

U. S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE
SOIL CONSERVATION SERVICE

INFORMATIONAL ACTIVITIES

Name of paper County IndexWhere published EldoraDate of issue December 19Sent by Richard BassettS. C. D. HardinStationed at Eldora

CLASSIFICATION:

Weekly column ☐Story (SCS) ☐(Other) ☐Feature (SCS) ☐(Other) ☐Editorial ☐Advertisement ☐Cons. picture ☐

More Than 50 Persons Honored With State Field Days And District Awards At Soil Banquet

More than 50 persons were honored with state field days and district awards during the Hardin Soil Conservation District Awards Banquet here recently. Land owners-farmers and central committee members present for their awards are pictured in the left photo. They are, left to right: Ray McDowell, Ernie Barz, Carl

King, Harold Dettbarn, Carroll White, Gaylord Thayer, Paul Primus, C. O. Rubow and John Jaspers. Not present for the picture were Boyd Reese, Richard Crosser, Delmar Swasand, Ed Wiesner, Robert Gunderson, Jim Rector, George Tesch and James Goode.

Field days committee chairmen, pictured at right, are 1

to r: Doyle Felton, Lois Knutson, Geo. Janssen, Barbara Reisinger, Bill Hollingworth, Betty McDowell, Bruce Froning, Karen Alexander, Paul Barnard, Lee Lundy, Orville Lamb and Curtis Daggs. Absent were Lowell McCormick, Joe Beach, Lowell Granzow, Anthony Trivisono, Everett Rogers, Vic Reist, George Martinson, Herb Ruhnke, Troy Jones and Emmett Hirt.

District awards, given for outstanding service to the local soil district, went to Mrs. David Granzow, Carl King, Lew Throssel, Gary Karr, Marvin Reed, Charles Shore, Les Vinton, Merrill Wiechmann, Mrs. Leona Froning, Mrs. Mildred Miller, Mrs. Mary Amberg, Everett Pierce, Milton Jordening, C. O. Rubow, Mrs. Evelyn Stone and Mrs. Zelora Mullins, for her late husband, Sam Mullins.

A highlight of the banquet was presentation of the 1969 State Conservation Farm Family Award to Mr. and Mrs. Ray McDowell of Eldora and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDowell of Grinnell. LeRoy Cakerice, former Eldoran, now teaching in the Ames school system, received the Des Moines Register and Tribune Outstanding Conservation Teacher award and Jim McGuire, R & T farm editor, received a name plate from the State Conservation Service for his cooperation in the State Farm Family awards program.

H-I Photos, Engravings.