Speech Contest On Conservation

The Davis Soil Conservation District commissioners announced today, they will sponsor a speech contest this spring.

The contest will be open to students in senior high school.

The Topic will be "How Soil and Water Conservation Affects My Future" and prizes of $10, $7.50, and $5 will be awarded to the three winning contestants.

Local winners will be eligible to compete in the regional (10-county) contest which will be held sometime this summer.

Regional winners will compete in the state contest to be held in Des Moines September 8.

Additional information may be obtained from the Soil Conservation Service Office in Bloomfield or from the speech instruction at the Davis County high school.
