

Dorothy Rowe Bride 1937 of Laurence Zink

Beaman, Feb. 17 — (Special) — Miss Dorothy Rowe, daughter of E. N. Rowe of Beaman was united in marriage Sunday, Feb. 14, at Elgin, to Lawrence Zink, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Zink, who lives four miles south of Beaman. Rev. J. J. Snyder, a former Beaman pastor, performed the single ring ceremony. The bride was dressed in navy blue taffeta with blue accessories to match and carried a bouquet of roses.

Following the ceremony, a wedding dinner was given in their honor by Mrs. J. J. Snyder at the Snyder home. Mr. and Mrs. Zink left during the afternoon for a trip thru Wisconsin and will come home thru Chicago, Ill., stopping at the Walter Zink and Lon Williams homes for a short visit. They will be at home on a farm after the first of March, three and one-half miles south of Beaman on the Beaman-Green Mountain road.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Zink were graduates of the Beaman high
