THE PRISONERS OF BATAAN

Like Europes countless starving hordes
We're chained and yet unchained;
Still, bound, but prisoners with swords.
Our freedom is maintained.

Although a concentration camp,
Our jail is barred with vines,
The dank, dark, dungeon's musty damp
With jungle smell combines.

"Why are we fighting, great God Mars,
In Bramble called Bataan?"
"You're fighting other peoples' wars.
What has man done to man?"

For causes noble like the ones
When Warriors, besieged, Opposed the fiercely hamm'ring guns.
Mowed down the foe like weeds.

Encircled remnants bled and died
At Vicksburg, Carthage, Tyre,
As fearless as a tiger dyed
With flick'ring shadowed fire.

The Alcazar, the Alamo,
Verdun, Peking, Lucknow,
At Yorktown, Metz, Setastopol--
Their heroes showed us how.

To die, Condemned soldiers we,
Macbeth-like, curse our fate.
We wait and wait impatiently
For help which comes....Too late?

We're fed on figures like machines
Which add and take away
But what we want is food and means:
Some fighting men today!

Epilogue

".....If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, through poppies grow
In flanders fields."

Vacation Extended

For Xmas

Dear Pa & Sisters, A merry Christmas! May this Christmas bring peace & happiness to you all. Our Christmas are according to Oriental customs was spent - rest, relaxation, and thought - on old Philippine Constabulary Barracks, Philippines Islands, which - ( ) of Historical Interest. Unlike all other previous Christmas's, this was a Christmas - of tropics. From our barracks looking across bay our sun has just peeked over neighboring Zig Zag mountain tops. Its slanting sunbeams of purple, blue, and orange blend with coconut palms - palms of Christmas; another Philippine Christmas. Its tinted colored canvas float away while Filipino homes are lighted around shore. It is their Christmas too. our thoughts turn homeward as we hear splash of the tide and scent pure-cooled ocean air. The men are silent. The church bells are heard ringing out their chimes of tidings and good will. From the building on our right, low chanting from the Priest's Mass is interrupted by children singing their Christmas carols. The men frequent verenda & Porches - order that they might hear & enjoy what is taking place - other world. No word is said, for they are too solemn. Just occasional puff of smoke leaves their lips. Their minds are at ease, - deep concentration. Somewhere - Philippines; Somewhere - world; we as Prisoners of war know that our fellow men, women, and our children are not enjoying Christmas as we enjoyed ours. Christmas is a day of Loving. Knowing that I will receive no beautiful expensive presents, and that life will go on as usual, I lift my eyes and give best I have to give - My thoughts, My Prayer, and a Merry Christmas

My Most Outstanding Experience during the War.

While attached to the Flag Allowance, Commander-in-Chief, United States Asiatic Fleet, I was working in the office on the third floor of the Marsman building located to the right of Pier [illegible] the port Area boundry and Manila Hotel.

Everyday seemed to bring air raids, not exactly air raids or enemy planes overhead, but the air raid alarm would be sounded in Manila area. [illegible] the siren which was the air raid signal became so usual that it was soon ignored by the office force.

Several occasions I watched the bombing of the surrounding air fields [illegible] and Nielson fields and the Navy yard at Cavite, but never gave it a thought that they would bomb the Port Area in Manila, until one day late in December 1941, about eleven o'clock the radio gave the warning "Heavy Bombers Heading for Manila".

The office force were discussing what would they bomb next. Some said the air fields again; others said the port Area. [illegible]

The air raid siren sounded in the building; all personnel were sent to the main floor. The office was practically deserted except for two radiomen, the Marine guard, the duty Flag officer, and myself, who was running the ship to shore radio, when the Admiral came to the door and said, "You had better lock the office and go below". We did not go to the main floor, instead we all stopped between the 3rd and 2nd floors and sat on the steps waiting for the planes to pass over. Soon we heard the roar of the motors, then the shriek and shrill of the bombs.

Luckily the Port Area was not solid ground, but filled in land, because one bomb lit on the other side of the building exploding many feet under the earth; therefore just rocking the building. The other bomb, that lit in the vicinity of Pier seven and our building, exploded at the edge of the street at the right of the Port Area gate. The damage caused was slight. A few cars, that were parked near by, burned; the concussion broke the windows in the office facing the pier; otherwise no casualities were sustained.

Having been my first experience of bombings, but not my last, the Port Area first bombing was the nearest that a bomb exploded to me during the Philippine campaign. Being in the Navy, holding the rate as yeoman, I had no opportunity to experience any definite battle or scenes of action other than the shellings and bombings of Port Area where I was later attached as beach defense.

