The Karl Erdmann's lived in the Town of Erdmann which was named for his brother, William Erdmann. William and Karl were the sons of Albert and Fannie Schedzsche Erdmann. Albert came from Germany at the age of 16 and located in California. For 4 or 5 years he prospected gold fields, then returned to Germany, married, and brought his bride to the U.S. They settled in Sheboygan Co., WI, in the town of Mosel. Karl or Charles Erdmann was one of seven children born to Albert and Fannie. He resided in Erdmann and with his oldest brother, William A. Erdmann, erected a hotel, saloon, harness shop, sale stable, and an implement and hardware store. A partner in the business with the brothers was William A. Wagner, who married Emma Kohl, daughter of John Kohl. Karl (Charles) married Ida Mog and they had two daughters.

(From the "History of Sheboygan County", in part.)

The Brandt family lived in a small village called Futig, not far from the city of Detmold. The farm dates back to the 1600's and consists of a farm home, a gasthaus (guest house) and has a small mill run by water power. In 1961, the Louis Kohl Brandt family spent two days there with the Ludwig Brandt family. Louis' father had communicated with Ludwig, who apparently was his second cousin. The American Brandt's were made very welcome by the German Brandt's and their visit is remembered with pleasure.
