Ours

TO REMEMBER

As the last chapter in our high school book of knowledge is drawn to a close, we fondly look back upon the features which have made that "book" so treasured and remembered.

In our first "chapter" at O. H. S., the surroundings were awe inspiring, and it was only with the determined and co-operative efforts of the faculty and students that these surroundings soon were marked with happiness for us, the sophomores of O. H. S.

This continuity of happiness and growth of knowledge has greatly developed during our junior and senior years, and now we realize and understand what a great part our teachers and fellow classmates have played toward our success as graduates of the 1947 class. It is only with guiding and true friends that undertakings can be accomplished.

During our three years at Ottumwa High School much has been accomplished not only in curricular fields but also in the extra-curricular realm. Interest in hobbies, and creative work as well as a determined desire to bring fame and honor to the school are just a few of the many reasons why we believe the societies of O. H. S. are indispensable. The long hours of painting flats, rehearsing lines, and preparing costumes for dramatic productions have not been vain undertakings for those interested in producing and presenting plays such as have been given on our stage. It is this desire for accomplishment that has brought about the increase in recognition of the actors and actresses within the senior class. Also this same recognition has been sought and gained by the seniors participating in the numerous other extra-curricular activities of the school. The tireless efforts of the band, the editors and businessmen of the Argus Annual and the Argus News, and the participants in speech and commercial clubs are only several examples of the praiseworthy endeavors of O. H. S. students.

Another of the primary undertakings of our school is in the field of sports. Within the realm of such sports as football, basketball, track, and swimming are found the ideals desired by most boys and girls. The outstanding records of our O. H. S. players have proved the ability and determination of our athletes to place Ottumwa High School "on the map". With the successful leadership of our cheerleaders in uniting the school body with a spirit of victory the realm of sports continues to grow.

Ottumwa High will always be our school,
And we'll ever love her true.
We'll sing of her, We'll yell for her,
And, my, what we won't do!
We'll put her on the map,
And see that she stands pat,
For we love her true, we do.

CHORUS

North-side, South-side, and all around the town
We'll all join in together to root for O. H. S.
In football, basketball, and every kind of sport,
We'll cheer them on to victory
For dear old O. H. S.
Rah! Rah! Rah for Ottumwa.

Board of Education

The Board Office—Miss Jones and June Clouse

In our community there is an organization doing $805,000 worth of business annually and yet the board of directors receive no salary. This firm employs 246 men and women to make its "product" for which thousands of citizens pay, but this "commodity" can not be purchased—this elementary and high school education.

Behind this organization is our city's foremost "factory"—the public schools. The workers are our teachers, the "product" is an educated citizen. Overseeing the entire process are the seven members of the Board of Education. Although the Board does not directly purchase supplies, it must approve all expenditures of its purchasing committee for such items as coal, textbooks, office supplies, and general maintenance.

Torch Club

In Iowa twenty-three years ago, it became apparent to certain students and faculty members that there was need for an honor society to reward students for scholarship, character, leadership, and service. Three schools, of which Ottumwa High School was the third, organized such groups.

Originally known as the High School Honor Society, the name was changed to "Torch Club", being more suitable and having more appeal for the student. A person, who carries the torch, lights and shows the way; and so, our Torch Members "light and show the way" for the other students.

Those students, who are honored with the pin, are chosen by a committee of the faculty who weigh the record of the individual student for his first three years in high school. Twice each year the members of this committee meet and select the outstanding members of the junior and senior classes to become members of Torch Club. To be selected at the close of the junior year is the greatest honor that can befall a student of O. H. S.

Popularity does not enter into the choice. Students are selected upon the basis of scholarship, service, leadership, and character. Although requirements are not too rigid, very few students are able to meet the severe standards of Torch Club. The end,—the ultimate of achievement for any student,—is membership in our high school honor society.

Student Council

Efficient Council Officers—Joan Perry, Secretary; Verle Burgason, vice-president; Jerry Long, president.

The goal of the Student Council is to attain a greater spirit of democracy and develop a higher type of school citizen. Its duties are to maintain order and to enforce the rules of the school.

The councilmen are chosen by their classmates for three outstanding qualities of character—leadership, good judgment, and scholarship.

The members of the Council have control of the reserve system. They select the reserves, place them, and inspect the halls each period, checking the reserves. The operation of the lost and found department and a check-room is carried on by the Council.

Any student who violates a school law is tried and sentenced by the Student Council Court. Each offender is represented by an attorney, and a classmate, and he has a chance to plead his case and prove his innocence.

The Student Council has been very successful in maintaining order at O. H. S. Much credit belongs to Miss Rose Miller, who so capably advises the group.

Senior Adviser

MISS EIGHME, Adviser

Within a few days, the class of '47 will never meet again as a complete group. But no matter where we go we shall never forget the debt of gratitude we owe to the school and to our Senior Adviser, Miss Marietta Eighme, for our good times and achievements as a class and our present and future success as individuals.

Miss Eighme has worked hard and spent many hours in promoting the undertakings of the class; for all this we want to express our appreciation. The Junior-Senior Prom with its outstanding orchestra and decorations; the Junior Carnival, a great financial success; the Senior Assembly with our own play, and the writing of the class song; these are only some of our accomplishments for which we do say "Thank You."

