THE PLAYERS

Captain "Beef" Karges played his third year at center, and used his two-hundred pounds to good advantage, playing in all the games, and always setting an example for the team to follow. "Beef" was given honorable mention on the all-conference team.

Captain-Elect Forrest Gaffin played his second year at fullback, and was one of the best line-plungers in the state, and backed up the line in a good shape. Our next year's captain was picked as fullback on the second all-Iowa Conference Team.

"Bill" Weir played his second year on the team, and was played as quarter and halfback. "Bill" was out of part of the games on account of injuries, but put up a good passing and kicking game.

"Les" Redenbaugh, playing his second year in the line, put up a great game at guard; and although outweighed forty or fifty pounds by every man he met, he more than held his own.

"Ed" Hagedorn played tackle, and was one of the mainstays of the beaver line. "Heg" was considered one of the best line men in the state, and was picked on the second all-conference team.

Leslie Rollins, playing at halfback, was noted for his speed and ability to get away for long runs. He was a fine defensive man and was given honorable mention on all conference teams.

Edward Saggau played his first year for the Beavers and starred at halfback and end. He was given honorable mention in all conference team.

Edward Mullen held down the quarterback position, and ran the team in fine shape, getting away for many long runs. "Hicky" was given honorable mention on all-State and all conference teams.

Emmett Barron held down right end, and was one of the best running men that ever played on a Beaver team. He was picked on third all-State and first all-conference team.

Walter Bradford played left end for the Beavers, and was one of the hardest fighters on the team.

Eugene Ibach, one of the Beaver guards, played a strong game at all times, and broke up many plays sent at the line.

RECORD OF GAMES

The first game of the season was played with an old enemy of Buena Vista, the State Teachers. The game was played in a pour-down of rain, and in the third quarter a drop kick by Gaffin scored the only points made during the game. The game ended 3 to 0 in favor of Buena Vista.

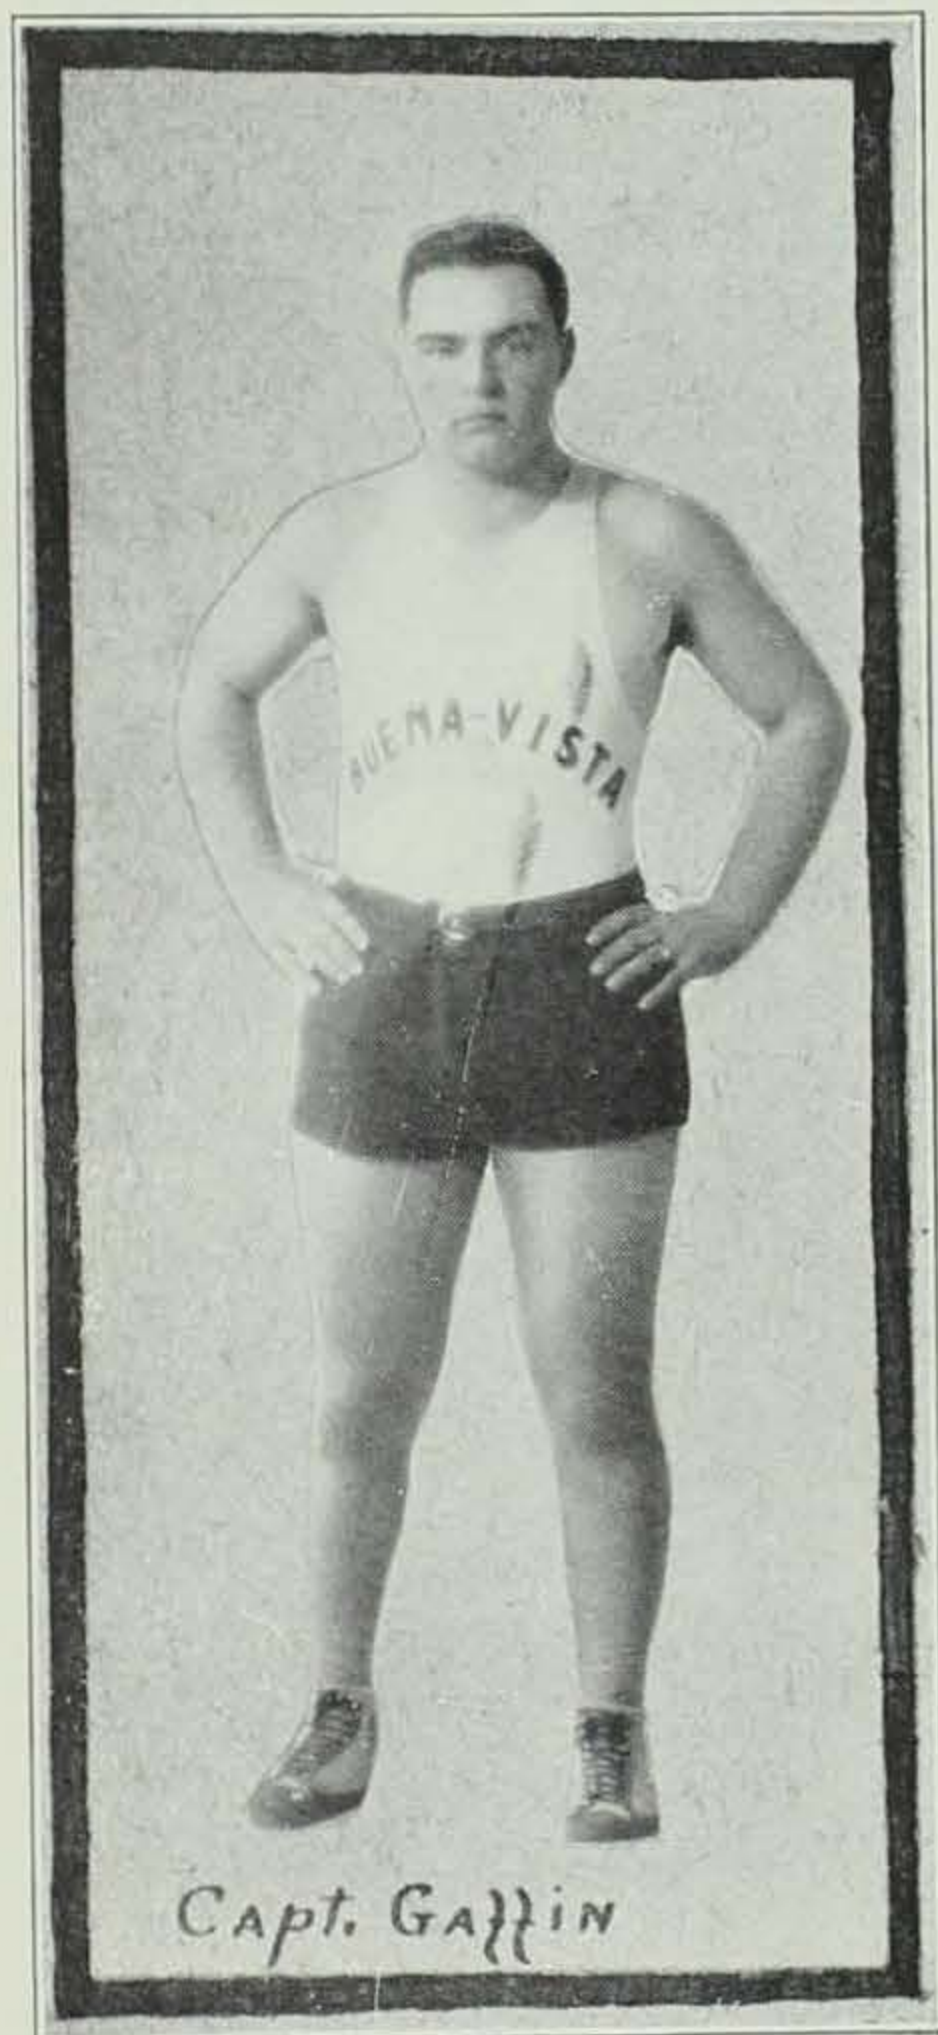

The first half of the game with Ellsworth ended without a score, but in the second half Saggau made two touchdowns and Weir one, leaving the score, at the end of the game 18 to 0 in favor of Buena Vista.

The score stood 7 to 0 in favor of Still at the end of the first half, but in the second half Buena Vista came back strong, making a touchdown and a dropkick. Buena Vista again won with a score of 9 to 7.

The Wayne Normal game was one of the hardest of the season. During the first half no score was made, but during the second half a pass from Weir to Barron resulted in a touchdown. The referee's whistle blew on the final score of 6 to 0 in favor of Buena Vista.

Buena Vista's undefeated annexed another victory by snowing under the Sioux Falls aggregation by a score of 52 to 0. The Beaver's had their own way throughout the whole game, with the Buena Vista goal threatened but once.

Buena Vista's last game of the season was looked forward to as the hardest, and no one was disappointed. During the first half the Beaver's entirely outplayed the Catholics, but due to a streak of luck, Trinity made a touchdown on an intercepted pass, and also kicked goal. A few minutes later Buena Vista gained a touchdown on a pass from Weir to Mullen, and Mullen kicked goal. The score at the end of the first half was 7 to 7. In the second half the visitors played hard but failed to score. Buena Vista also had the ball on Trinity's one-yard line, but failed to pass it over. The final game of the season ended in a tie, 7 to 7.

RECORD OF GAMES

Buena Vista was defeated by South Dakota University in the first two games of the season by a very close margin.

In the third game of the season, Tabor suffered a glorious defeat from Buena Vista, the final score being 35 to 13.

Buena Vista won from the Catholics with a score of 21 to 17. Buena Vista easily outclassed Trinity.

The Osteopaths from Still proved too stiff for the Beavers, and in this game Buena Vista was defeated by 23 to 12.

At Pella Iowa, Buena Vista easily defeated the Central College quintet with the score of 15 to 11.

