the wedding march and who accompanied Richard Daters, brother of the bridegroom, who sang "On This Day, O Beautiful Mother," "Ave Maria," "Tantum Angelicus" and "Domine Non Sum Dignus."

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Wayne Riemenschneider, was charming and attractive in an ivory satin afternoon frock styled with three quarter length sleeves, round neckline with small collar, tight bodice and full skirt. She wore a matching crownless hat with dark brown accessories and carried a white prayer book to which was attached a gardenia corsage from which hung a shower of tuberose.

Mr. and Mrs. Everill Daters

August 25, 1949

Miss Joan Smith attended the bride as maid of honor and was becomingly attired in cocoa brown satin fashioned with a round neckline and short sleeves. She wore a matching satin hat, brown accessories and carried a Colonial bouquet of Tailsman roses and daisies.

LaVerne Daters served his brother as best man and the ushers were Don Earl Riemenschneider of Churdan, brother of the bride, and Richard Daters, brother of the bridegroom. The men of the party wore white carnation boutonnières.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception for the immediate families of the couple was held at the home of the bride's mother. The serving table was centered with a three tiered white wedding cake topped with a miniature bridal couple and surrounded at the base with a wreath of daisies. Mrs. Leonard Steffensen, sister of the bride, poured and Miss Marilyn Nolte served the wedding cake. Mrs. Wayne Riemenschneider and Mrs. J. W. Ferguson were dining room hostesses.

The couple left later on a week's wedding trip to Chicago, Ill., and Mrs. Daters wore for traveling a navy blue suit with navy accessories and a gardenia corsage.

The bride is a graduate of the State Center high school and attended Iowa State Teachers College at Cedar Falls. She will teach first grade and music in the grades at LaMoille this year.

Mr. Daters also graduated from the local high school where he was active in athletics. He attended Marshalltown Junior College for a year and will return to Iowa State Teachers College for his second year this fall.

Present from away for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Neuroth of Conrad and Mr. and Mrs. Don Earl Riemenschneider of Churdan.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Daters

The bride given in marriage by her father, W. Earl Riemenschneider, was charming and attractive. In an hour and a half reception held with three minutes' delay, several round necklines with short collar, light buff and full skirt. The wedding dress was a classic and well liked gown, a favorite and carried a white bouquet, which was attached a gardenia corsage from which hung a white

Jean Ann Daters of Iowa City passed away at the age of 91 on February 4, 2020.

Jean's family will receive friends from 9:30 – 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, February 8, 2020 at the Newman Catholic Student Center, 104 E Jefferson, Iowa City, with services celebrating her life following the visitation at 11:00 a.m. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be directed to the Newman Singers at the Newman Student Center on the campus of the University of Iowa.

Jean was born in State Center, Iowa August 9, 1928, the youngest of the four children of Lela Petteys Riemenschneider and Louie Riemenschneider. She attended State Center High School and received her BA in Education with a minor in Music from the University of Northern Iowa. Jean married Everill "Ev" Daters on August 22, 1949, in State Center. Together they raised four children, moving to Iowa City in 1958. In their marriage, they were inseparable and devoted to each other.

Jean spent 28 years teaching kindergarten and first grade. She prided herself in teaching her students to read and decorating her classroom with her special touch. After retirement, Jean and Ev were thankful for the time they were able to spend with their children and grandchildren. Jean also enjoyed being with her Twain teacher friends from Mark Twain, the golf ladies at Elks, and her dear friend Donna. Those who knew Jean will remember her thoughtfulness, generous spirit and fun-loving personality.

Jean is survived by her four children and fourteen grandchildren: Tim Daters (Gretchen) of Little Rock, Arkansas, and his children Andy (Callie), Adam (Valerie) and Elizabeth (Jeff); Toni Cilek (Bart Gibney) of Iowa City, and her children Emmy, Kate (Adam), Jake (Dina) and Laura; Kim Daters (Julie) of Sonora, California, and their children KC, Michael and Ben; Kay Noser (Brett) of Highlands Ranch, Colorado, and their children Troy, Kyle (Rachel), Claire and Grant; and nine great-grandchildren: James, Gracie, Hayden, Carson, Addison, Lucas, Liam, Evan and Noah.

Jean was preceded in death by her husband Everill, brothers Wayne and Don Earl Riemenschneider, sister Floy Steffensen, grandson Luke Daters Cilek, and daughter-in-law Rebecca Kroetz Daters.

A special thank you from the family to her friends at Superior Care for their loving companionship, the staff and residents at Keystone for providing her a comfortable home, and Dr. Gwen Beck for her personal care and attention.

Heaven has welcomed a special lady. We all loved her but are giving her back to Grandpa Ev. GEGJ forever!