In my opinion war is war. It must be fought; every man must and should do his best to help win for his country. The best of people surrender or lose some time or the other. It may be a debate, a business, or even life, but they did their best for that concerned.

"I expect to pass through this world but once; any good thing therefore, that I can do, or any kindness that I can show to fellow-creatures, let — me do it now; let — me — defer or neglect it, for I shall — pass this way again."

"I shall — pass this way again, So it's no matter what I do; Ill-mess or pasture, spoil or track, I do not care a damn for you. With broken Bottles, empty tins, I'll strew your road — you've got to take. I shall — pass this way again, I do not care what mess I make.

this battle wasn't a romance one — my thoughts when things weren't just right — memories of home inspired me to protect — what (they) saw by the dawn's early light. Now my calk water tanks are a little worn — as evidence of many battles at sea — though this little affair was blown to hell — keeping you yet have a thought for me.

Charles Kingsley (Letter from Huxley to Charles attributes of character; scales of moral value may be accepted in which noblest stoical virtues are made preeminent; & Courage & kindness may be admirably exhibited.

Must not our minds be thwarted in the attempt to understand the Continuance of life under circumstance so alien from those in which life has always been experienced, and must not our imagination quite fail down in the endeavour to conceive how thought & love can still persist, when the conditions which have made thought & love a possibility have been removed?

Thompson's Portrayal of a world — "A Tortured soul forever like a mill, It grinds our life'd death, and God & ill, It has no purpose, heart, or mind, or will. Etc.)

June 10-44-

How to get what you want - Orison Swett Marden - The Hokaseido Press - Tokyo.

20 - No matter what ach ideals you have or set up, no matter what sacrifices you have to make, let everything else go if necessary, but cling to the ideal which haunts your dreams, for it points to the star of your destiny, and if you follow it you will convert the darkness into Beauty & Brightness.

41 - one of the most unfortunate things that ever happened to the race was the teaching of the doctrine that Heaven is not to be enjoyed on earth, that it is something way beyond, & that we must die to reach it.

16 - Struggles, disappointments, difficulties, are not meant to make us sad, but to make us strong & fit for work - to make us glad, but we shall be given strength to overcome all these.

73 - the habit of driving out of our consciousness every suggestion of failure, of disappointment, of discouragement or evil by substituting its opposite is of inestimable value. The ability to do this, to clarify & demind of everything which can possibly injure it, is the secret of all success & happiness.

93 - Your true model is the one you see when you are the most optimistic, and not the mean discouraging figure of yourself which you see when you look on your pessimistic spectacles.

96 - He can who thinks he can & he can't who thinks he can't.

"I know myself"

15 - Our flag says to the american people,
"I am what you have made me. I am just as great and no greater than you believe me to be.
I stand for what you think I stand for. I cannot rise above your estimate of me. If you put a high value upon human liberty, upon democracy, upon human rights, then that is what I mean, that is what I typify. I am that what you think I am."

76 - Comparatively few people realize how much self-faith has to do with achievement.

62 - But we know that time heals the sorrows, that physical & mental ills pass away, and that the brave soul is the one that adapts itself to the storms & sunshine of life.

It is hard, I know, for your Imagination to endeavor to conceive how thought and love can still exist, when the conditions which have made thought and love a possibility have been removed; therefore let not your mind be thwarted in its attempt to understand my continuance of life under circumstance so alien from that in which we have always before existed.

Notes From (The Man Nobody Knows)
By Bruce Barton —

45- "Nothing is Impossible, if only your will power is strong enough."

80-81 — Lincoln while having meeting with Cabinet Read a chapter of Nonsense from Artemus Ward.
Frequent chuckles from only President
"Gentlemen, why don't you laugh?, he exclaimed. "or I shall have fearful strain that is upon me night & day, If I did not laugh I should die, and you need this medicine as much as I."

Emancipation Proclamation —
"the little white paper" as Stanton called it.

140- What shall it profit a man if he shall gain the whole world & lose his own soul; or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

155- It has been said that "repetation is repetition". No important truth can be impressed upon the minds of any large number of people by being said only one.

Check page 154
"Pres. Garfield is on record he repeated himself too much — 189-

Business Story of a rich man who said
"What shall I do, because I have no room where to Bestow my fruits?"
And he said: "This will I do; I will pull down my barns & build greater; & there will I bestow all my fruits & my goods."
And I will say to my soul, "Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink & be merry."
But God said, "Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee."

199- Jesus said, "No prophet is acceptable in his own country"; sadly.
"Elijah did his greatest works in a foreign city; Elisha could accomplish nothing big until he got beyond the borders of his home."