Senior Class

If we of the class of '47 think back now to those days of June '44, when our three years in O. H. S. still lay before us, we are thinking of a different world—a world of strife and a world at war. "D-day" was yet to come, the beaches yet to be stormed, the Rhine to be crossed, Berlin to be entered, and V-E Day, Iwo Jima, Hiroshima, the atom bomb—and other unheard of names were still to become headline news. Also V-J Day and victory for America and her allies—victory for us was to come.

Again a "V" day is near, but this time it is "V-Day" for the class of '47. We are the boys and girls in the ranks. Our prime objective is graduation with rewards for meritorious service. Some of the chief awards being valedictorian or salutatorian, a member of Torch Club, a class officer, a member of scholastic teams or a participant in extra-curricular clubs.

Our teachers, coaches, councilors, and advisers were the officers who led us to victory in the classroom, the athletic field and gymnasium, and on the stage. They have always led us gallantly, and we salute them. The training they have given us should certainly fit us well for the battles of life. We will not fail them—that is our pledge.

SENIOR CLASS SONG

The best of our days have passed,
So swiftly at O. H. S.
Knowledge and honor we've found,
And real friends of the very best.
Loyal we've been and true,
Playing so hard at the game,
The Red and White is our pride,
To put it on top is our aim.

The world expects us to be,
The foremost in all we partake.
Our duties we must fulfill,
Our place in the world to make.
Good friends remember the years,
The days that we hold dear.
Always be proud when you say,
Forty-seven is our year.

Dorothy Schroeder

Most Popular Senior Girls

By vote of the student body Dorothy Schroeder was chosen as the most popular girl of the 1947 graduating class. Dorothy, while a junior, took part in Open House and worked as a member of Reserve at O. H. S. In her senior year she reigned as Homecoming Queen by popular vote of her fellow classmates. Dorothy has been well liked and respected by all at O. H. S. and the honor bestowed upon her indicates her true "popularity".

CECILE BLANKENSHIP
BEVERLY THATCHER

LOUISE HAMLEY
SHIRLEY BACHMAN

RUNNERSUP

Chosen as runnersup were Cecile Blankenship, Louise Hamley, Beverly Thatcher and Shirley Bachman. Cecile has been recognized in the school for her speech work and participation in plays. She also was a Torch Club member.

Louise, a Torch Club member, has gained popularity as a Shark Club member. In her senior year she was president of the Sharks. Beverly, too, has been known for her work in the Shark Club and in G. A. A. In her senior year she was also treasurer of her class. Shirley, a member of Argus Annual for three years, was Editor in her senior year. She also took part in plays and was elected to Torch Club in her Junior year.

Most Popular Senior Boys

Jerry Long, elected the most popular senior boy, has been widely acclaimed at O. H. S. While a sophomore, Jerry majored in basketball, football, and track. He also was a member of Student Council. In his junior year sports again were his aim but he also took part in the operetta and High School Night. Climaxing his activities, Jerry's senior year proved his leadership. President of the Council, Torch Club membership, member of Argus News and sports; all have demonstrated his popularity and ability as a student.

CHARLES CLAYVON

VERLE BURGASON

RUNNERSUP

The boys receiving runnersup ratings were Charles Clayvon, Verle Burgason, Edd Buckley, and Jim Erland. Charles, known to all as a typical athlete, went out for football, basketball, and track each of his three years at O. H. S. Verle, too, was active in football and basketball. He also was an Argus Annual member and was elected to Torch Club in his Junior year. As a senior he was vice-president of the Student Council. Edd has best been known as President of the class during his sophomore, junior, and senior years. He also served on the Argus News staff. Jim, another sports fan, has been active in basketball and golf. He also was treasurer of the Junior class.

Junior Class

Progress is the watchword of every Ottumwa High School Junior—an arrow, speeding toward the now so near target of "Senior", a singing, triumphant shaft that has admitted no barriers. Everyday has enabled us to find new goals for which to strive, new standards to be attained, and a new chapter to be written in the class histories of O. H. S.

The path of progress, a trail of teachers, scrapes, hilarity, pink slips, hard work, and yes—even a small amount of heartbreak—would have been just that much more bewildering without the helpful and sympathetic guidance of our counsellors, Miss Nye and Miss Jameson. With patience and understanding, they have ironed out our schedule problems and intervened for us in our few times of difficulty.

To Mr. Clifford Dodds, the Junior Adviser, must go much of the "behind the scenes" credit for the many skilfully executed projects sponsored by our class during the year. Chosen to assist him were our class officers, Jim Davis, president; Walter Walker, vice-president; Marjorie McGee, secretary; Larry Houlihan, treasurer.

We cannot imagine a day, no matter how distant, when memories of our junior year in O. H. S. and some of our more scintillating achievements, will have escaped us. Our scholastic, fun-loving, and athletic elements are so well mixed that a large percentage of the sport heroes, intellectual giants, and dramatic stars of Ottumwa High come from our midst.

The annual Junior Carnival was one example of teamwork that existed between members of the class. Much planning and manpower was devoted toward making the Carnival the first of many successful events.

The "occasion of occasions", the Junior-Senior Prom, naturally occupies a cherished spot in the Junior's Memroy Book. No students begrudge their time spent in making this event a fitting culmination of the year's activities. Modern events are no longer chronicled in red on a battlefield. No longer will we see the future of our country safe guarded in terms of war and force, but instead delivered into the hands of the future leaders of America, now occupied in gaining training for their coming task in the schools of our country. So, in our senior year, the most important work is to be done.

