

Kiwanis Members, Farmers On Conservation Tour

Calvin Moore, third from left, Hardin county soil conservation agent, explains the lay out of the contour farming program on the Cecil Rooks farm southeast of Eldora to Kiwanis members on a conservation tour. Members and farmers were invited to make the tour Thursday evening to observe the soil conservation practices being used there and on the Future Farmers of America project just north of the Eldora Greenhouse. About 40 persons made the tour.