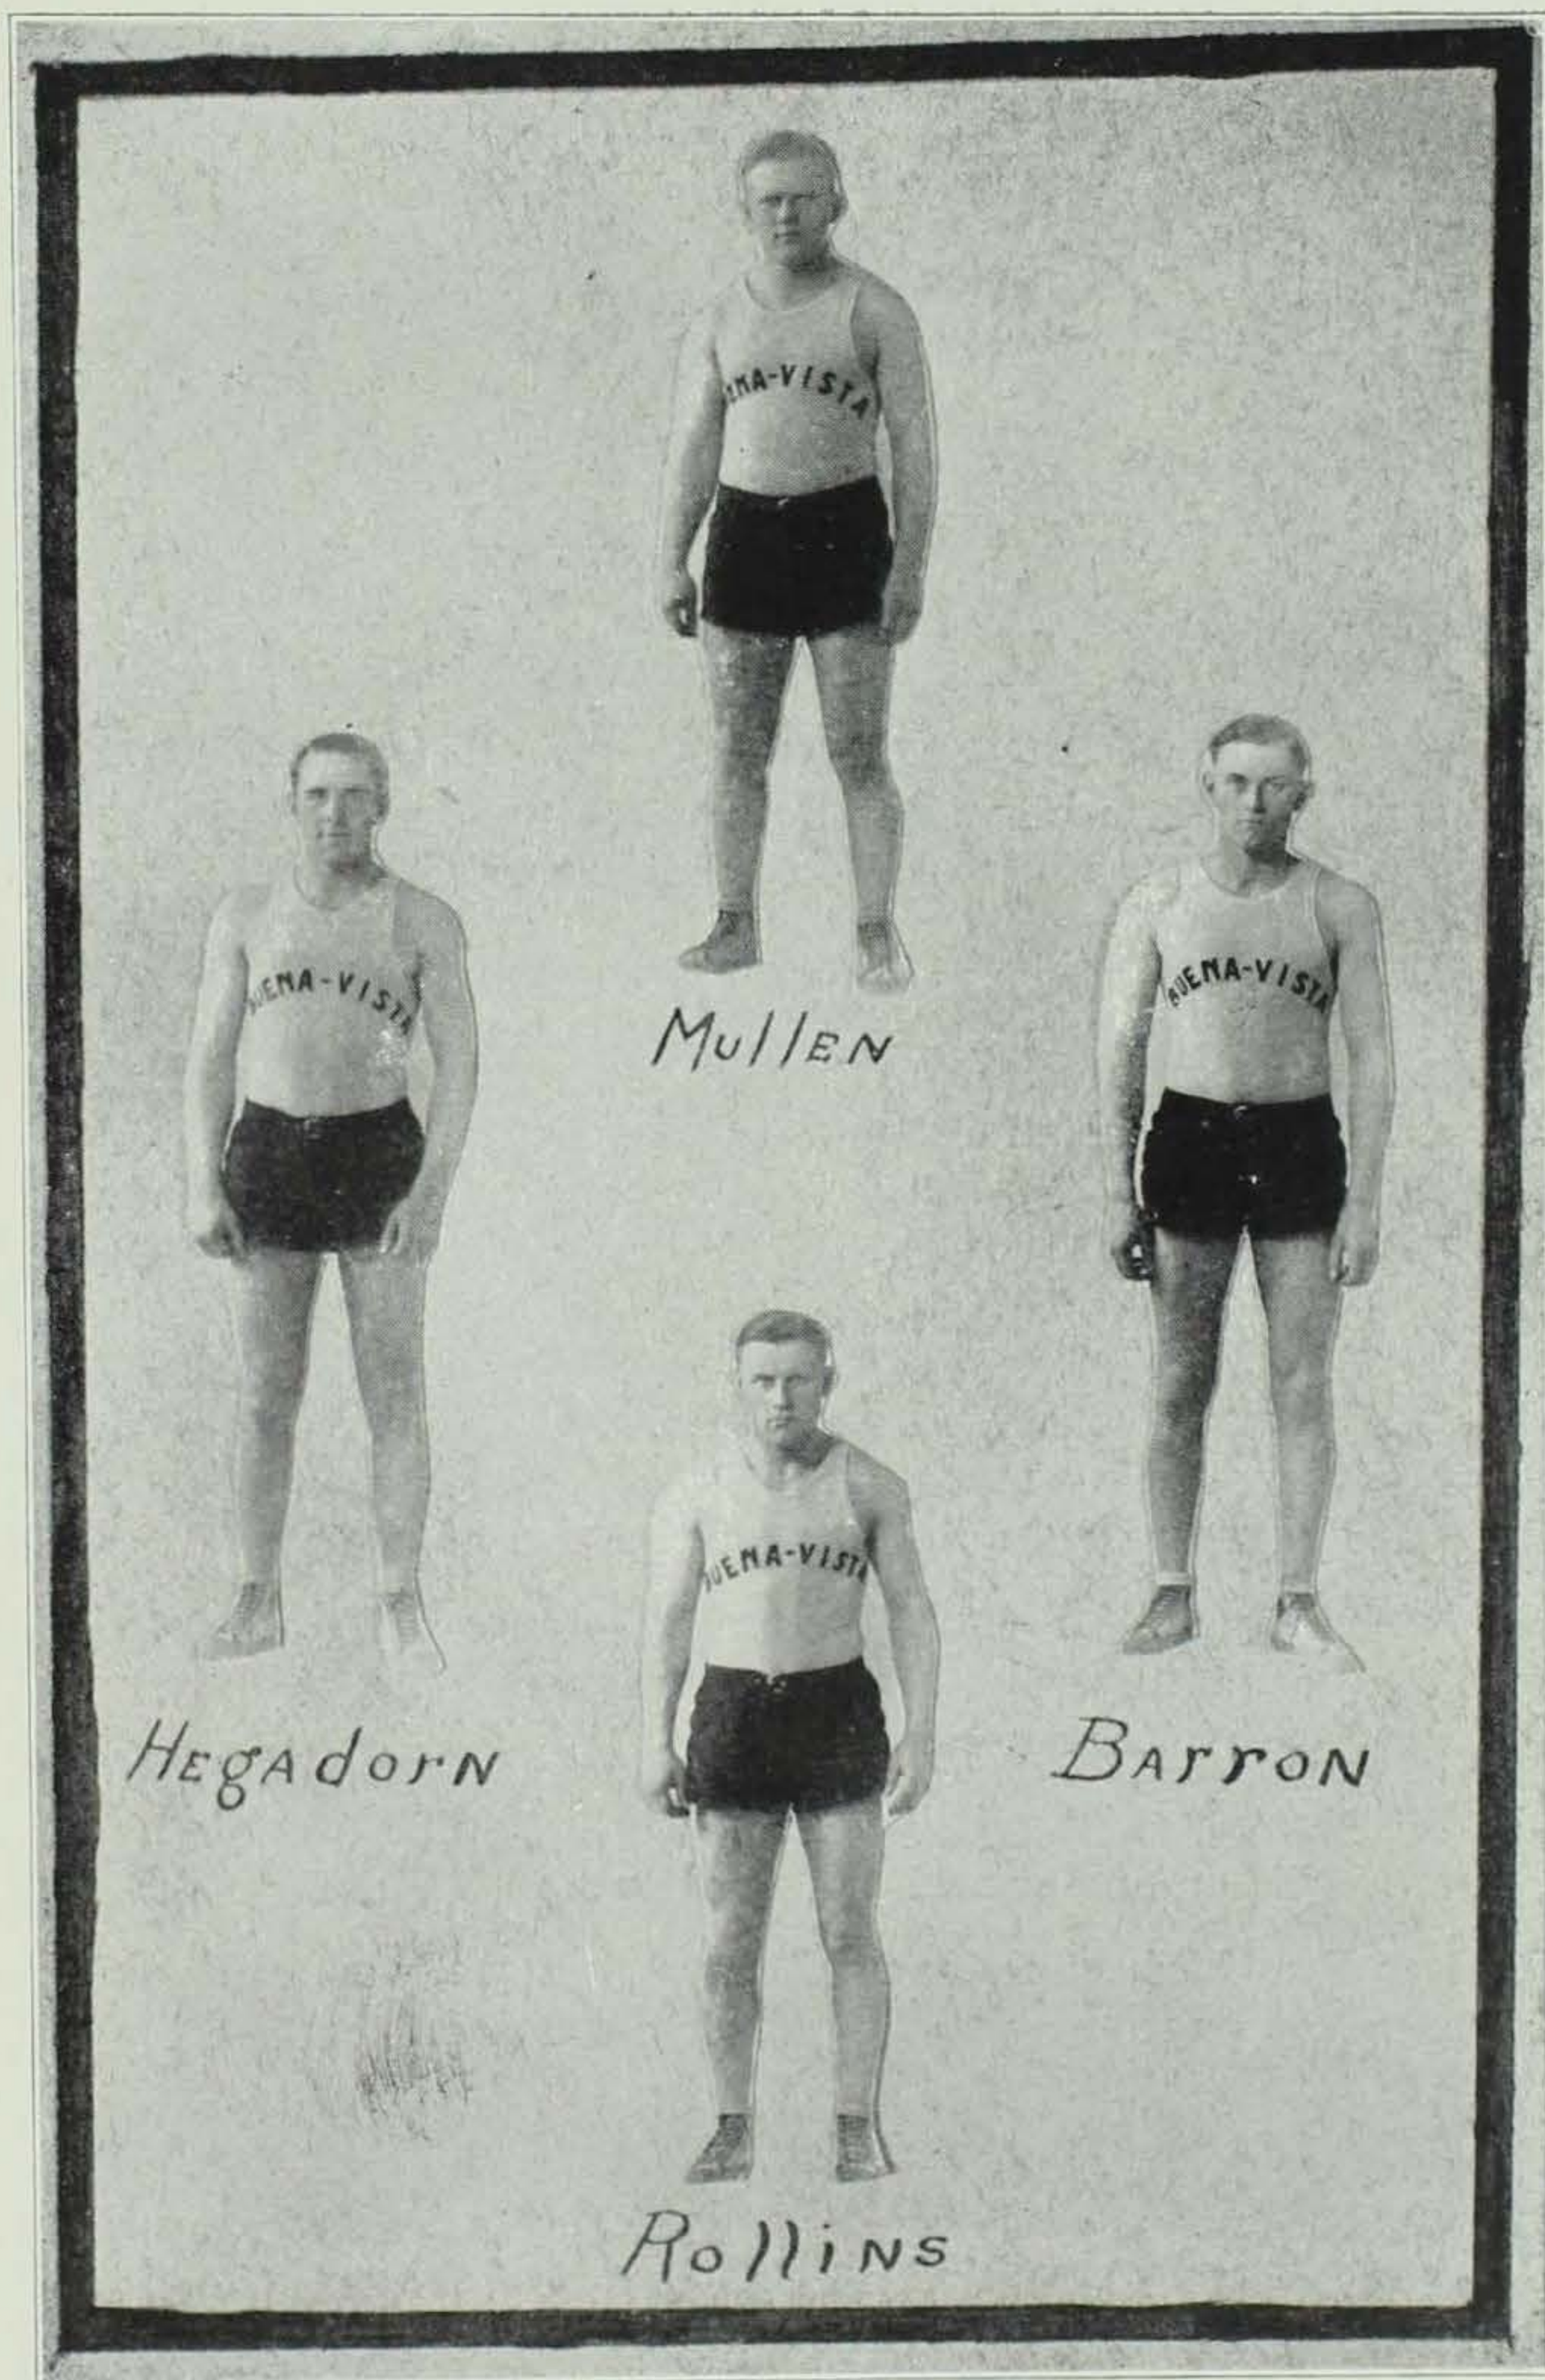

Simpson won a victory from Buena Vista on their own floor with a 25 to 18 score.

Buena Vista journeyed to Des Moines and payed back the early defeat of Still by winning 14 to 13.

Western Union was defeated in two different games, one on the home floor and one at Lemars.

Trinity, in the second game with Buena Vista, won by the narrow margin of three points.

In all, the basket ball season for 1923 has been one of the peppiest and most successful seasons that Buena Vista has known.

THE PLAYERS

Captain Forrest Gaffin, the only man on the team playing his second year, put up a great game at guard.

Edward Hagedorn played at both the center and guard positions, and used his weight and speed to good advantage. "Heg" played in every game.

Edward Mullen, the smallest man on the Beaver squad, was responsible for a large share of the points scored, and took part in every game of the season.