This then, is a strategic moment for us. The curtain is down on the first two acts in which we understudied the star part. The leading roll the seniors filled so admirably becomes our responsibility and the goal they attained is ours yet to gain.

Class of '48—the stage is yours!

"Always ready—Never late
We're the class of '48."

Sophomore Class

"Wisdom and Loyalty—We combine
We're the class of '49."

The Sophomore Class has proved its slogan, for already they have furnished competition to the upper-classmen in the activities.

With two years of high school behind them and two years before them in their high school career, they have now reached the halfway mark. Great responsibilities rest on the Sophomore Class from the moment it starts its year's activities. Its members must live up to previously set standards and try to surpass goals reached by former classes. Their extra-curricular activities, as well as their studious pursuits, have shown us that here is an "up and coming" sophomore class. They know what it is to be "The Underdog", to shine other people's shoes, to admire exploits of upper-classmen; they have shown that they can "take it." But nevertheless they are eagerly looking forward to the years which lie before them. Up to now they have been busy adjusting themselves to a new and larger environment, taking their first steps under the wise guidance of their "elders". But now they are thoroughly acquainted with their new life, and they can begin to fill more important positions in sports and scholarship. They can begin "to show the stuff" out of which they are made, in a field of action broadened by increasing age and wisdom.

Although the members of this class have not made themselves greatly known as yet, they may be found well represented in all the extra-curricular activities, and in the future they will hold the spotlight in all fields. Within the next two years those who are sophomores will be seen as the main characters in plays and operettas. They will also form our football, basketball, track, and intramural teams and they will be winning declam and debate meets. For these reasons the progress of the sophomore should be watched by all. We shall discover that this class possesses many able leaders and individuals who later will play important roles in high school events. We also hope that while they are in school they will have a good time but always will realize that they are here to learn.

The students are enjoying and following the leadership of their efficient officers, but uppermost in their minds is their capable adviser, Miss Marie Schick who has been very helpful. As a means of showing their appreciation to the ones who have helped them through the rough spots during the year, they will endeavor to co-operate with the faculty and, to the best of their ability, carry on the work left to them.

We, the Argus Annual staff, have worked hard this year, striving to uphold the reputation held by the Argus Annuals of the past years. For eleven years, the annuals of O. H. S. have been entered in the National Scholastic Press Contest, held at Minneapolis. In these eleven years, the Argus Annual has ranked All American, once. Other years, the annuals have ranked in first place. We are proud of these ratings and hope to maintain them. Fortunate, indeed, were we this year, to have as our adviser, Miss King, who helped us through our many ups and downs.

This year, our two staffs, the business and editorial, were very capable and co-operative. The editorial staff proved very efficient in writing the editorials; the business staff broke all records in selling advertisements.

However all work and no play was not our motto, for we had social times during the year, also. The outstanding social event was a banquet held at the close of the school term, when the staff heads for the '48 annual, were announced.

"News while it's hot!—that's the Argus News! When the paper comes out, the students crowd around the news room, for they are anxious to see what the current stories and views are on the curricular and extra-curricular activities. One of the most interesting features is the page filled with little gossipy side lights of high school "lights".

The first page is the most serious. It contains the general news of the school. On the second page one will find the latest gossip. The third page consists of brief accounts of the various clubs and complete information concerning coming school events. On the fourth page is found the news concerning the various athletic associations and accounts of the games. Members of the Argus News staff are selected according to their ability in different phases of journalistic endeavor. To those interested in journalism, this organization affords great enjoyment and valuable training. In addition to participation on the News, those persons outstanding in service, character, and scholarship are awarded membership in the Quill and Scroll and the Arguseers, both national journalistic societies.

The adviser of the Argus News, Miss Creswell, and the critic, Miss Burrish, have done much to help make the publication a success.

Shirley Bachman, a 1947 graduate, obtained membership in Quill and Scroll. Shirley, when a Stuart Junior High freshman, was editor of the school paper. She was also on the Argus Annual Staff at O. H. S. for three years. This year was the climax of Shirley's journalistic work, when she held the highest position of the Argus Annual staff—editorship.

Quill and Scroll

Quill and Scroll, the international honor society for high school journalists, is an organization probably not widely recognized by O. H. S. students in general. Nevertheless, several journalists of our high school do hold memberships. The societies are located in every state of the Union, in Hawaii, England, China, British Honduras, and Alaska. Fifteen thousand young journalists from schools which are outstanding in the quality of their publications, wear the badge of this honor society.

The Quill and Scroll was organized in 1926 by a group of high school advisers for the purpose of encouraging and rewarding individual achievement in different journalistic fields. In its efforts the society has taken an active part in raising standards in the field of journalism. The society promotes research and conducts various surveys to determine types of publications best suited for high schools. Many other tasks are also undertaken by the organization, among them the organizing of state press associations, criticism of publications, and the acquainting of high school officials and the public with the value of high school journalism.

In our school Miss King and Miss Creswell, the heads of the two publications, lead the endeavors of the Quill and Scroll. With the support of America's outstanding journalists and educators, the Quill and Scroll Society promises to be an outstanding element in determining the future writers of America.

