

Relic of Farragut's Fighting Days