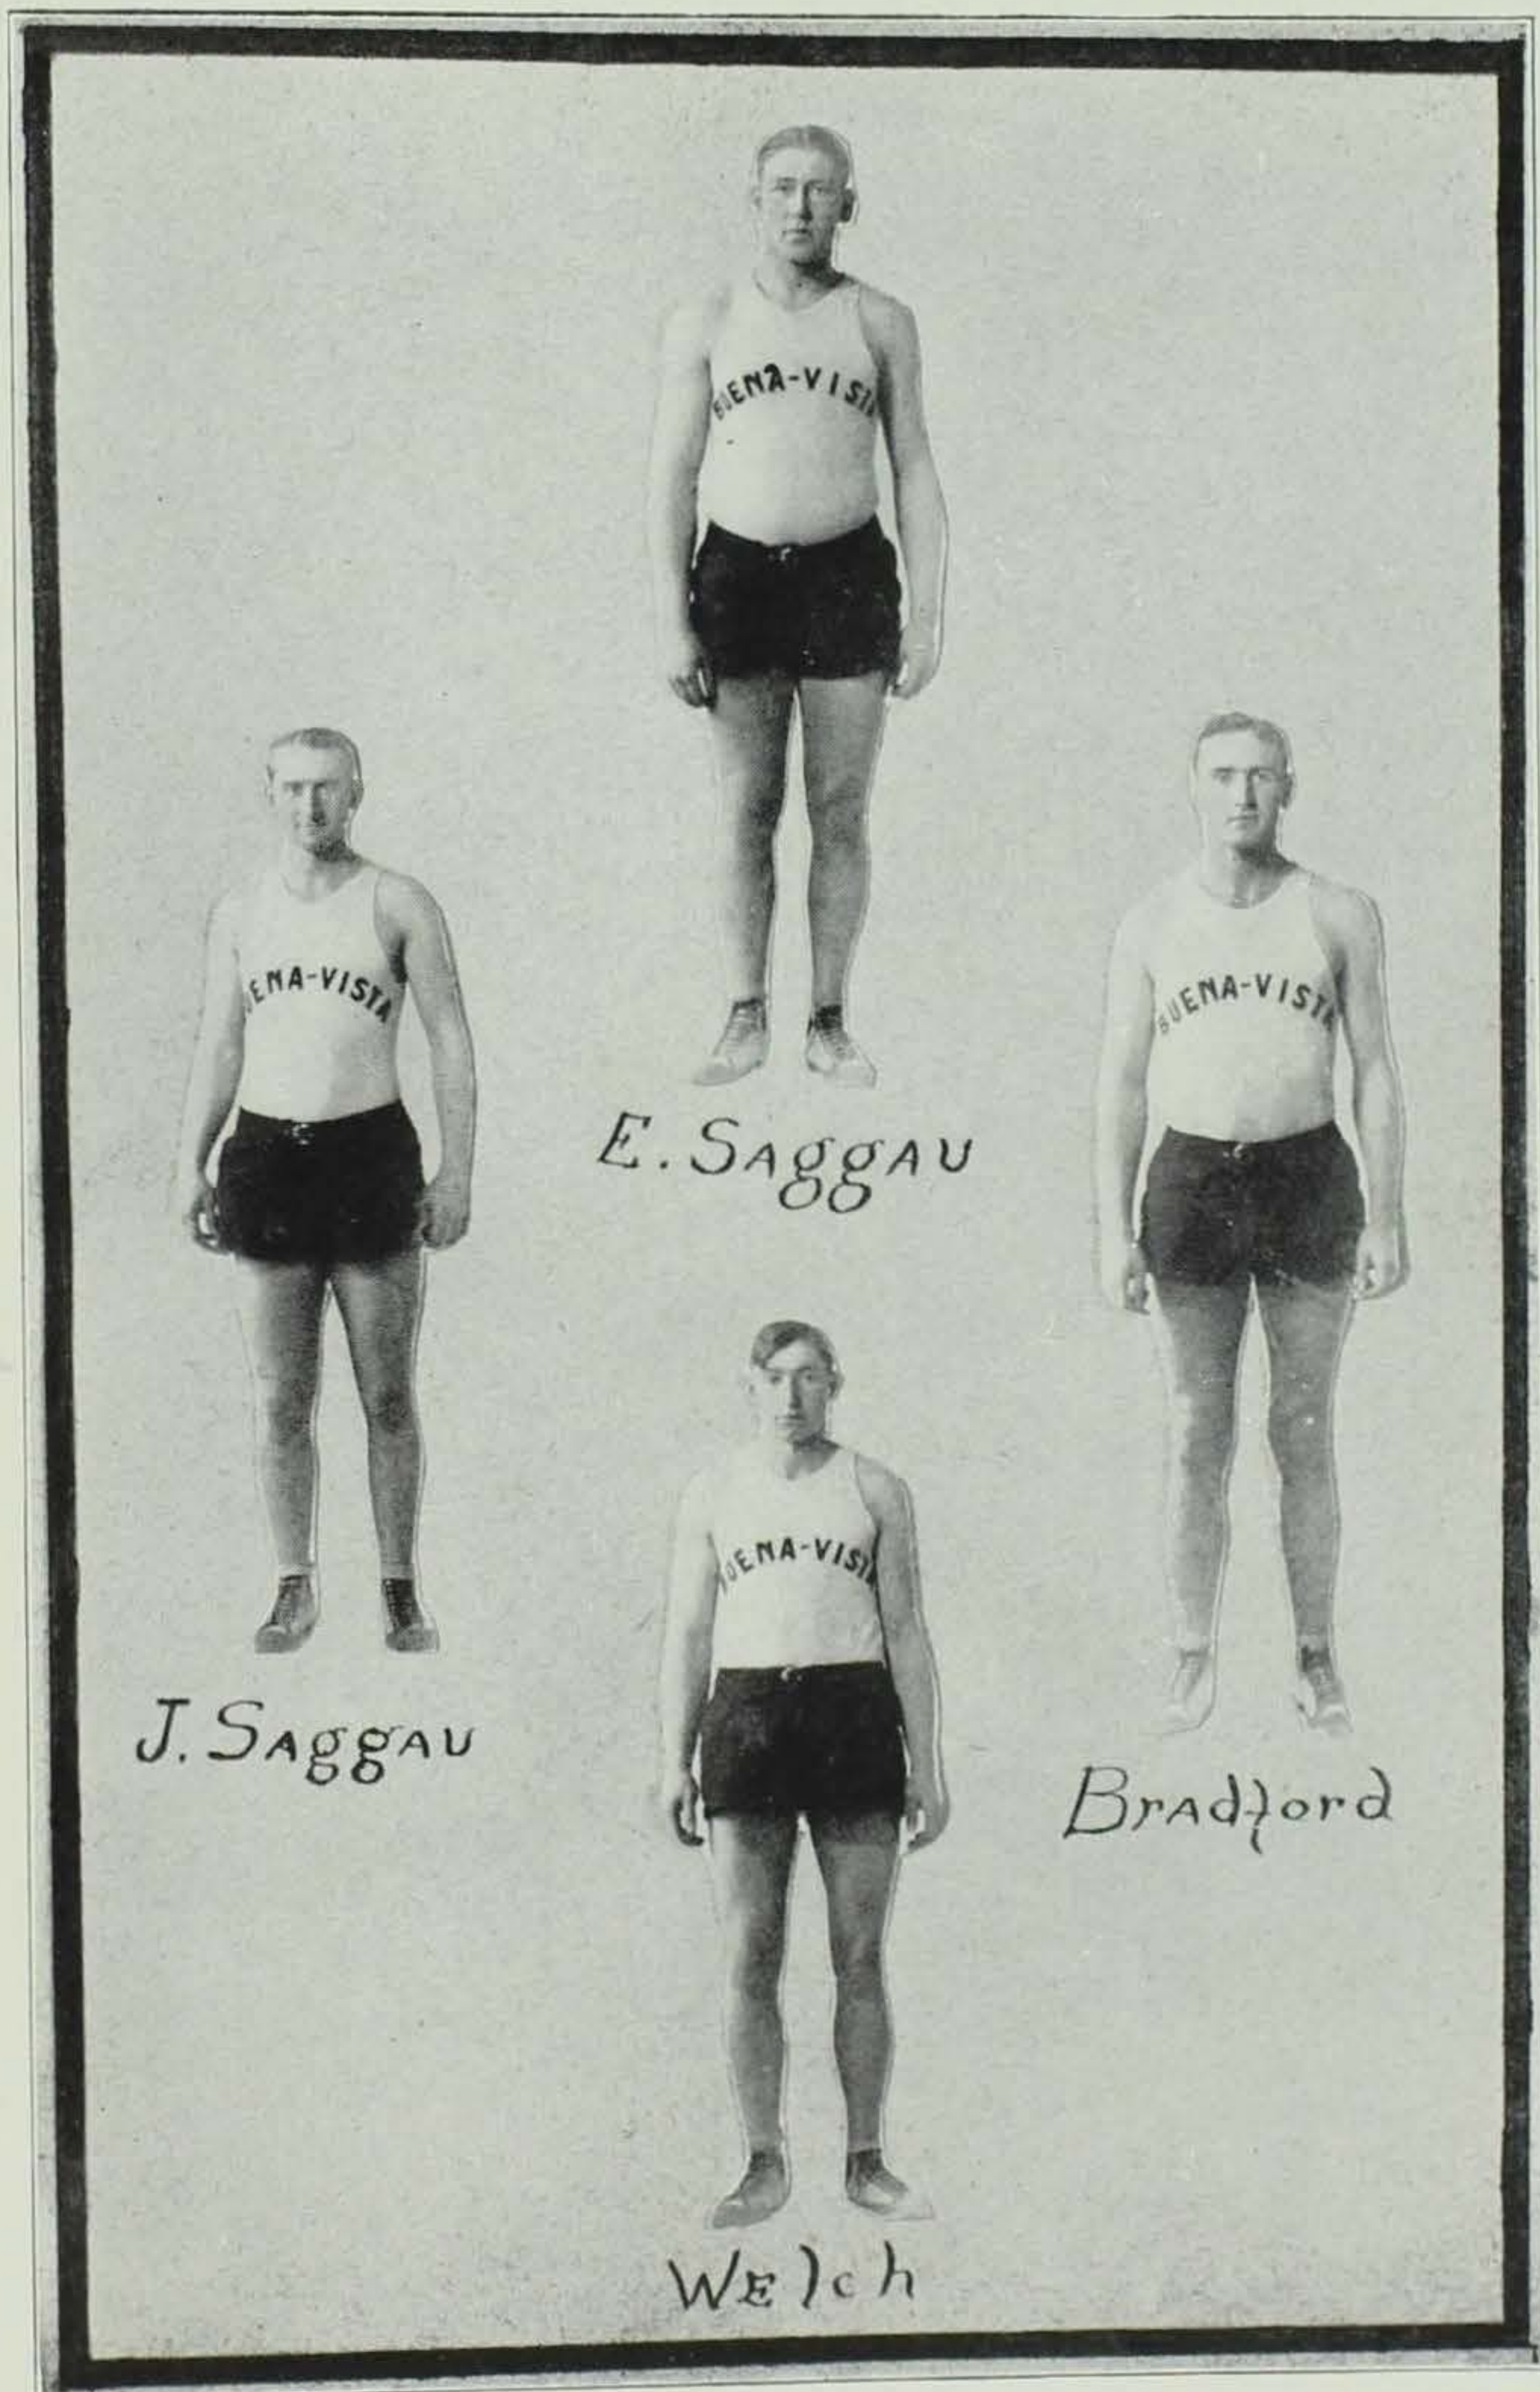

Leslie Rollins held down the forward position and was one of the leading scorers of the team. "Whitey" hit his stride the latter part of the season, and was a hard man to stop.