Joan Perry, also a member of Quill and Scroll, was second-page editor of the Argus News this year. However, Joan did not start out on the News as an editor. She was on the staff three years, the first two years serving as a reporter. While a reporter, Joan developed the qualifications necessary to become an editor.

N. F. L.

A student who has gained admittance into the National Forensic League may well be proud. He has earned the requisite twenty forensic points which entitle him to membership. These points are acquired by giving service speeches for civic groups, by debate and declam work in contests, or by participating in exhibition debates. Not only must he have won the twenty points, but he must also have demonstrated satisfactory interest and ability in forensic activities. It is required that he rank in the upper two-thirds of his class scholastically and that he be elected by a three-fourths vote of the members of N. F. L.

The purpose of the league is to honor those who have shown singular ability and perseverance. The officers are Cecile Blankenship, president; Ed Diekmann, vice-president; and Phyllis Ginsberg, secretary-treasurer.

Declam

Hamley discusses orations with his squad.

To a member of our Declam squad, the satisfying knowledge that he has given a good performance and, therefore, has upheld the prestige of O. H. S., is more gratifying than any number of cups, pins, and medals.

Divided into dramatic, humorous, and oratorical divisions, would-be Barrymores and Bernhardts are allowed to display their talents through the medium they prefer in various contests during the year. State contests and the "Iowa Nine" are but two of these. Radio, extemporaneous speaking, and interpretive reading are comparatively new phases of the Declam field.

After viewing the year's triumphs, the O. H. S. Declam squad and their coach, Mr. Hamley, are to be saluted for a difficult task "well done."

One of the most popular and beneficial organizations of O. H. S. is the Debate Club. Any student who is interested in debate or declamation may become a member of this group. The purpose of the Debate Club is to promote speech in all departments. Another of its aims is to assist each member in mastering any nervousness or self-consciousness he may feel while speaking before an audience.

Under the direction of the competent Mr. Hamley, this year has been an exceptionally successful one for the debaters. They have striven to break down that wall of fear they may have previously experienced in public speaking. Each of their numerous debates has been most interesting and educational.

MISS HERRALD, Adviser

The Dramatic Club being the largest organization of its type in Ottumwa High School, and perhaps the most popular with the student body, always strives to give polished performances.

Requirements for membership in this club are that each student who wishes to try out, shall read a few lines from some paper or book. Consideration of enunciation and tone quality are important determining factors. Also, a pantomime is given. The members of the Thespian Club, an inner honorary society of the Dramatic Club, then select those who they believe are best qualified for membership in the club. Students are required to have a certain number of points each year to remain an active member. Each person must work on one of the many crews, assist in lighting, acting, prompting, or selling tickets to secure these points.

Some boys and girls may not have dramatic talent. However, the show could not possibly go on without the assistance of unseen, unsung, backstage actors and actresses. There are few who cannot find some branch in this organization where their ability may be used. Possibly some are capable of painting scenery for a production; others who have business instinct may promote ticket sales; still others may work as electricians.

This year Dramatic Club accomplished much under the leadership of Miss Ruthanne Herrald, the new dramatic coach. While at Coe College Miss Herrald majored in dramatics and took part in productions. With this valuable experience and her untiring efforts she directed three of the most successful plays ever produced on our stage.

The officers chosen to serve this year were: president, Robert Taylor; vice-president, Frank Parks; secretary, Phyllis Ginsberg; treasurer, Larry Houlihan.

Thespians

The dream and aspiration of every member of the Dramatic Club is to belong to the National Thespian Society. To be a Thespian one must be genuinely interested in dramatics and must desire to excel in this laudable activity. Enthusiasm, determination, energy—these are the major factors which largely determine whatever measure of success is had by the dramatist.

The aim of the organization is to create an active and intelligent interest in the dramatics of our school. Any Dramatic Club member is eligible for Thespians when he has earned the required one hundred points. These points represent diligent work and long hours of service by the student. They may be earned by taking part in a play, by selling tickets, by working on one of the numerous crews or by executing various other tasks.

After reaching the rank of Thespian a student may climb further and reach still greater heights by becoming a Star, Double Star, or Honor Thespian.

The duties of the Thespians are many. Theirs is the job of selecting new members for the Dramatic Club. They annually present a play, sponsored solely by them. This year's play, under the direction of Miss Herrald, the very popular and capable new dramatic coach, is a fitting tribute to their ability. In the spring of each year the Thespians hold a banquet, in honor of the new members.

The officers for this year are: president—Dick Collins; vice-president, Cecile Blankenship; secretary, Joan Perry; and treasurer, David Lodwick.

June Mad

"June Mad", a clever comedy in three acts, is a story about Penny Wood, a teenager, who is involved in the difficult business of growing up. Penny ignores the boy next door, Chuck Harris, who is interested in building gliders much to the dislike of his father. Dr. Wood is confused by Penny's actions, but Mrs. Wood, a patient and loving mother, aids her daughter through the dilemma which occurs when her brother, G. Mervyn Roberts, brings a college senior, Roger Van Vleck, home for a visit. Penny immediately forgets her childish whims and falls in love with Roger, who in turn, flirts with Mervyn's girl friend, Julie Harris. The perplexing situation is made more intense by the sudden disappearance of young Chuck while testing his glider. Penny then realizes that she likes Chuck and the play ends happily.

