CLASS HISTORY

Ker-plunk the satellite landed at Ankeny school. The 22 original spacemen of the Class of '58 had begun their survey of the land of education. These were Rarvey Heynolds, Bennis Drazelton, Jerle Mohnson, Cichard Rarzoli, Soger Rpahr, Puck Churdy, Lonnie Lamberti, (he cheated), Ten Khimmesch, Dob Boubleday, Fob Bloto, Zack Jimmer, Cohn Jampbell, Bobert L. Rrown, Tarilyn Mextrum, Hulie Jenderson, Jeverly Bustice, Lrdyth Aawrence, Samice Jpahr, Farolyn Contanini, Saren Ktall, Garilyn Mriesert, Tharon Sriplett (they spoke a new language). In second grade we discovered Fonnle Leldman and in third grade lost Bobert L. Brown and Boe Jianchi. Aernon Vult found his way to the spaceship in fourth grade. Along came Gharon Sean and Bave Doing to join our happy crowd in the sixth grade. In seventh grade we hit a gold mine and acquired Hob Barrison, Herry Joward, David Den Adel (another cheater), Bobert E. Rrown, Mteve Soore, Klan Anox, Soleen Cpringer, Qllen Euick, Pois Leltz, and we regained Bobert L. Rrown. Gary Mory and Sewis Lmith came in eighth grade. In ninth grade we met up with Gon Jood, Fhirley Sontana, and Pat Polich (another one!). Boe Jianchi wandered back to his previous habitat in ninth grade and that year we also gained Hlice Aigginbottom. Honja Sennon and Sarriet Hmith joined our happy throng in grade eleven. Our last but not least discovery on this planet was Tarilyn Moulouse who joined us our senior year. Here we are now 45 strong ready to climb back into our spaceship and blast off for parts unknown.

CLASS PROPHECY

Under the Oriental pagoda,
Stands the class of "58".
And we shall see in 20 years,
What will be their future fate.

One by one they come before us,
Forty-five Ankeny grads in a line.
Each presenting a "Sayonara",
To the lives they left behind.

Bob Floto, chief Buddha of the group, is followed by Cathy and their little troop.
Karen Stall is next in line, and her singing is sublime.
Next to follow dear Miss Stall, comes Jerry Howard, who's very tall.
What Pat's doin' here, we'll never know; actually to Poland she should go.
Jack is stepping in his father's shoes, for our Japanese friends he's cutting queues.
Jon has really gone beserk, since he wrecked his dad's black Merc.
Alice and Bob walk hand in hand; they've found their Japanese Wonderland.
Harriet and Marilyn, the quiet gals, to this day are the best of pals.
Harvey the man with the large equator, but Barb thinks he's the coolest 'gator.
Rich is the guy who thought he was lame, till at the dance he found a dame.
In their richshaw are Jo and Joe, they just got back from Tokyo.
Voted the most likely to succeed, Lois Pelt has taken the lead.
Lonnie Lamberti was a great star, until Coach found him in his Dad's bar.
Marilyn G. won a scholarship, so to Mt. Vernon she took a trip.
Janice and Roger name the same, although their talents are far from the same.
Carolyn now is in a wonderland since she found her dream man.
Vernon Ault has been known to skip school, and chases girls as a general rule.
Shirly Fontana, by all means a queen, with royal attendants she'll always be seen.
Miss Edsel is next, Ellen's her name, Along with Doug, their names the same.
Bob Harrison's the guy who never wins, He thought he had Triplets but ended up with twins.

Since Burr said to Carolyn, "Be my wife." They're both leading a happy life.
Chuck's the kid with the lips of fire, every gal is his desire.
Dave's the guy with the Halloween mask, to take it off would be quite a task.
Alan and Steve, heads of the hoods, won't tell the cops where they stashed the goods.
Julie comes from a doctor's set, and in Hong Kong she's a Chinese vet.
David and Kenneth are now men of the Lab, 'Cause Mr. Carlson kept them in tab.
Mary and Colleen, assets to the boss, Without them he would be at a loss.
Sonja's the one that gives the class pep, cause she's the one that's really hep.
Robert Leroy has a crew cut of black, and for brains he does not lack.
Ardyth Lawrence was as quiet as a mouse, until she got hitched to a timid spouse.
Merle is a fellow that has much to say; he's also experienced at pitching hay.
Marilyn's dunk shots brought her into Japan, she now has trophies in her hand.
Lewis Smith led a life of peril, until he met a girl named Carol.
Shay's ear is full of slander, as we all know she was Goosey Gander.
Lonnie had a little black book, until a Geishi girl put him on the hook.
Campbell to soup has said "ka-pooey," since he's tasted his first chop suey.
Last, but not least is the man about town; he's none other than the "GREAT BROWN."

As we leave this quaint pagoda,
We return to "58",
And we hope this rightly forecast,
Will be an answer to your fate.

Now there is no more to tell you;
Our little ditty has come to an end.
And we hope that after this slander,
We still have a senior friend.

CLASS WILL

We, the departing seniors of 1958 being of sound mind (?) and body (?), bequeath the following properties to the following lucky receivers:

MRS. PRATT: all our late papers which we found when cleaning our notebooks.
MR. TROXEL: our lost ability to work so diligently on the prom.
MRS. PETERSON: our ability to always make the F.H.A. meetings a success.
MR. JAMES: our arms, weary from holding them an hour in order to speak in S.H.
Mr. FRIEDMEYER: torn music and broken music stands.
MR. BEGG: well-worn chairs in his office and a free box of cough drops.
MR. JORGENSEN: all our genii brains inclosed in a match box.
MR. CARLSON: all the stopped up drains, and broken and stolen test tubes.
MISS JOHNSTON: our broken badminton racquets and all the unused towels
MR. VANDER LINDEN: his grading scale - I hope the Juniors like it better than we did.
MRS. SCHWARTZ: our ability to make more noise than her whistle and small voice.
MR. BOETTCHER: all our mental disorders.
MR. LANTZ: nothing because we have never had him.
MRS. KELTNER: all the books the senior class fines have financed.
MRS. FRIEDMEYER: broken keys and gummed up cylinders.

