

1971

Janice Eakins is conservation queen

DRAKESVILLE — Janice Eakins, 16, was crowned queen of Davis County Conservation and reigned throughout the Davis County Old Soldiers and Settlers Reunion held here on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Janice is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garold Eakins of rural Bloomfield. She was crowned by last year's queen, Jodi Stevenson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Stevenson of rural Drakesville.

Miss Eakins was chosen from eight contestants. Marla Hershey, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hershey, was runnerup. All eight girls were judged at a tea held last Sunday afternoon at the Drakesville Methodist Church.

Other girls trying for the crown were Diane Grim, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Grim; Joyce Long, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milo Long; Anita Rasmussen, 19, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Rasmussen; Becky Redmond,

QUEEN JANICE

19, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Audie Redmond; Vicky Rysdam, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Rysdam, and Carla Silvers, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Silvers.

Approximately 10 per cent of the world's people are left-handed.