

To Fairfield Contest Aug. 1, 1963 Thursday

Sharon Newell (right) was selected ~~Friday~~ Thursday night as Davis county's Queen of Conservation, and runner-up is Georgia Wilty. Both girls are 16 and will be Davis high school juniors this fall. They will both advance to the nine-county contest at Fairfield Aug. 14 to compete for the region queen title. Sharon is the daughter of the Floyd Newells of northeast of Belknap and Georgia is the daughter of the Richard Wiltys of southwest of Bloomfield.