High School Night

"Peas 'n Cues," an original script, written by Betty Amos, Jack Conder, and Joanne Pumroy, was the title of the High School Night program. The plot centered around the activities of a group of dramatic art students who needed funds to continue their college education. After securing a barn for a theatre, and overcoming many difficulties, they presented their play, "Novelty Notes."

Included in this production were: Symphony Notes, a selection of music played by the O. H. S. orchestra; Key Notes, a piano solo by Janice Yahn; Theater Notes, a short one-act play; Program Notes, a song featuring the Girls' Trio; Gym Notes, acrobatics by a group of the girl tumblers of O. H. S.; Solo Notes, vocal solo by Margaret Ann Hoswell; Concert Notes, a musical selection by the O. H. S. Chorus; and Blue Notes, a group of popular songs featuring Mowery's Melodiers.

More interest has been shown in the Ottumwa High School band this year than ever before. The band has been very successful in performing its part in the activities of the school. The organization is composed of approximately fifty-seven members. Even though the students must spend long hours practicing and marching in all kinds of weather, they are always loyal.

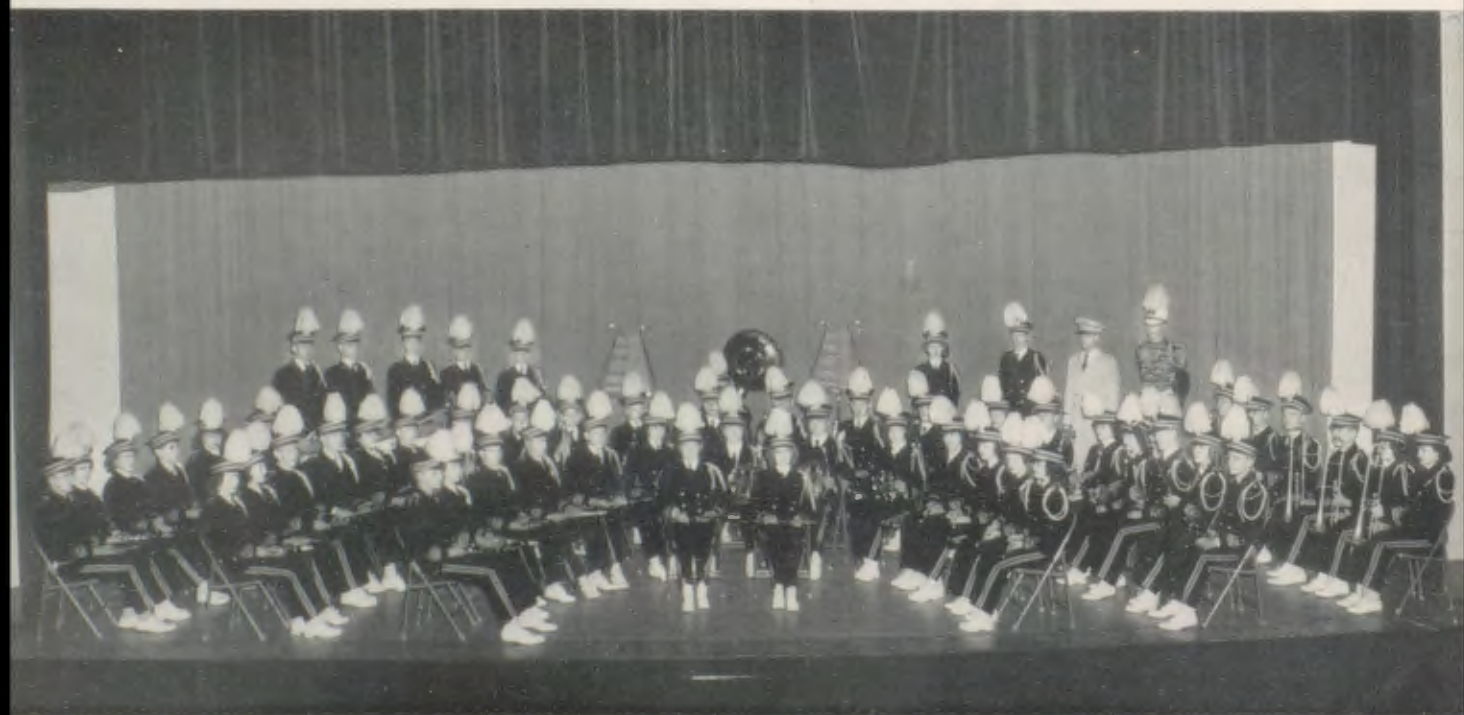

Besides playing for all the football and basketball games, the band takes part in all pep assemblies, the homecoming parade, and many other parades. The unique and fascinating formations that the group has made between halves at the games have won the praise of not only Ottumwa High School students but also of the opponents.

For those students of Ottumwa High School who play musical instruments the orchestra offers an opportunity to work and to practice so that they may become a member of this organization. One of the first extra-curricular organizations to be founded in the school was the orchestra, and since then it has played an important part in the school activities. Many times during the school year, the orchestra is heard by both the students and the public, since it is asked to play before and between acts of Dramatic Club Plays, for Open House, for High School Night, and for many other programs.

The Ottumwa High School orchestra contains approximately thirty-five members, all of whom can play reasonably well.