(On being a real person)

By Harry Emerson Fosdick

8- We are not responsible for our heredity; much of our environment we cannot control; but if this one fact a third factor enters into the building of personality - the power to face life with an individual rejoinder - then we are responsible for that.

263 Adler's statement -
"By changing our opinion of ourselves we can also change ourselves."

Phyllis Bottome, Alfred Adler. a Biography. (New York, 1939 P. 91.

190- Thomas Hardy - "Love shines over sorrow and faithful companions."

he said, "they get up with me, go to bed with me, make journeys & returns as I do."
(the works of Thomas Gray, edited by Edmund Gosse (London 1884)
II 8.

190- out of that class, when its typical qualities are exaggerated, come the Pollyannas, the whatever-is-is-right people, and that horrible race of wishful thinkers. the familiar saying that a pessimist is one who has to live with an optimist is equally false.

139- Hippocrates classified manis temperaments under four heads:
phlegmatic - slow, impassive, lethargic, heavy;
choleric - quick, ardent,
fiery; passionate;
sanguine - warm, cheerful, buoyant, enthusiastic Optimistic.
Melancholic - sober, somber grave; sad.

132 It was a psychiatrist,
Dr. Weller, who, having said in one place, "Ribicide is the master cure for fear & anxiety." struck a deeper note when he said in another, "the only known cure for fear is faith." (the mind of Mischief"

P. 43)

9- A.A. Milne, "Hood Sailor,"
(Now we are Six) N.Y. 1927

P. 36.

Adam answered an old Sailor
Who had a many things to tell
And he was standing on a bridge
And watching ships go down the river
He could tell from where they came
And where they were going,
And he thought it was a splendid thing
To be a Sailor like that.

18- therefore there burns the rood hordeth thereof.

26. In the development of the sciences astronomy came first, and after that geology, biology, sociology, until last of all come psychology.

---

20 "There is a deep tendency in human nature to become like that which we imagine ourselves to be."

Hocking, Thorndyke, its body + freedom (New Haven 1930) P. 45

4 - His creed is simple & complete;
Whatever is, is inevitable.
Said a man to his friend, "you are acting like a fool." "Well," was the answer. "if that is what I am, I cannot help it. That is the way fate made me."

92 - Every wise man seeks a task to dignify his days. No man can be himself until he gets out of himself into work in which he identifies himself.

12 - Along with love & friendship one of the most durable satisfactions in life is to lose oneself in creative work.

92+ This is why more people become neurotic from aimless leisure & largeness than from overwork, and this is why unemployment is one of the worst of tragedies, its psychological results quite as lamentable as its economic ills.

The Return To Religion

By

Henry C. Link Ph.d.

172- they emerge from these camps better equipped to give their energies & attentions others & therefore more likely to receive a satisfying Compensation for themselves. In short, they have become more extroverted.

63- How well I remember my highly intellectual scorn for people who believed in numerology & astrology, in Palmistry & phrenology, in spiritualism & mental telepathy, in Confucism & New Thoughtism, and in many other fads & theories which the facts of science either definitely disprove or cast serious doubt upon.

I now see that such foolish beliefs are better than no beliefs at all.

國旗の知識

日の丸の由來

國旗の由來を尋ねて見ると、其源は遠く天祖天照大神に發し、其太陽を象つた日の丸こそは、てある。そして日の丸の旗の白地は、清淨、清潔を尊び、正義と公平と平和を愛好して止まざる國民性を表はし、また其の形に於ては圓滿を表し、赤色は赤心、光明武勇向上、進取を念とする國民性の表象である。また記憶すべきは、日の丸の赤は、あの朝日の色である事である。

正しい國旗の寸法

國旗の大さは適宜になつてゐるが、形式と寸法比率は明治三年一月廿七日太政官布告の要件を具備しなければならない。

即ち

1 橫巾を一〇〇とすれば縱巾は七〇にする。
2 縱巾を七〇とすれば、日の丸の直徑は四二、即ち縱の五分の三とする事。
3 日の丸の中心は、旗面の中心より百分の一だけ旗竿の方へ寄る事。
4 日の丸の上下は縱巾の五分の一宛あける事。

國旗の揭げ方

1 國旗は門內より見て、右に揭ぐる事。止むを得なければ左てよし。
2 二旒揭揚の場合は、併立、交叉隨意であるが、併立が望ましい。交叉の時は門內より見て左の國旗と外國々旗と共に揭ぐる時は、併立交叉隨意であるが、交叉が望ましい。併立の場合は國旗を門內より見て、左に揭げ、旗竿は內側とする事。 3 國旗を內側にする事。