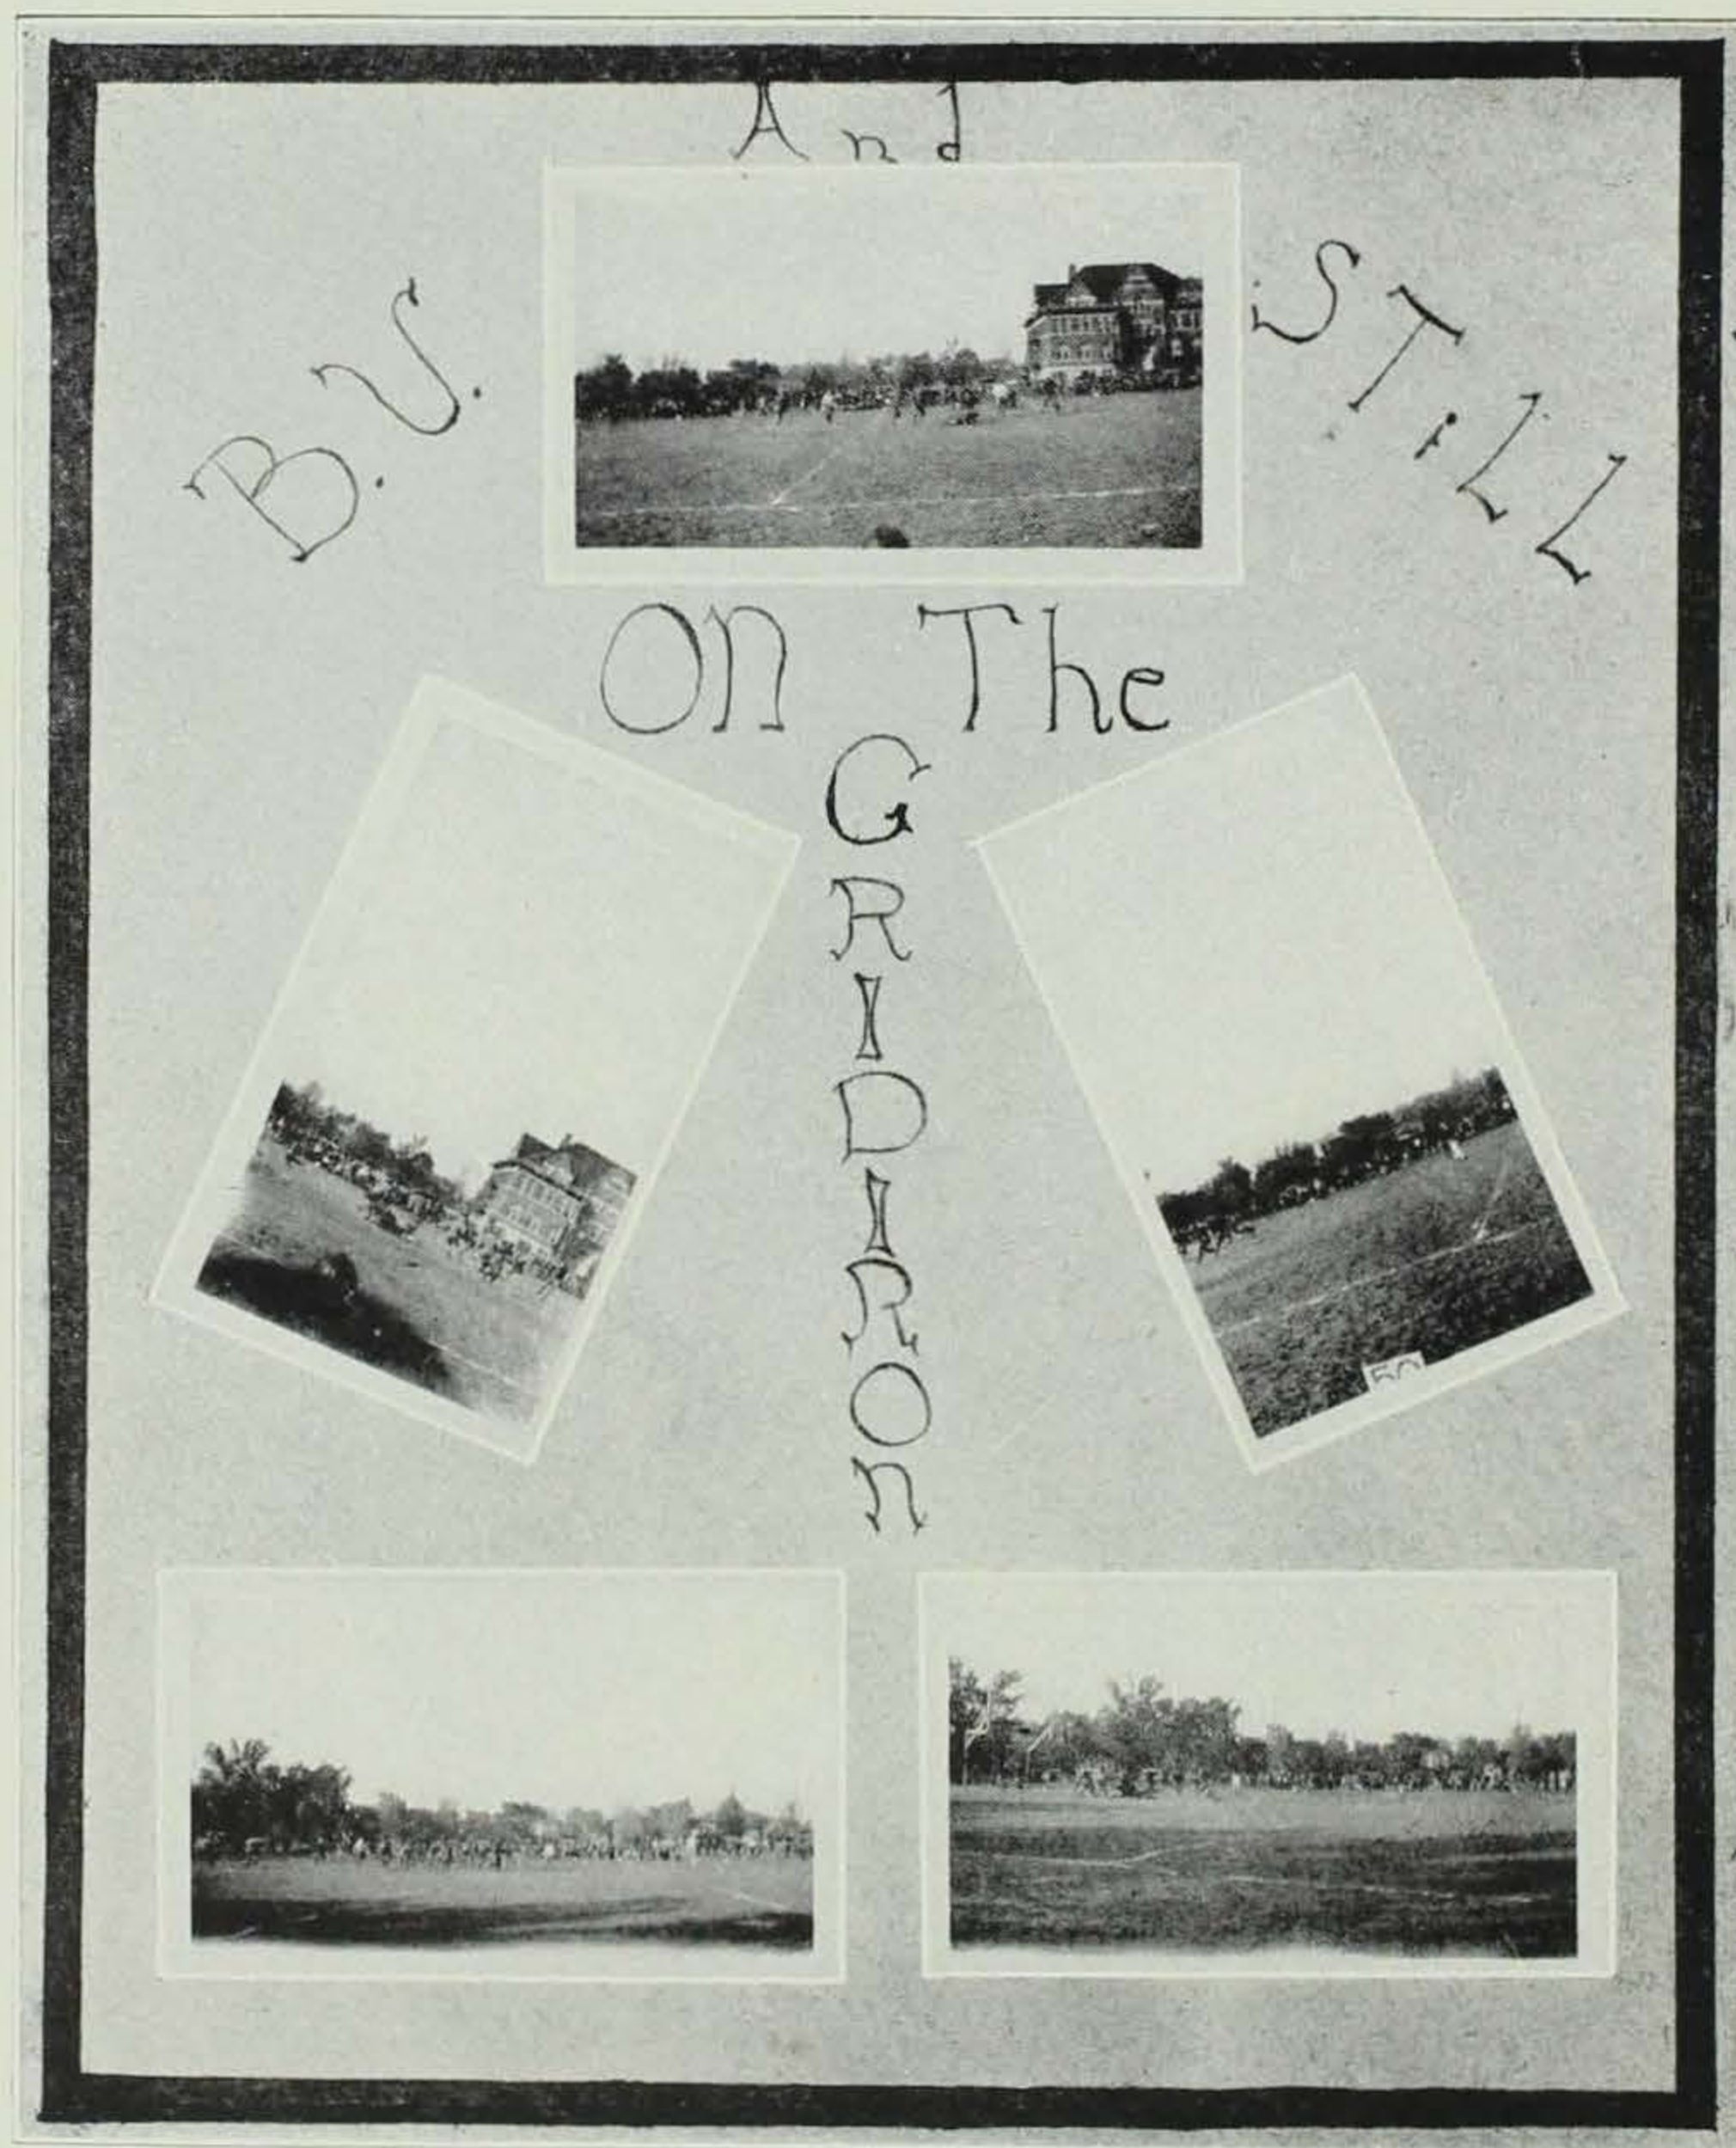

Emmett Barron was used at center, and while most of the men he played against were much larger, "Barney" gave a good account of himself, and usually led his man at the end of the game.

"Eddie" Saggau, the Beaver's running guard, usually came through the pinches with the baskets which were needed to win, and always played a good defensive game.

Jack Saggau was the utility man of the squad, and played in almost every position on the team. He performed creditably at all times.

Walter Bradford, while new at the cage game, was a valuable man to the team, and played well at guard and center.

"Do or Die"

BUENA VISTA ANNUAL HIGH SCHOOL TOURNAMENT

Storm Lake High School's basketball team was the winner in the annual invitation tournament of Buena Vista, held March 16 and 17.

Eight schools were represented, and the tournament this year can be considered a decided success as to quality and as to financial results.

Storm Lake, as the champions, were presented with a permanent cup, and the three-year trophy cup which has been won by Alta and one year by Fonda. The school that secures this cup three years will keep it permanently in their possession. The winning team was also presented with individual basketballs. Truesdale, or the second place winners were presented with a cup to be kept permanently by them.

The scores of the games were as follows:

FIRST ROUND

Storm Lake 23; Early 9.
Alta 18; Fonda 16.
Truesdale 23; Aurelia 18.
Spencer 22; Albert City 11.

SECOND ROUND

Storm Lake 19; Alta 16.
Truesdale 19; Spencer 13.

FINALS

Storm Lake 34; Truesdale 12.

GIRL'S ATHLETICS

Basket Ball, Hiking and Tennis are the main forms of Girl's Athletics for Beaverettes at Buena Vista.

