

Corsage

Barbara Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Allen of Bloomfield, received a corsage after she was named runner-up in the 1962 Queen of Conservation contest at the Old Soldier's and Settler's Reunion last week. Presenting the corsage is Diana Miller, the 1961 queen. Master of Ceremonies, Julian Campbell is looking on.

Kay Clyman Wins Queen Contest

Kay Clyman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Clyman, was named the 1962 "Queen of Conservation" at the Davis County Old Soldier's and Settler's Reunion Thursday night.

Miss Clyman and her attendant Barbara Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Allen, will advance to the regional contest at Jefferson county Junior Agriculture Show at Fairfield, Aug. 15.

The two girls were awarded sterling silver bracelets and corsages at the Drakesville contest.

Last year's queen, Diana Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Miller, presented the corsages and crowned Miss Clyman.

The contest is the first hurdle in the path to the state Queen of Conservation title. The state contest will be held at the Plowman's Banquet in Atlantic Sept. 12. The state queen will be awarded $250.