"Full" orchestra (that is, with all members present) is held before each performance. The string section meets daily in room three hundred. Each member of the orchestra receives personal instruction as it is needed. This tends to help the individual as well as the organization. In their public appearances the boys wear suits and the girls wear formals.

In the spring of each year, the orchestra either enters the state music contests or attends the Iowa State Music Festival. Through these experiences the members are inspired to new heights of achievement.

This year the group was under the direction of Mr. Logan Zahn who is the new musical instructor in the Ottumwa High School.

Among the small vocal groups within the Ottumwa High School music department are the more talented music students.

The girls' trio is one of the groups chosen each year. They present old and modern compositions very effectively. The voices of the girls are well blended, so that no one voice stands out above another. This group which consists of a soprano, a second soprano, and an alto, functions at many school activities. They often take part in special programs in the community as well as in school. The girls meet twice a week for rehearsals under the direction of Miss Selma G. Aas. Here they gain an understanding of the music that they sing so well. Some of us little realize or appreciate the work done by such groups, but it is an opportunity for those who like music.

Trio

Olive Camille Hancock, Ruth Troeger, Beverly Bain, Janice Yahn, Accompanist.

Another such organization is the Girls' Sextette. The six girls composing it are well known in the school for their presentation of well-loved songs. All of these girls sing in the Mixed Chorus. It is not necessary for the members of these organizations to possess exceptional voices, but we know that the quality must be especially good. Their voices should have a clear quality and an accurate pitch. Besides getting a great deal of enjoyment from her work under Miss Aas, each girl also gets much personal benefit from the training she receives. From each appearance, whether it is a school program or a community program, the members acquire a certain number of activity points. We are truly grateful to this group for their work that helps Ottumwa High School to maintain the high standards that it now holds.

The brush wielders of O. H. S. can be found in room three hundred eighty. For it is here, under the direction of Miss Eighme, many "masterpieces" are produced by the members of Art Club.

The Art Club is organized for the social enjoyment of its members as well as for the creation of greater interest and keener appreciation of all phases of art. Business meetings are held once a month. Several parties and other social gatherings are held during the year.

Students of the club strive to gain the required number of points for a membership into Iota Alpha Gamma, the inner honor circle of the club. The officers are: president, Phyllis Crable; vice-president, Donna Gilliland; secretary-treasurer, Afra Mulvany.

Iota Alpha Gamma, translated "Inner Art Club", is one of the newer organizations in our school. To gain membership in this select group one must earn fifty points through outside art work, set designing, and participation in the various projects sponsored by Iota Alpha Gamma or the Art Club. This group was organized for the purpose of encouraging artistic ability and building up skill and interest in art. Under the direction of Miss Eighme this club has been very successful during the past years.

The members of Iota Alpha Gamma sponsor an "all school" dance each spring. They also give the other organizations of O. H. S. strong competition with their beautiful homecoming floats. The officers are president, Phyllis Crable; vice-president, Marilyn Stansberry; secretary, Beverly Richards; and treasurer, Afra Mulvany.

Hi-Y

Fortunate, indeed, is the boy who is elected to Hi-Y. He is selected because his thoughts, words, and actions are based upon clean living, good judgment, good sportsmanship, and honor. When chosen, he pledges himself "to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian living."

As a member of Hi-Y, he assists in the sponsoring of the annual homecoming. He also helps arrange numerous dances, and he takes part in countless school activities. He may even be sent as a delegate to a Hi-Y convention. He eagerly looks forward to the many, many good times enjoyed in Hi-Y. Sports, movies, hayrides, and parties are planned for him—the Hi-Y'er.

Rounding out Ottumwa High's offerings of diversified extra-curricular activities is the Spanish Club, which provides that "Latin" touch for those Spanish students interested in delving into the customs and amusements of our colorful neighbors "south-of-the-border." The members combine their efforts successfully to insure entertaining programs at meetings, which range from travel lectures to mirth-provoking Spanish costume parties.

A great deal of credit for Spanish Club popularity is due to the active sponsor, Mr. Hamley and the officers, Corky Stevens, president; Evelyn Wulfekuhler, vice-president; and Joy Wilson, secretary. Certainly, many high school organizations of this kind will do much to promote and secure a better understanding between Pan-American countries.

The Commercial Club was organized not only for social purposes, but also for giving the members ideas about business before they actually have to apply them. Any student taking two or more commercial subjects is eligible. Many of these problems are not studied in the class room because of the lack of time; but in the club meetings, the problems may be more thoroughly discussed. However, the club is not all work. For the past few years, parties have been given which do much to interest a student in the club. The officers are: president, Joyce Hilleary; vice-president, Dorothy Jones; secretary, Joan Woolsey; treasurer, Shirley Purdue. The club functions under the capable direction of Miss Wilson.

Librarians

Many a harassed Ottumwa High School student or faculty member has bestowed a silent vote of thanks upon our library, its supervisor, Miss Gallanar, and the thirty-two members of the Librarians' Club, for their conscientious efforts toward making our library a smoothly-run organization.

Devoting one free period each day toward executing the many and diversified duties required of them, the Librarians' Club members not only offer students assistance in locating books and research material, but gain, for themselves, valuable knowledge of the intricacies of the filing and checking systems.

Considering the fine achievements of the Librarians' Club, the teachers and students of O. H. S. should look with pride upon the work of this group.