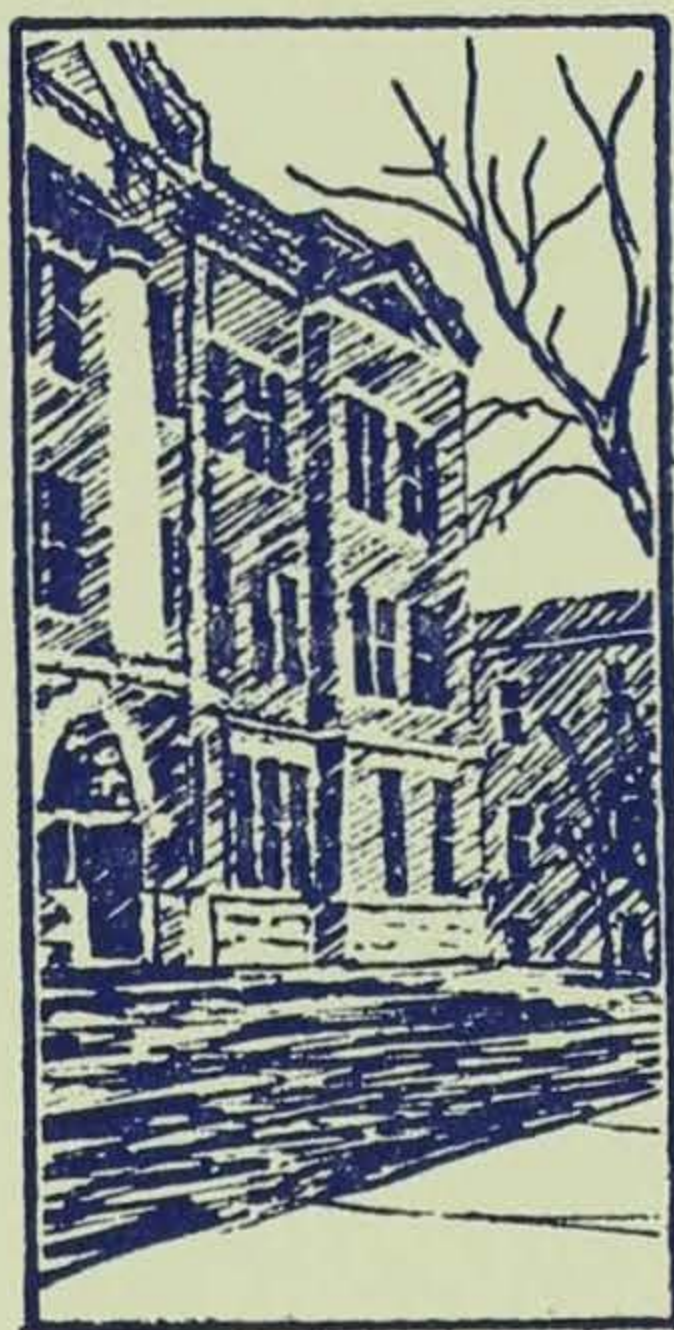

Basket Ball has proved very successful this year with enough girls out for over two teams. The girls were divided into two teams, the "Reds" and the "Blacks," with Gretta Gilliland captain of the "Reds" and Ann Aitken captain of the "Blacks." The main games were played between these two teams and the "Reds" were victorious in two and tied in the third. Judges were at these games and judged the individual players on individual ability, good sportsmanship, endurance and team work. The judges final decision gave first place to Gretta Gilliland, second to Ann Aitken, third to Minnie Geisinger, fourth to Ruth Olson, fifth to Adeline Berger and sixth to Marion Brown, making a complete first team. The first three winners were presented with gold basket balls, engraved with the school and place.

Hiking is the chief sport in the spring. The Hiking Club, organized under the management of a captain, takes four definite hikes, and must hike so much every day during the season. The first long hike is to Alta, the second is around the lake, the third, to Sioux Rapids, and the fourth is to Cherokee.

A Tennis tournament in the spring decides the girl champion who will win a tennis pin.

