CORA ECKHARDT

born October 6, 1889
died March 15, 1951

HARRY WEUVE

born August 22, 1894
died June 14, 1973

Married December 23, 1913

Cora and Harry lived on a farm three and one half miles west of State Center, Iowa on old Highway 30. It was here that they spent their entire married life farming.

Their youngest son Donald died at the age of six years. At the time of his death his illness was diagnosed as Osteomyelitis.

Cora and Harry were members of St. John's Lutheran church, later transferring to Trinity Lutheran in State Center.

They have been laid to rest in Hillside Cemetery north of State Center, Ia.

Cora and Harry farmed west of Clemons for one year right after they were married.

HAROLD ELDRIDGE

died January 30, 1968

Married November 26, 1914

Before her marriage Lydia worked at various places doing house work. She did her work well and was highly thought of.

When Lydia and Harold were married they farmed her mother's farm one mile west of Clemons.

Harold Eldridge and family moved to Clemons in 1917, and in 1923 entered the gravel business.

Lydia was the mother of eight children, one infant of ten months died an unexpected crib death; seven of her children are still living. The oldest child was only fourteen years at the time of her mother's death. The youngest was four years old.

The children grew up separated into various homes. They are now living in many different states.

There have been many trials, but God in His wisdom, surely directs our ways.