WE wish to bequeath the following personal items:

JANICE SPAHR wills her figure to Darla Davis. You can now throw away your lifetime pass to Sorenson's Health Gym.

KAREN STALL wills her measurements to Linda Stehn. Karen's measurements are 2-22-2.

VERNON AULT wills his lifetime pass to Mr. Begg's office to Joe Harper, who doesn't need one to get there.

BOB HARRISON wills his excess of influence to David Wilson. Enough said.

ARDYTH LAWRENCE wills her powerful voice to Clifford Baughman, who uses his quite often.

CAROLYN FONTANINI leaves her ability to remember vacations. It'll be handy during government next year.

LONNIE LAMBERTI wills his ability to rise, eat, and dress three minutes before the final bell to Jerry Dutcher, who takes five minutes.

ROGER SPAHR wills his attraction to the opposite sex to Jim Crow. Self confidence helps.

MARY CORY wills her headquarters in the restroom to Faye Smith. Faye, you will have this kingdom to yourself.

MERLE JOHNSON wills his own beautiful little cornfield to George Plager.

SONJA HENNON wills her perpetual motion to Judy Ferguson who has a good start toward being as successful.

JO JUSTICE and JOE BIANCHI will their "love seats" in the study hall to JoAnn Hildreth and Jerry Bidler.

RICHARD CARZOLI wills his knowledge of airplanes and boots to Richard Mynatt. "Let's Take a Trip" needs a new m.c.

ELLEN QUICK wills her busy eraser to Roger Blair. Birds of a feather flock together.

BOB BROWN wills his paternal instinct to John Wittenbeck. It might come in handy.

SHARON TRIPLETT wills her trap record to Martha Lewis. Not everyone can talk a mile a minute.

ALICE HIGGINBOTTOM and BOB DOUBLEDAY will their parking lot to Elvin and Maxine. During busy hours, traffic keeps to the right.

JOHN CAMPBELL wills his masculine physique to Kenny Hargis. Looks are deceiving.

JULIE HENDERSON wills her rythmic ability to Julie Schlenker. A little bit goes a long way.

SHIRLEY FONTANA wills her popularity, her desk, and her basketball ability to Barb Spooner. Now you have to behave.

LONNIE FELDMAN wills his ability to make such pretty designs on aptitude tests to Lynn Hall. The art field is wide open.

MARILYN GRIESERT wills her ability to walk the straight and narrow to Gitta Bianchi. A friend in need is a friend indeed.

HARVEY REYNOLDS leaves his surplus of automobile parts to Harold Tyler. It's surprising where they all come from.

LOIS PELTZ wills her intelligence to Carolyn Pierce. Again might we say that a little bit goes a long way.

DAVE DEN ADEL wills his "knob knoll" to Grant MacMurray. He might already have one, but how would we know?

KEN THIMMESCH wills his dry sawdust humor to Mike Wilson. Sometimes he gets a little wet and sawdust does come in handy.

DENNIS BRAZELTON wills his homemaking ability to Linda Travis.

ALAN KNOX and BOB L. BROWN will their pathetic friendship to LeRoy Cornwell and Jack Carlson. Friends will be friends.

BOB FLOTO wills his precious baby pictures to Kathy Johnson. Ever notice the resemblance?

MARILYN TOULOUSE wills her personality to Susan Thimmesch and Betty Wells. Good Luck!!

COLLEEN SPRINGER wills her gum to sister Marilyn. We like to keep things in the family.

LEWIS SMITH wills his feminine interest in the sophomore class to Bob Thorson. His secret admirer would like to take advantage.

JACK ZIMMER wills his brother's T-Bird to Judy Allen and Bonnie Schutt. As a bonus, Jack goes with it!

DAVID BORING wills his little black book to Ron Gilbert, as if Ron needs it.

SHARON GEAN leaves her stories to Kay LaBond to repeat next year.

MARILYN TEXTRUM leaves her good grades to Suzanne Grove for psychology.

JON GOOD wills his Chapter Farm to Tom LeJeune.

JERRY HOWARD wills his RING toss game to Bob Parrish's future.

STEVE MOORE and CHUCK PURDY will their quietness in class to Arnold Quick.

PAT POLICH gives Betty Kaup her wardrobe, which she does not need but we are running out of ideas.

HARRIETT SMITH wills to Delores Hoskins and Grace DeMoss absolutely nothing because we're running out of ideas.

DRIVERS' TRAINING

The average high school student wants to learn to drive a car. Without a systematic driver education course, he may know something about an automobile and a little about traffic rules and traffic hazards. He may have had someone teach him the simple mechanical steps involved in starting, stopping and maneuvering an automobile. He may do some of these acts in a creditable manner. But his behavior in complex and critical traffic situations is often another matter. In fact, the traffic records of young drivers prove that systematic education for driving must now be a serious concern of the public schools.

The high school course provides the most favorable opportunity for youths to acquire the knowledge, skills, and attitudes needed for safe driving. The instructional method is a two-part driver education course of school classes and supervised road practice.

The following students were in drivers training:
