Mrs. Ward's First Graders stories about their Field Trip to Grammer Grove, May 2.

GRAMMER GROVE

We saw a water snake. I found a trail by the water. I climbed the rock and I went on a trail by myself. I looked for flowers. I took pop and I took some Oriole cookies. I took some cornchips and I took some pudding. I took some sandwiches.

GRAMMER GROVE

We went into the woods to look at flowers. We played a game called "Stop and Go". We had a nice picnic. We saw a water snake. I saw a big rock. We had fun. We drew a picture and we looked at a tree. We went walking on the bridges. We saw foot prints. We had cookies at the end.

First Graders celebrate Earth Week

by Gloria D. Stewart

WEST MARSHALL - First graders had a special guest last Tuesday. Barb Funke appearing as Tulip, the Clown told the story "ItZwibble and the Greatest Cleanup Ever!"

The visit was part of a week long emphasis on "Earth Week". The students created a large poster which reminded others to "Celebrate Earth Week - Every Week." Each child's hand was displayed in green, on the Earth background representing their part in making a difference by: recycling, protecting endangered animals, planting trees, not littering, and caring for their Earth.

Tulip and forest friend, Rocky, reminded the children to "Pound Out Pollution" with the three R's: recycle, respect the environment, and replant to clean our air.

On Thursday the classes took recyclable items to the Marshalltown Recycling and Redemption Center. Dorothy Maish, State Center Recycling Coordinator, explained the process to the children.

"Celebrate Earth Week, Every Week" is the message on this poster made by first graders. The tree and outer circle were made of hand prints of the children.
