From "THE LIPPE DETMOLDER SETTLEMENT IN WISCONSIN"

Written in 1895 by Jerome C. Arpke

"One certain settlement of the earlier members of the Wisconsin Colony is in Buena Vista County, in the region of Storm Lake. Here live families who earlier resided here (Wisconsin); C. F. Luhmann, Heinrich and Simon Marten, Fred and Henry Steffen, A. and Ed, L. and O. Stoelting."

There is a story connected with this that only a dedicated Genealogist, especially an amateur, can really appreciate. I received a letter several years ago from Leola and Kendric Steffen of Spencer, Iowa. He was formerly from the Storm Lake, Iowa area. Someone in Sheboygan County gave them my name, saying that I would be able to help with the Town Herman Steffen family history. It seems that the head of the Wisconsin family was Fredrick Steffen and his wife, Dorothea. They both died from Small Pox in their 30's, leaving seven living children. The children were brought up by friends and relatives who migrated and the family was separated. There is a happy ending to this story. I was able to supply the birthdates, names of all of the children and the deathdate of the mother, and, after a hard search, did find the maiden name of the mother. This last, thanks to Harold Becker, Register of Deeds at the Sheboygan Court House.

The record is as follows: Frederick S. and his sister, Sophia, (Sophia married Anton Weber) came to Town Herman with the 1847 group. Frederick and Dorothea Druppel, Steffen family (there is no record of their marriage date or baptisms of their first two children, from then on they are registered in Immanuel Church, Town Hermann) is as follows:

1. FREDERICK WILHELM, born 13 Aug. 1853 (In Brandt family-birth listed
2. CAROLINE WILHELMINE, born 10 Oct. 1854 as 1851.)
3. DOROTHY SOPHIA, born 25 Oct. 1855
4. HERMAN HEINRICH, born 27 Nov. 1856
5. HENRICH, born 13 May 1858
6. AUGUST, born 15 May 1860
7. CARL, born 21 Aug. 1862
8. DOROTHEA, born 19 Apr. 1864, died 22 Apr. 1864

The mother, Dorothea Druppel Steffen, died a month later, on 22 May 1864. We found no record on Frederick's death.

I found that Wm. F., Herman, and Charles all lived in the Storm Lake area. August lived in Remsen, Iowa and is buried there. There is no news on Caroline.

Henry, apparently, was taken by the Steffens that migrated to Nebraska and lived in the Harbine - Diller area in Jefferson County. Fred, of course, remained in Town Herman and his records can be found in this book in the Brandt family records. Dorothy Sophia married a Jacobi and lived in the Cleveland area in Wisconsin.

We have reason to believe that Frederick and Dorothea may be in unmarked graves in the older cemetery at Immanuel Church, Town Herman. For Kendric Steffen, or Sam as he is called, the succession went like this:

FREDERICK and DOROTHEA DRUPPEL STEFFEN

HERMAN (1857-1929) and MARY KLESSIG (1855-1929) STEFFEN married in Wisconsin. Had a boot and shoe store in Storm Lake, IA

CARL (1892-1960) and MABEL ECKHARDT (1890-1958) STEFFEN, partner in Steffen Bros. Garage, Storm Lake, IA, with his brother, Walter.

KENDRIC (1917- ) and LEOLA PETERIMA (1920- ) STEFFEN. Kendric has a twin brother, Kenwood, in Spencer, IA. Kenwood is an electrician for I.P.S. Kendric (Sam) is an electrician for Spencer Foods, both are in Spencer, IA.

I was also able to help them research the Klessigs by giving them the address of the Lutheran Church at Cleveland, Wisconsin.

Summary of an article from
The Sheboygan Press, March 21, 1974

A brother and a sister were finally united in a joyful occasion that was 26 years in making. Brought together were Mrs. Robert (Bonnie Lynn) Olm of 1045 W. Washington Ave., Cleveland, and Neil Cain of Antioch, IL.

Cain and his wife flew up and arrived at the Sheboygan airport and spent the day retracing the years with his sister.

Cain, 40, and Bonnie, 26, had the same mother, who now resides at Two Rivers (WI), but Bonnie was adopted as an infant and raised by Mr. and Mrs. Arno Huhn of Cleveland. Cain spent his early childhood with his mother, when he was 10 years old was taken in as a foster child by Mr. and Mrs. Kurt Weigand of Cleveland. By the time Bonnie was born and adopted, Neil was in a children's home in Sparta. Later, he spent 8½ years in the Air Force, getting out in 1959.

"While I was in the service, I thought a lot about Bonnie and my other brothers and sisters," he said, "but I didn't know what the feelings of her adopted parents were."

The chain of events leading to the reunion was set off about 3 weeks ago when Mr. and Mrs. Cain visited friends in Manitowoc. An item was put in the paper about the visit and was noticed by a friend who showed the item to Mrs. Huhn. Bonnie, learning of the whereabouts of her brother called him by phone and the meeting was arranged.

Cain is a tool and die maker and is also training for a commercial pilot's license. He and his wife have two children.

Bonnie drives a Prigge school bus and also operates charter excursions for the company. Her husband is a semi truck driver. Bonnie and Neil Cain hope to meet frequently in the future, have already planned another on Sunday.
