

FIRST ANNUAL Western Iowa Grassland FIELD DAY

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 16th 10 AM to 4 PM

(In event of rain, will be held June 17th)

AT: Anderson Bros. (Carl and Harry) Farm

LOCATED: One-half mile south and two miles east of Underwood, Iowa, on gravel road.

Brome-Alfalfa Fattening Pasture

- ★ See demonstrations of the latest forage harvesting machinery.
- ★ See the efficient utilization of high quality grass-legume pastures by controlled grazing.
- ★ See good corn following fattening pasture.
- ★ Value of grass-legume combination in controlling erosion.
- ★ Proper moisture of forage for safe storage.
- ★ Dollars and sense of grassland farming.
- ★ See terraces, grassed waterways and other soil conservation practices.
- ★ Information will be presented by outstanding men in the field of grassland farming.

Lunch will be available at the farm

GRASSLAND FARMING WILL DO THE FOLLOWING FOR YOU:

Feed your livestock — Save your soil — Save power and labor
Build up the fertility of your soil — Stabilize Agriculture

SPONSORED BY

West Pottawattamie Soil Conservation Dist.

ASSISTED BY:

Council Bluffs Kiwanis Club
Farm implement and equipment
companies

U.S.D.A. Soil Conservation Service
Extension Service

Farm Bureau
A.A.A.

Grassland farming means building your row crop and livestock production around your grassland acres—the sound foundation for SOIL CONSERVATION.