

N. P. FFA Receives 1st Place Award

The New Providence Future Farmers of America Chapter received first place award at the soil judging contest conducted at the Al Albers farm east of Owasa Friday.

The New Providence team, comprised of Ralph Cox, Phil Reece, Neil Hadley and Ronnie Hockett, scored 984 points of a possible 1200 to win the contest.

Four F.F.A. Chapters with a total of 67 students participated in the contest sponsored by the Hardin Soil Conservation District. They were Eldora, Hubbard, Iowa Falls, and New Providence.

Each student judged three soil profiles with the top four scorers of each school forming a team. A plaque will be presented to the New Providence chapter as winner.

The following high scorers from each school will be presented individual awards; Ralph Cox, New Providence; Larry Meyer, Iowa Falls; Jerry Butler, Eldora; and Richard Nehring, Hubbard.
