

Mrs. Vera Small to conservation camp

Mrs. Vera Small, a sixth grade teacher in the Bloomfield Elementary Center, was today named as the local representative to the Iowa Teachers's Conservation Camp being held in Springbrook State Park north of Guthrie Center.

Mrs. Small, who received a scholarship covering her tuition from the Davis County Soil Conservation District, will attend the camp through June 22.

While there, she is studying biology, soil and land management and water conservation.