

Conservation Queens

The Davis County Soil Conservation Queens are shown riding on the queen's float in the parade Saturday at the Davis County Old Soldiers and Old Settlers Reunion at Drakesville. The queens, chosen Thursday night, are Lois Horn (left) and Janet Lough.

Miss Lough, Miss Horn Are Queen Winners at Drakesville Reunion

8-8-67

Janet Lough and Lois Horn were crowned the Davis County Queens of Conservation Thursday night at the Davis County Old Soldiers and Settlers Reunion at Drakesville.

Miss Lough is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Lough of Bloomfield and Miss Horn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Dean Horn of Drakesville.