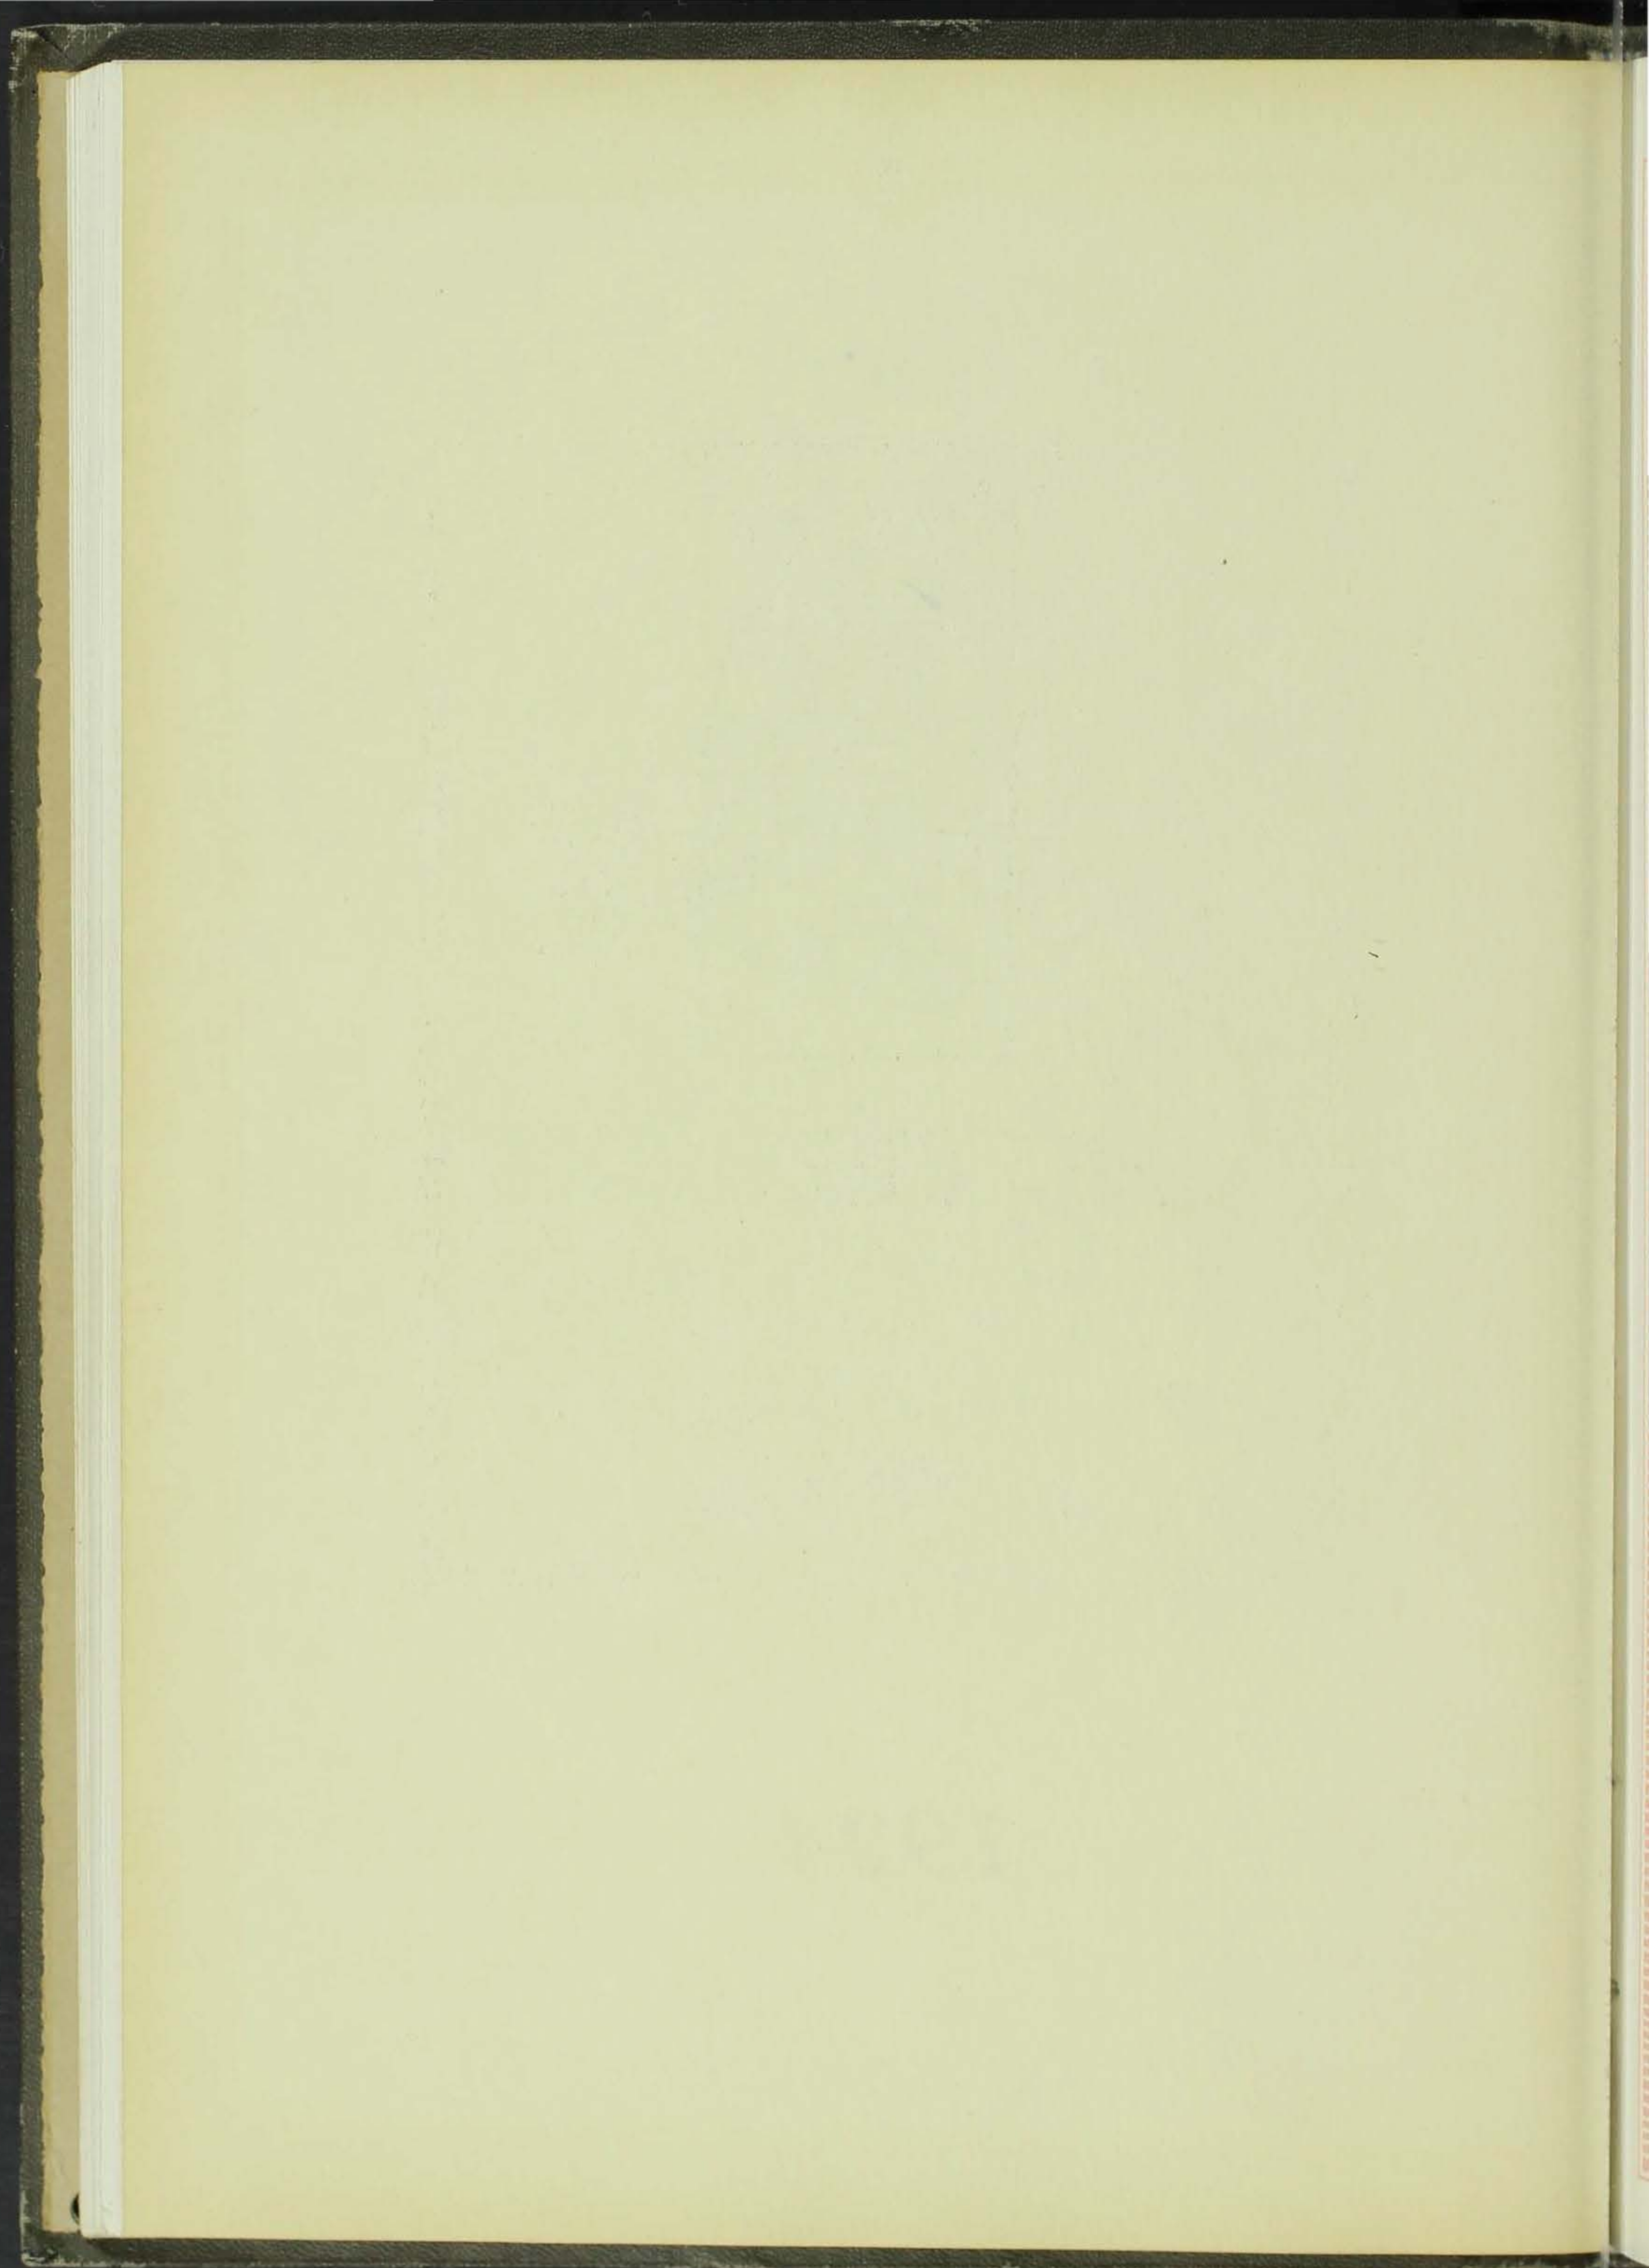

A point system is worked out for college women, whereby they can earn a sweater and a "B". The system at present is 25 points for hiking, 15 points for tennis, and 10 for basket ball. The combination of these points gives the required 100, and for each successful culmination of athletic work a medal is given.

Y. W. C. A.

Nearly all of the women of the college are members of this organization. This association gives assistance to the new girls at the beginning of the year in aiding them to become acquainted. A building fund for the upkeep of the Y. W. Room, and a Geneva fund, the proceeds of the annual May Day Supper, are maintained.

The influence of the Y. W. C. A. is extended into the foreign field through its supporting a little Japanese girl.

Y. M. C. A.

The Y. M. C. A. is one of the important men's organizations of the college. It has meant a great deal to the men of the college this year, and has a greater outlook for the coming years.

ANNUAL MESSAGE OF THE RUDDER STAFF

We're for you, Buena Vista! May you continue in the bright path down which you have started and prosper in every way.

We're for you, Class of 1923! May you reach the heights of success and bring honor to your Alma Mater.

We're for you, Sein Feiners and Hicks! May you continue through your college work and help make Buena Vista a greater Buena Vista.

We're for you, loyal Alumni of Buena Vista! May you in your chosen life work carry forth the ideals and standards of Buena Vista, and in so doing, bring to Buena Vista new friends and new fields to conquer.

We're for you all, and may you take this memory book of this year's college life as the best efforts of the Class of 1924.

We take this opportunity to thank all that have aided us in making the "Rudder" a success. And especially do we thank Miss Margaret Triplett for the cartoons which she has made for this year's annual, and the Dramatic Club for the aid which they have given toward publication of this year's "Rudder."

BUENA VISTA DEBATORS

The first debate of the season was the Men's dual debate with Coe College. Although both negative and affirmative teams lost to the Judges, Buena Vista is proud of her Men Debaters.

In the second debate of the year Buena Vista was more fortunate. Both Women's teams won from Western Union in a dual debate on March 13. On the following evening, March 14, the negative Men's team won a two to one decision from Western Union, and the affirmative Men's team lost their decision.

The teams are as follows:

Negative Women's Team

Gretta Gilliland
Ann Aitken
Margaret Triplett
Hazel Lokken, Altern.

Affirmative Women's Team

Dagmar Nelson
Muriel Wheeler
Ruth Olsen
Florence Barnard, Altern.

Miss Margaret Triplett, having won the home contest, represented Buena Vista at the Intercollegiate Contest held at Upper Iowa, with her oration, "The Jewish Question in America." She put Buena Vista on the map by winning third place. Miss Gretta Gilliland, as business representative, accompanied Miss Triplett. Buena Vista has the presidency of the State Forensic League for next year, and Miss Gretta Gilliland has been elected to the office.