The wearer of the prominent red-and-white usher band is no longer an inconspicuous part of the scenery at events sponsored by Ottumwa High School. Our ushers have risen to a prominent position in school activities.

Conscientious students, chosen for ushering, find themselves devoting many hours toward making the system a success. The ushers serve not only at football and basketball games, but at Dramatic Club plays, High School Night, Civic Music Concerts, and any number of other occasions.

Much of the success of the ushering system can be attributed to Mr. Tiede, the adviser, and Gene West, head usher.

By their own efficient, courteous efforts, the ushers have earned the many compliments heaped upon them.

Cheer Leaders

Ours is a peppy bunch of Cheer Leaders!

"Come on kids! let's really yell!" This was a very common phrase used by our cheerleaders during the past year to arouse pep from the student section at the games and during pep assemblies. It is the cheerleaders who help make possible the victories of the team, through their energetic leading of the yells, school songs, and other antics necessary to arouse enthusiasm.

This year a large group of students tried out for the position of cheerleader. Each one trying out was required to lead the student body in a yell. The students then balloted on the four they thought best. These four were Deloris Davis, Marjorie McGee, Bob Smith, and Betty Thatcher. The two receiving the next highest number of votes were the reserves. They were Cecile Blankenship and Dick Collins. The two sophomore cheerleaders were Norrine Buchanan and Barbara Smith.

Coaches

COACH NEWELL

Head athletic mentor for Ottumwa High School is Don Newell. Don is not a new member of Ottumwa's staff since he has been here for eighteen years. Ottumwa's athletic teams under Newell have had continuous success throughout his many seasons at O. H. S. Don recently received his M. A. from Colorado State Teachers' College at Greeley, Colorado. His service as coach of the Ottumwa Bulldogs has earned him the respect and admiration of athletes, sport fans, and fellow coaches throughout Iowa.

COACH MAASDAM

Maasdam is assistant football and basketball coach and head mentor of Ottumwa's thin clads. Fred's services as line coach in football, sophomore coach in basketball, and director of boys' intramural games have been invaluable to the athletic triumphs of our school. Mr. Maasdam, along with Mr. Newell, also conducts physical education classes for O. H. S. boys.

COACH PENCE

Mr. Pence graduated from Coe College, where he lettered in football. He has coached at Columbus Junction, Anamosa, and at Central College. The fine work of Jack Pence will be clearly visible in Ottumwa's football teams of the future.

The Ottumwa High School bulldogs again closed another successful season on the grid-iron this year. Their final record was six wins and three losses. Although the '46 team did not match the undefeated record of last year's eleven, it was still considered one of Iowa's most powerful high school elevens.

The bulldogs' starting team consisted of Terry Harper at center, Bill Dykemann and Jack McGee, guards; Jerry Long and Dale Sanford at the tackle positions. The wingmen were Verle Burgason and Clarke Phillips. Coach Newell's starting backfield had Zip Clayvon at quarterback, Moose Nevins and Corky Stevens at the halfback posts, and Ray Hamersley at the fullback assignment.

Although the bulldogs lost two successive close decisions to Burlington and Muscatine by one touch-down margins, they still held the best defensive record in the Little Six Conference. The team was seriously weakened early in the season when Deane Stoltz, regular left guard, suffered a cracked bone in his foot and was lost for the rest of the season.

Much credit for the Bulldogs' success this year goes to our coaches, Don Newell and Fred Maasdam. Don's job is to train the backfield and ends, while Fred has charge of the remainder of the line.

Next year's prospects appear very good, for there are nine returning lettermen including four backfield candidates who have had considerable experience working together on this year's squad.

The Ottumwa High School's thin-clads of 1946 had another successful year under track mentor, Fred Maasdam. Ottumwa opened the track season by placing second in the Little Six Indoor meet held at Iowa City—Burlington defeated us there by three points. The thin clads continued their winning ways by copping the Fort Madison and Mt. Pleasant Relays. In State wide competition at the annual Oskaloosa Relays, the O. H. S. Bulldogs came home with third place ribbons. Ottumwa was defeated by two Des Moines schools, East and North High. In their only dual meet of the season, the Bulldogs soundly trounced the Oskaloosa Indians.

Ottumwa was host to the Little Six Outdoor Meet where we again finished second behind the powerful Burlington Grayhounds. To the Drake Relays in Des Moines Ottumwa sent nine athletes. Eddie Smith placed second in the mile run for Ottumwa's only major win.

O. H. S. thin clads had only four qualifiers for the State Meet held at Ames. They were Bob Angle, Don Ferguson, Ed Smith, and Jerry Long. In this meet featuring the best high school track men in Iowa, Smith placed third in the mile run and Jerry Long surprised the dopsters by placing second in the football throw. Thus Ottumwa High's thin clads completed one of its most successful seasons. Fred Maasdam and assistant coach Don Newell deserve much of the credit for this impressive record.

Basketball

The 1946-'47 basketball season has closed. Jerry Long, Zip Clayvon, Verle Burgason, and Jim Erland will never again don the basketball regalia for Ottumwa High, but they and their feats on the basketball court will not soon be forgotten. These boys, with the able assistance of talented underclassmen and the coaching genius of Don Newell performed brilliantly enough to be worthy of ranking with any of the great Bulldog teams of the past. They captured a share of the Little Six Conference championship, then fought their way to fourth place in the Iowa State Basketball Tournament.

