A daughter, Natalie Jean, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Oswood of Brooklyn, Ia. on Jan. 7 at the Grinnell Hospital. The baby weighed 8 pounds and 14 ounces.

Mrs. Oswood is the former Jean Hilleman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hilleman, State Center. The paternal grandparents live in Hampton.

Announce Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle (Jean) Oswald of Brooklyn announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Natalie Jean, to Christopher John Gritsch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Gritsch also of Brooklyn.

The bride is a 1989 graduate of BGM High School and is a student at the University of Northern Iowa. The groom is a 1985 graduate of BGM High School and is engaged in farming southwest of Brooklyn.

The bride is the granddaughter of the late Harold and Marguerite Hilleman and is the step-granddaughter of Helen Hilleman.

Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Gritsch

Natalie Jean Oswood and Christopher John Gritsch, both of Brooklyn, were married Saturday, June 1, 1991 at Grace United Methodist Church in Brooklyn. Officiating at the 5:00 p.m. double ring ceremony were Rev. Kalen Fristad and Father Joseph Rogers.

The bride is the daughter of Lyle and Jean Oswood and the groom's parents are Roger and Loretta Gritsch, all of Brooklyn. Guests of honor at the ceremony were the couples grandparents: Mr. and Mrs. Estle Oswood, Hampton, Mrs. Helen Hilleman, State Center, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Herbrandt, Brooklyn. Following the ceremony the couple visited the groom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Gritsch at Brookhaven Nursing Home.

The bride is the granddaughter of the late Harold and Marguerite Hilleman.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an elegant gown of white pearl satin styled with a jeweled bateau neckline, short puffed sleeves with iridescent flowers accenting smocking detail and a beaded lace Basque bodice. A bow was featured at the back of the skirt. The Cathedral train was adorned with smocking lace cut-outs and French wired ruffles sown with iridescent threads. Her white satin hat was decorated with a row of beaded pearls and a flower arrangement and featured a pouff in the back. The bridal bouquet was of burgundy and white roses interspersed with babies breath, eucalyptus, and satin ribbon. She wore pearl drop earrings, a gift of the groom.

Stacie Oswood served her sister as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Karrie Everist and Kim Cordes. The attendants wore dresses of navy floral print fashioned with a jewel neckline in front and tiered in the back accented by a bow. The full skirts were tea length. Each attendant carried an ivory satin fan accented with burgundy and mauve flowers and wore decorative ribbons in her hair. Dressed similar to the attendants were the flower girls, Jamie Boesenberg and Katie Allman.

Eric Niemann, a friend of the couple, was the best man and groomsmen were friends, Tony Roth and Chris Babcock. The groom wore a black tuxedo with tails.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in Grinnell at the American Legion. Aunts of the bride served the cake: Janice Brockman of Marshalltown, Joan Rust, Cedar Rapids, JeNell Hilleman of State Center, Karen Hilleman, Leon, and Marilyn Hilleman, State Center. Waitresses were the bride's cousins; Marie Hilleman, Megan Hilleman, Marcy Hilleman, Leslie Hilleman, Kimberly Hilleman and Haley Hilleman, all of State Center.

A dance followed the reception.

Following a wedding trip to Kansas City, Mr. and Mrs. Gritsch are at home at rural Brooklyn (RR 2, Box 297).

The bride is a BGM graduate and a junior at the University of Northern Iowa. The groom, also a graduate of BGM, is a self-employed farmer.