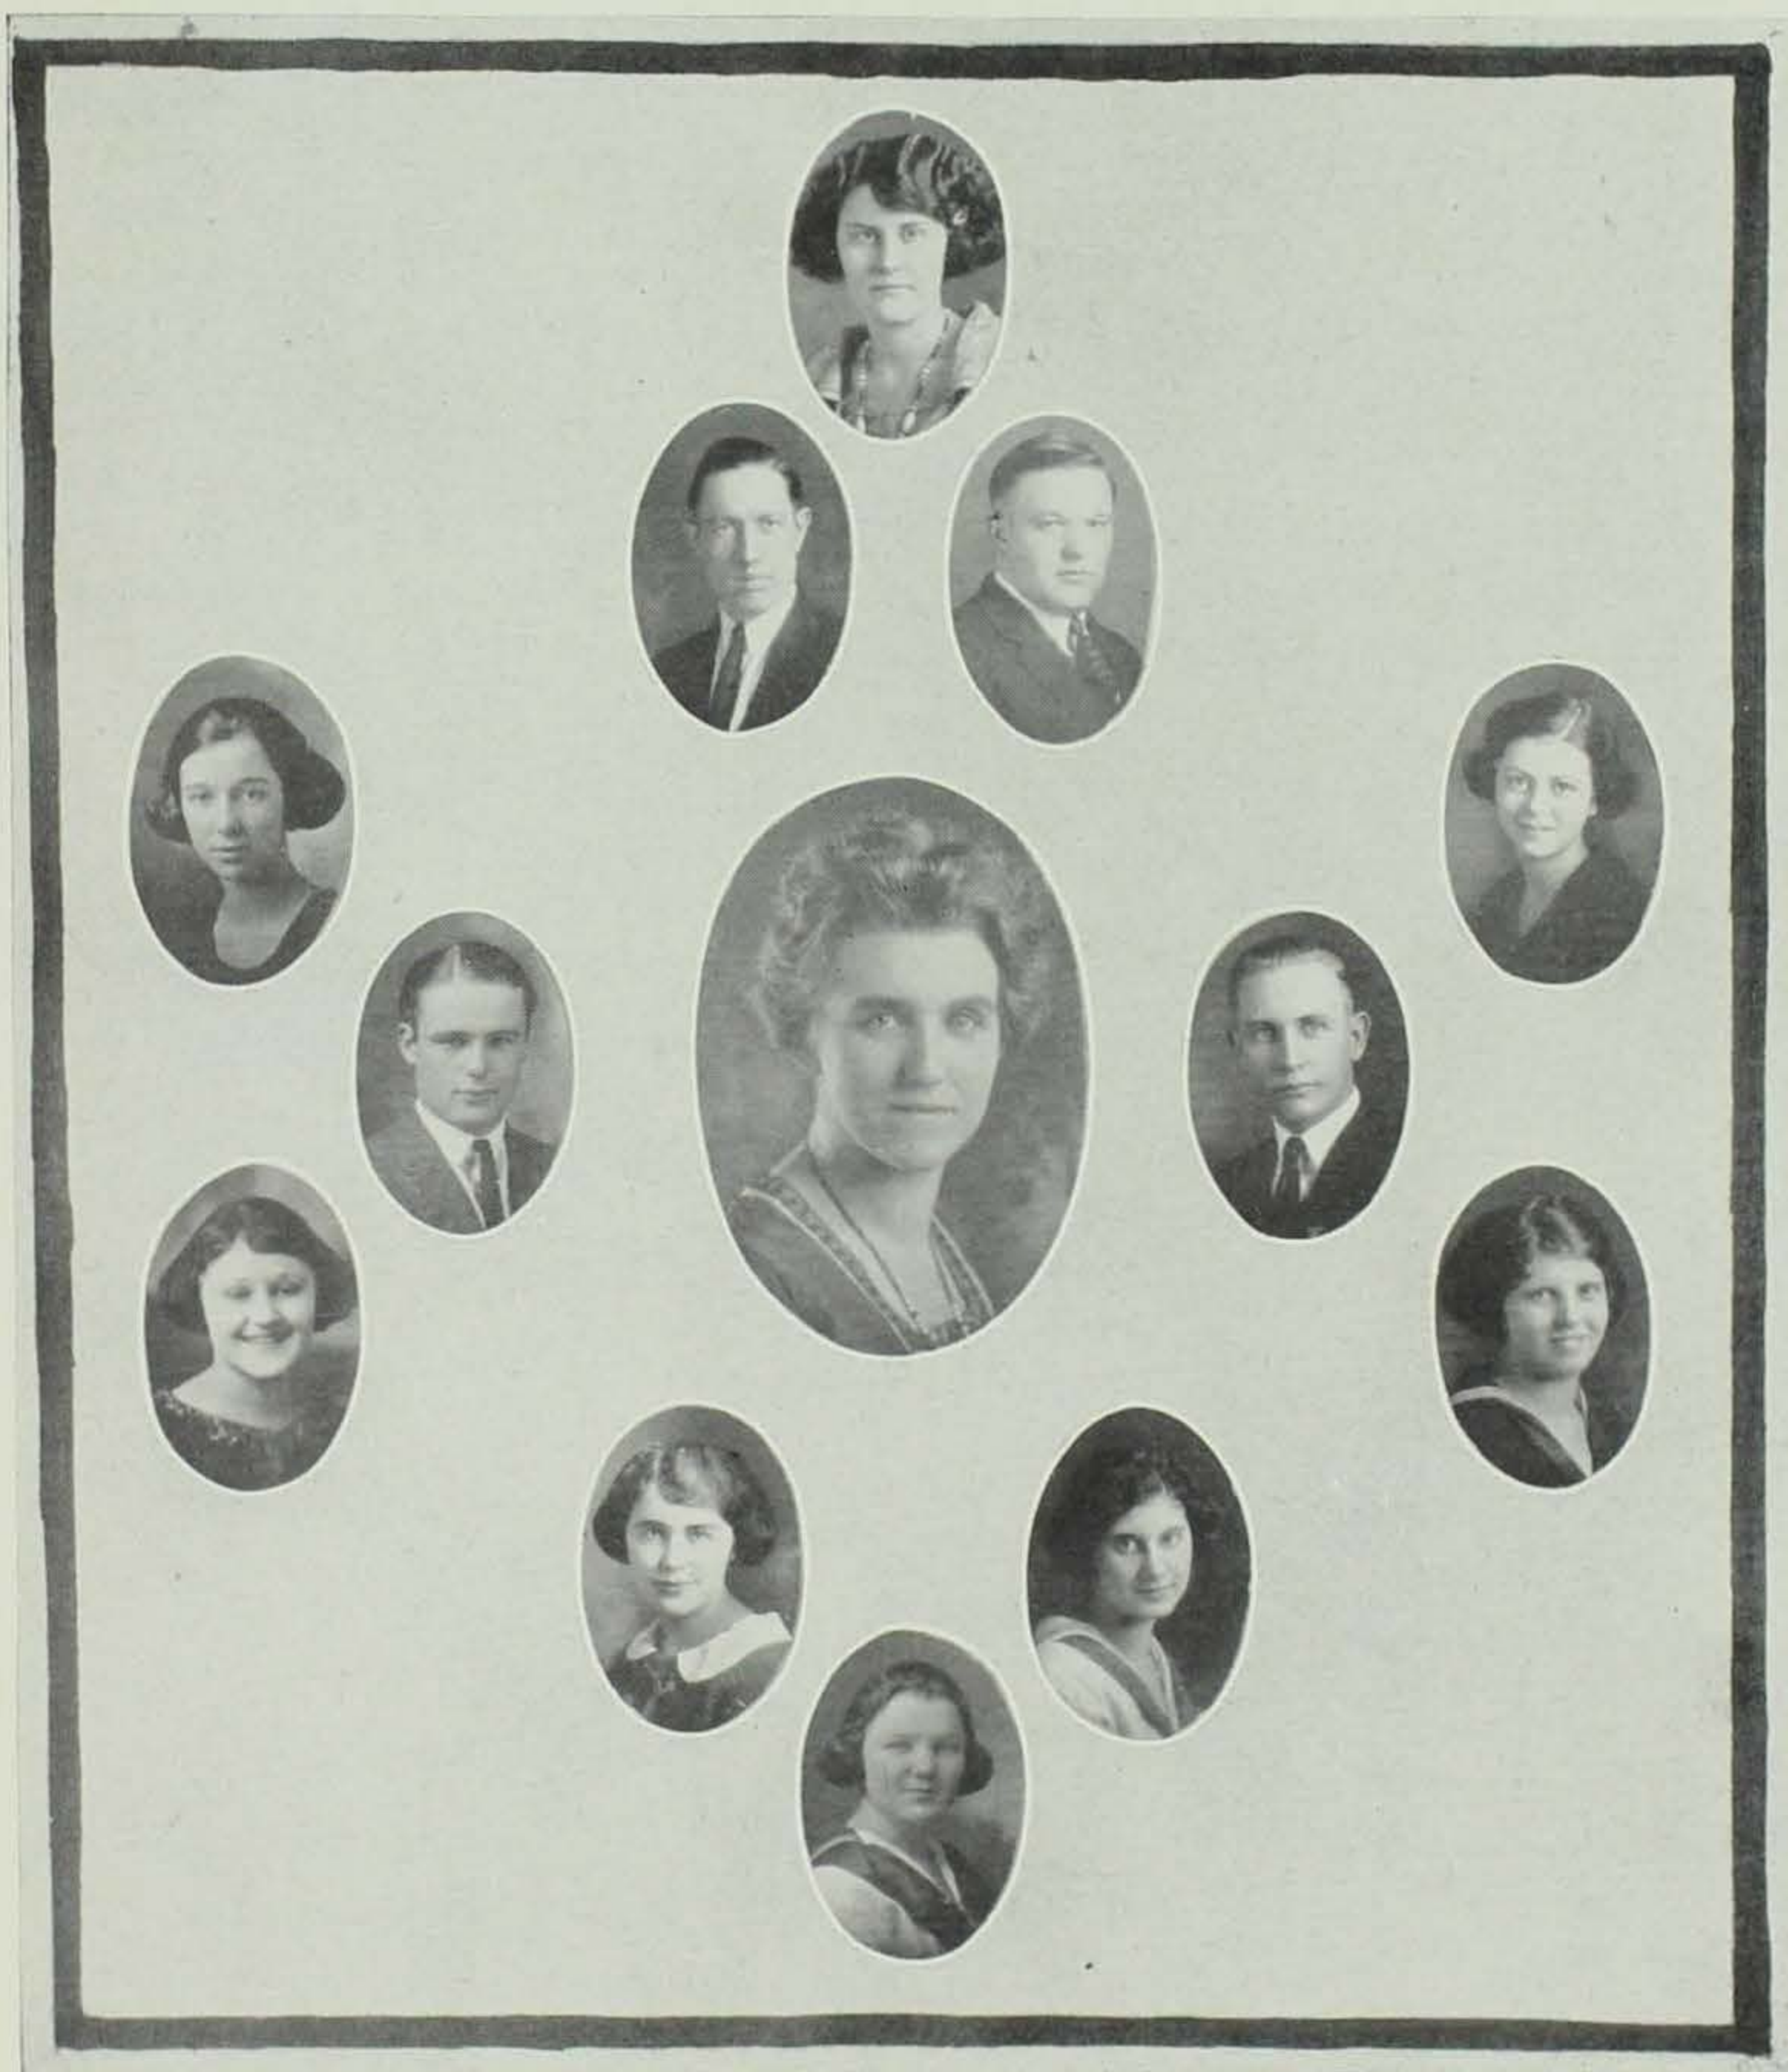

Miss Dagmar Nelson represented Buena Vista at the Extemporaneous Contest held at Upper Iowa, and performed in a creditable manner.

John Haughey, who won first over all at the home contest, with his oration, "The Fiery Cross", represented Buena Vista at the Men's State contest held at Central College. He was accompanied by Lloyd Kaufman as business representative. Mr. Kaufman has been elected as vice president of the State Association for next year, and the meeting of this Association will be held at Buena Vista.

DRAMATIC CLUB

DRAMATIC CLUB

The Buena Vista Dramatic Club was organized this year. A member retains his membership until he leaves school. Vacancies in membership are filled by a tryout in which any student is eligible to enter. The club is limited to fifteen members.

The purpose of the club is to encourage and foster talent for dramatization, to present worth while plays, and in so doing to financially aid the college in any way possible.

IMPORTANT MINUTES

A Brief Glimpse into the Secretary Book of the Delta Phi's.

Meeting called early to allow sister "Gillie" to talk at a few other meetings.

Motion passed unanimously to rush all new girls out for anything. Sister "Speck" Aitken volunteers at this point to teach the freshmen how to dance and get dates.

Sister Mann recites her favorite poem, "If I'm not the Great I Am, Who Am I?"

Sister Keith announces that there are two in the library that would like to join her and is given power to pledge same.

Sister Robinson reads an article on "My Sunday School Class as Prospects."

Sister Farnsworth not present as she has a date with Senor Rollins.

Sgt. at Arms is sent out to drag Sisters Farrow and Larson from the Mirror.

Intermission to allow sister Keith to practice "Hanum" for one hour.

Sister Farrow starts to sing and the meeting breaks up in disorder.

Phi Alpha Pi Notes in Brief:

Meeting called to order by the high lollypop—"Lill"

Treasurer's report read and destroyed.

Sister Lemke reads a paper on, "Tis not my beauty but my winning ways that put me where I am to-day."

It is decided to elect the next Y. W. President now to save time at the coming meeting.

Motion made to hold an oyster-stew party in the very near future—place unknown.

Motion passed to pledge all girls making "A" grades.

Sisters Freidrick and Jones sing a duet entitled, Where, O, Where Can He Be?"

Motion made that a Resolution of thanks be proffered the Faculty for the high grades they have received in the past.

Motion made, passed, that the patronesses be requested to sing at the next regular meeting.

Sister McFadden reads an uplifting article, entitled, "Do For Yourself What Others Won't Do For You."

Meeting adjourned abruptly to allow sister Blair time to meet the "Scout Master."

THE VISION OF SIR LONG FACE

(Reported to ye scribe of Sir C. Stampen, W. B. D.)

Scene I— Castle of Sir Old Fruit.

Bugle blows. "Tum-tum-te-tump. E-i-po-lo." Ye page entereth. "Gracious sir, Sir Long Face waiteth without." "Without what?" "Without a touchdown or a field goal." What meaneth this unseemly jargon?" "I know not, liege sir." "Let Long Face speak for himself, John."