After a rather slow start the Bulldogs hit their stride and rushed on to prove that they were one of the most capable cage crews in all Iowa. They dropped their fourth game to Muscatine but later avenged the defeat with a decisive victory. Iowa City, trounced once by the Bulldogs, was the only other scheduled team to top the Red and White. Ottumwa High finished the regular season with the fine record of seventeen wins against but two losses.

Then came the state tournament. The Bulldogs gained their way to the semifinals but lost a last-minute decision to Davenport. The next day the heart-broken quintet lost to Danbury and held fourth place in a field of 912.

The squad finished the season with a marvelous record, and, but for a stroke of misfortune, might have been state champs. Our hats are off to the members of the squad and their coach. To them we say—"Well done."

G. A. A.

The purpose of the Girls' Athletic Association of Ottumwa High School is to stimulate interest in wholesome leisure-time activities and to standardize and promote ideals of health and sportsmanship.

Girls wishing to become members of this organization must secure fifty points during the three weeks set aside for that purpose. In order to obtain the required points, members of the association plan a program to test the aspirants' qualifications. Things included in this program are softball, volleyball, basketball and swimming. One goal of the girls is to be awarded a letter which requires five hundred points. After this has been accomplished, a state pin is presented to those who have one thousand points.

G. A. A. holds regular meetings during the second week of each month to organize various activities as a group. Not only is pleasant recreation offered, but also an excellent opportunity is given for training in leadership. This quality develops a sportsman-like attitude which is so necessary for success in athletics.

Those serving as officers for this year are: president, Christine Keasling; vice-president, Marjorie Rowland; point-secretary, Mary Booth; student manager, Barbara Winfrey. The Girls' Athletic Association is under the joint sponsorship of Miss Vida Bernau and Miss Carolyn Johnson. Together they assist in planning many interesting activities and offer their services as judges and referees in organized games, not to mention their valuable instruction.

After school in the gym. Basketball—Phyllis Crane, Pat Thomas, Pat Gilroy, Mary Booth, Jean Hotchkiss, Shirley West. . . . Chris is always in there pitching in every sport—Christine Keasling By practicing balance these back swans are bound to appear. Top—Marjorie Rowland, Pat Smith, Donna Sickels, Shirley Jennings. Bottom—Barbara Winfrey, Betty Thatcher, Lois McCoy, Chris Keasling. . . . Volley Ball—Ramona Moyer, Norinne Buchanan, Arzell Johnson, Martha Agee G. A. A. Officers: Barbara Winfrey, Student Manager; Martha Agee, Secretary-Treasurer, Marjorie Rowland, Vice-President; Beulah Myers, Publicity Manager; Chris Keasling, President; Mary Booth, Point Secretary.

Girls who enjoy swimming and have attained skill in this sport usually work to become members of the Ottumwa High School Shark Club. Such aspirants should contact a "Shark" who will observe the applicant's ability and recommend, if qualified, that these applicants be entered in the try-out held the beginning of each semester. Points upon which greatest emphasis are placed are ability to glide, endurance, and correct usage of strokes. Inasmuch as the requirements are very rigid, applicants meeting these requirements enter a select group. A traditional initiation is held before the girls enter this organization. After being elected, the new member, if not already registered in Red Cross Life Saving, must attain this degree as soon as possible. Such knowledge aids in preventing many water mishaps and is beneficial in obtaining life saving positions.

An outstanding and pleasurable anticipated school entertainment was the Shark water pageant under the supervision of Miss Vida Bernau, the capable instructor, a graduate of the Aquatic School of Oconomowoc, Wisconsin. She with the assistance of members planned a spectacular water program, with many new and original feats, plus modernized versions of the old favorites such as, formations and stunts. Also, the diving exhibition consisted of jackknives, half-twists, swans, and two-person combinations.

The officers elected for this year were: president, Louise Hamley; vice-president, Donna Davis; secretary, Barbara Goiens; treasurer, Beverly Thatcher.

Graduates, Now What?

Senior class of the Ottumwa High School, you have reached an important mark in your travel along life's highway. To be there, you had to progress.

The curriculum of our schools from your first day to this, your teachers, your parents, your associates, have played their parts with you.

Further progress is an individual matter, to a greater degree than you have experienced heretofore. Make it worthy of you and your community.

72 YEARS AGO

Only thirty-seven stars were in Old Glory back seventy-two years ago, when the Lowenberg Bakery was founded... eleven states had not yet been admitted to the Union. There was no electric light then, Edison didn't invent it until three years later. "Alice in Wonderland" was still a recently published story, and Gilbert and Sullivan's "Mikado" hadn't been born! But the Lowenberg Bakery saw the light of day back those many years... and we're still going strong! Don't even feel "mighty spry" yet—not old enough for that!

Congratulations

To the members of the Class of 1947.....as you conclude four memorable high school years and confidently face the future.....our sincere good wishes for continued success.

John Morrell & Co., an Ottumwa institution for over 70 years, has congratulated members of class after class, for generation after generation, but each year the wishes are new and sincere.

Students of today are homemakers of tomorrow, and we are happy that Morrell Pride products are confidently welcomed into new homes as a part of the scheme of things that contribute to the joy of good living. We promise never to take this confidence lightly.
