

WOLF GROVE - (WADILoup)

9 Mar. 1867 -

We understand that a new post office has been established at Wolf Grove, in Grundy Co. It is called Wadiloup, what a name! Jonas T. Wiley has been appointed Postmaster.

We understand

13 June 1868 -

The "Flouring Mill" which Mr. Snow is building, is being pushed ahead as rapidly as possible.

4 Nov. 1869 -

The post office at Wadiloup, Grundy Co., has been discontinued by the Postmaster General, because the postmaster failed to make out his regular returns. The mail matter addressed to the defunct office may be had for the present at the office in this city (M'town).

13 June 1868 -

The "Flouring Mill", which Mr. Snow is building, is being pushed ahead as rapidly as possible. The wheat crop looks finely and near every $\frac{1}{4}$ section of prairie has a breaking team upon it.