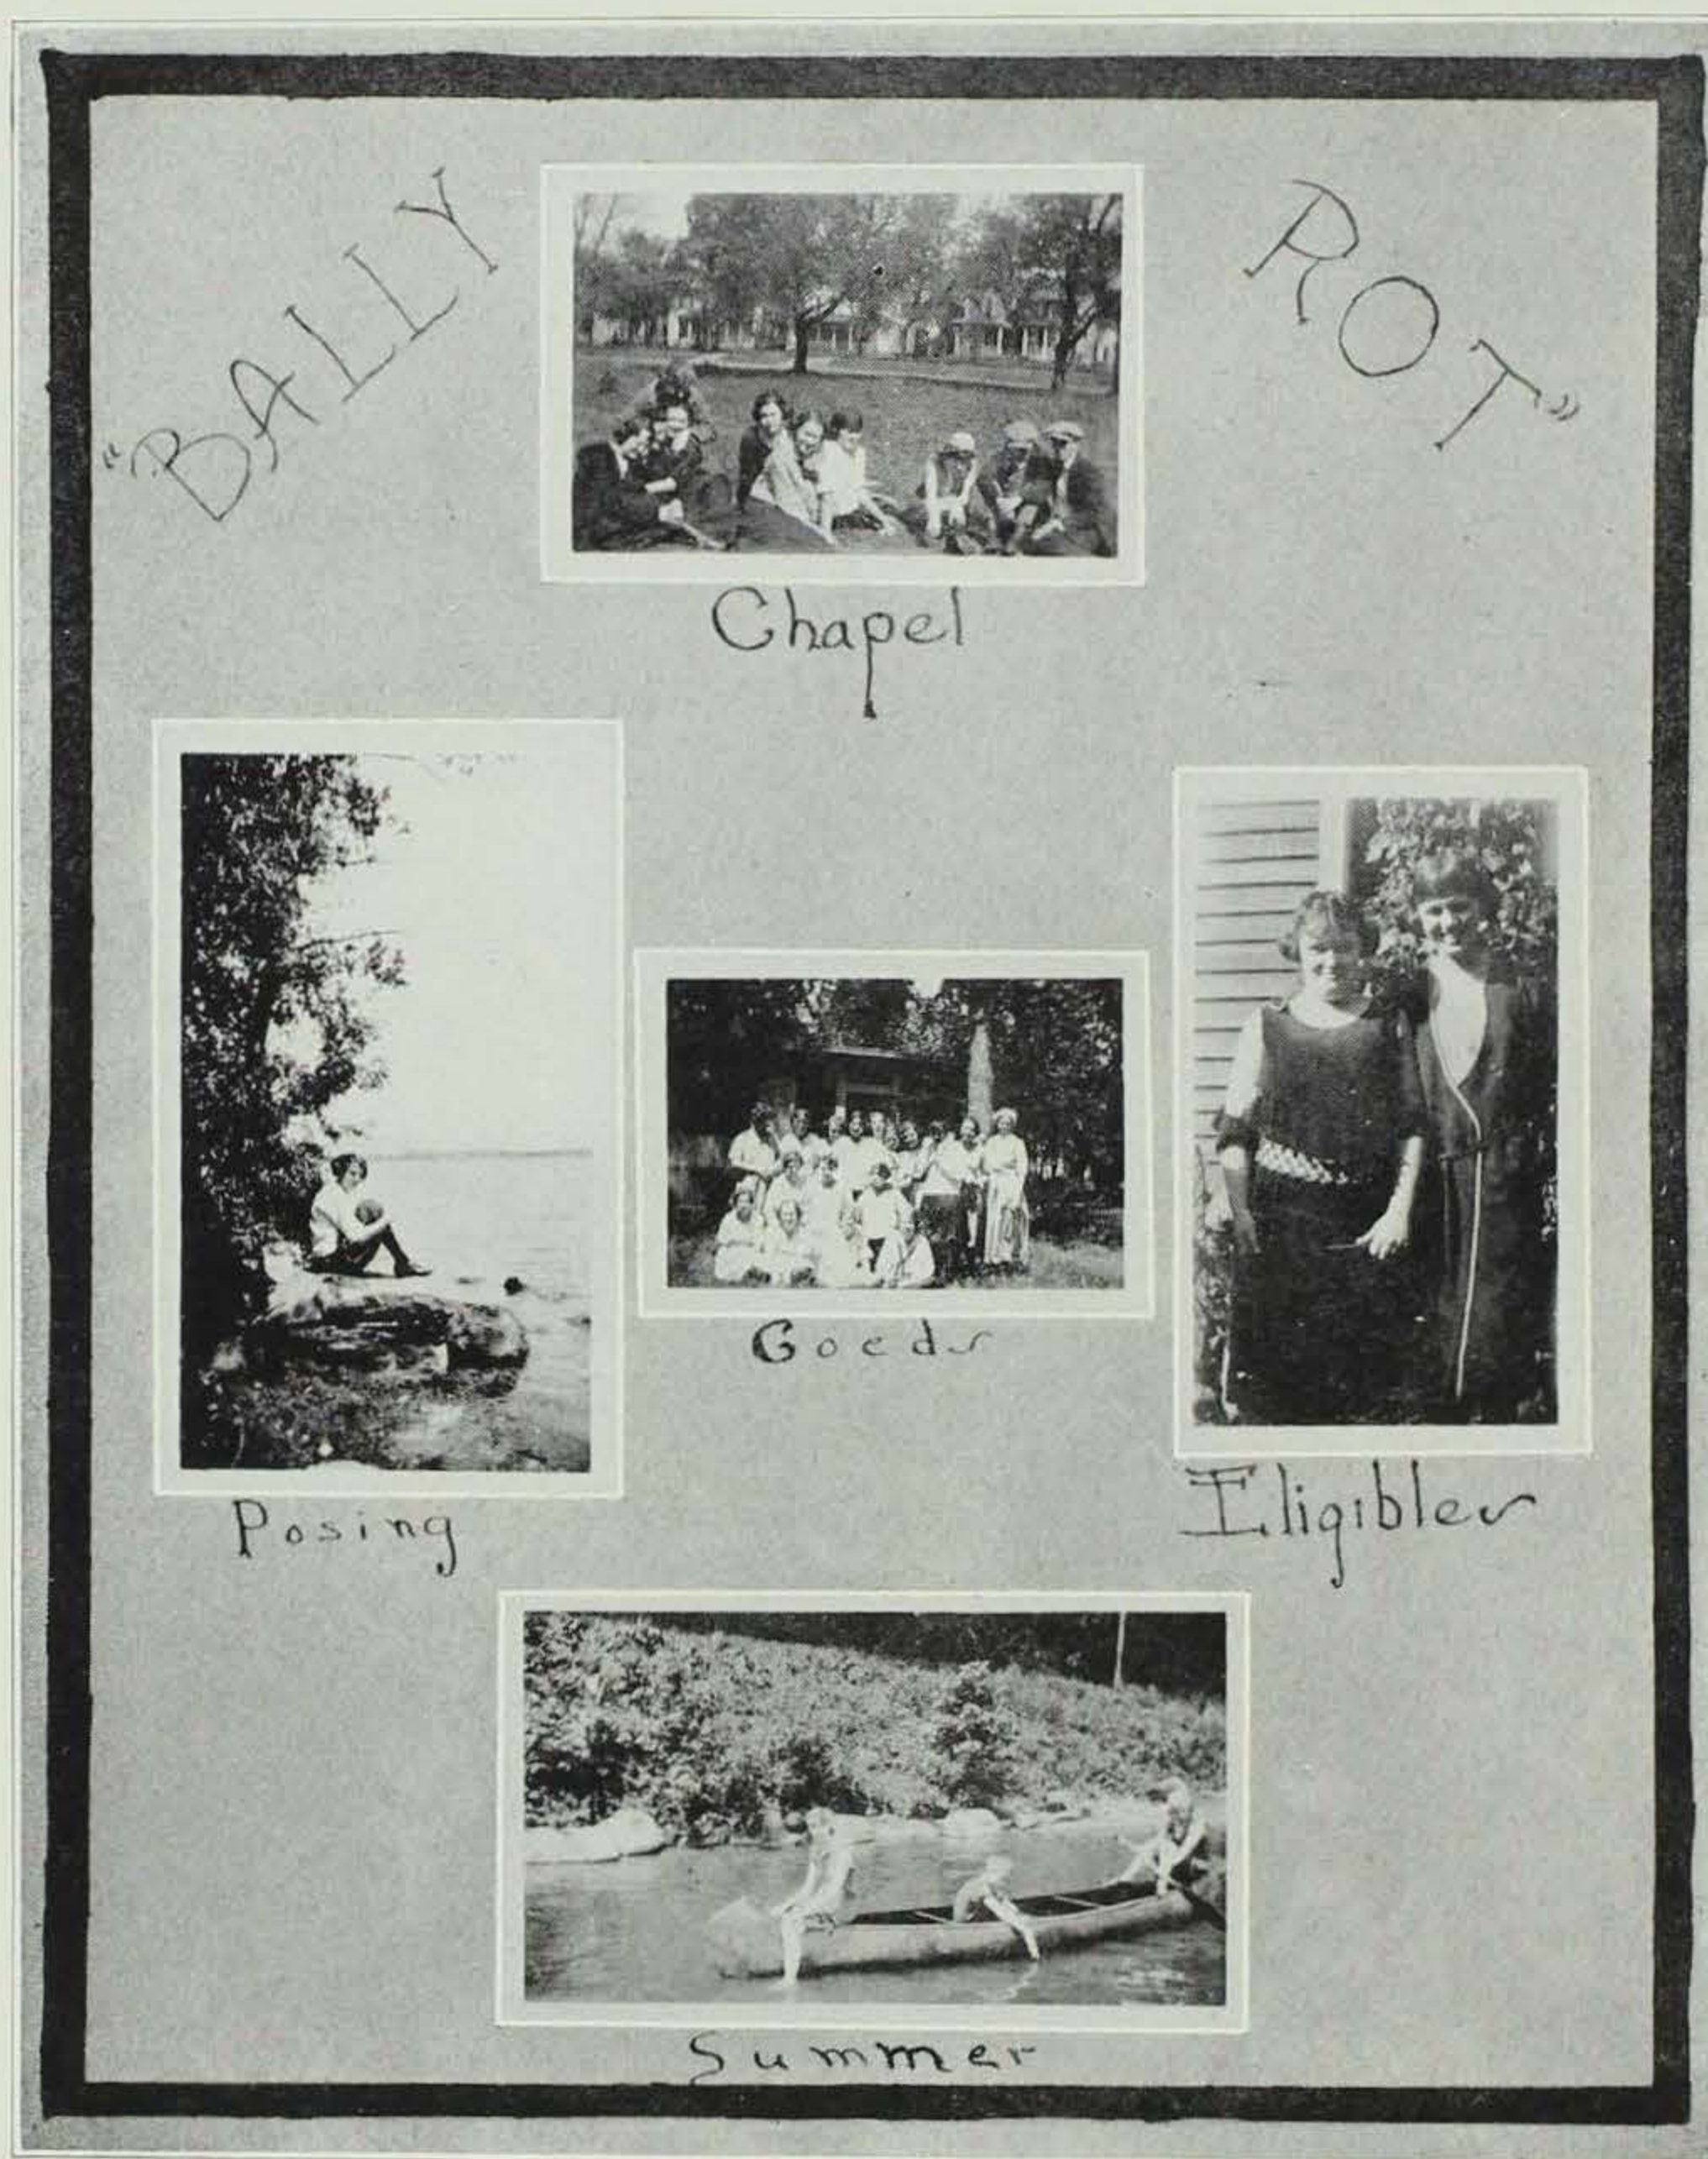

Scene II— Interior of same lofty pile.

Sir Long-face entereth, his armor all shot to littly tiny pieces, his black and orange standard trailing in the dust, bloody and tattered. "What ho, my noble Long-face. What hath gat hold of thee? Verily me thinks it hath been Lucifer himself." Not so, my sire. Hast thou been crowned with the Brown Derby? Hast thou been knighted in the royal and ancient order of the razz? Verily, I met eleven demons riding forth under the salmon banner of the Duke of Buena Vista in quest of martial adventure. I, with ten of my trusty knights of Des Moines, did challenge them to do battle to the death. We did square off. We did make a pass at them. Verily, they did intercept it, and he whom they call Sir Hickey, being an ungodly man, did rush through our midst and did secure a touchdown. And Sir Lard did tackle and upset my men in a most unbeseeming fashion. And now these Salmon Knights have returned to their stronghold, the institution of all learning bearing with them all my bacon."

Then doth Sir Old Fruit speak forth in wrath and saith, "Why didst thou not conk them on the bozos? By ye shades of ye purpil pig-skin, they were sons of pistols in truth. Our joust was not a meeting of they damsel's aid society. By my troth they did totally undo us."

Sir Old Fruit, "Begone, hist thyselfes thither, to the Royal Order of The Bath, thou scullion."

CURTAIN FALLS.

RECIPE FOR A POPULAR SONG

Take a melody from Chopin, Strauss or Shubert,
 Add a bar or two from Darling Nelly Gray;
 Mix with "girlie", "kiss", and "crooning",
 "Pearly", "Bliss" and "honeymooning",
 And Hawaii, Dixieland or Mandalay.
 Wrap the whole concoction in a gaudy cover,
 Illustrate to catch the dullest eye or wit;
 Label "Baby Mine" or "Honey",
 "Mammy Jane" or "Little Sonny"
 And advertise as Broadway's Latest Hit.

Stuhr: "How was that last bottle of perfume I sold you?"
 Preach: "Best I ever drank."

ACHIEVEMENT

The goal of every ambitious man and firm is typified in the rapid growth of the Jahn & Ollier Engraving Company—the universal esteem in which their art and plates are held by the large national advertisers—and the enviable reputation for prompt deliveries which they enjoy.

Delivering this same high quality and careful personal supervision to schools has built up for us the largest college and high school annual engraving business in America—400 books yearly.

Thirty thousand square feet of floor space (4 floors) and over two hundred and fifty skilled employees are required to meet the constant demand for "J&O" commercial photographs, art, color process plates and photo engraving (one complete floor is devoted to color process work).

Intelligent supervision of all work by many skillful office service men eliminates your troubles. Sales service men sent everywhere.

 Waiter: "Sure. What do you think I am, a dumb waiter?"

Florence Barnard: "When I marry, I want a husband who does not smoke, chew, drink, swear, belong to clubs, play cards, stay out late, nor talk in the halls."
 Dr. Boyd: "My child, you are a stranger here. Heaven is your home."

Bobby Eick entered the bank and walked up to the cashier. "Mister, I want a check book for a lady that folds in the middle."

At the hotel Pat and Mike were frequently awakened by bed bugs. Next day they applied for a new room. After turning off the lights Pat noticed several fire-flies in the room. "Mike, get up, the bloomin' critters are after us with flashlights."

"A WOODLAND ROMANCE"

It was a delightful summer evening;
 The man stood, musing, on a little hillock.
 Overhead the myriads of stars, the pale moon, the hurrying clouds.
 For a long time he stood motionless, then raised a cigarette.
 All at once his attitude changed to one of intent listening.
 He peered forward—
 Then, singing softly to herself,
 She came towards him from the woods.
 A look of anguish crossed his handsome features;
 He drew back.
 She approached closer, but with a word and a wave of his shapely hand he repulsed her.
 Nothing daunted she returned, and again he repulsed her.
 Finally, with a plaintive cry she flung herself upon him,
 This time a look of eagerness came into his eyes.
 He crushed her to him. Silence reigned supreme.
 The man struck a match, "———the mosquitoes," he said.
