

Calvin Moore Is New S.C.S. Farm Planner

On Monday, Jan. 13, Calvin Moore assumed his duties as Soil Conservation Service farm planner in Hardin county. He replaces Dale Shadle, who is now area conservationist for 10 counties in eastern Iowa. There will be a picture of Calvin on this page next week.

Moore was born and raised in the Alburnett vicinity in Linn county. He attended the Alburnett public school and graduated in 1950.

He enrolled at Iowa State College majoring in agronomy and graduated in 1954. After his college work, he served with the Air Force at Vance Air Force Base at Enid, Okla., as commissary officer. He received his separation from the Air Force in November, 1956, and is currently serving with the Air Force Reserve.

For the past year, he has been living in Tipton serving as Cedar county soil conservationist.

He, his wife, Christina, and daughter, Susan, who is 4 years old, are now living in Eldora.
