

Alden, I. F. Girls Queen of Furrow Contest Winners

Cynthia Montandon,
Jean Hoffman Picked
To Represent County

Jean Hoffman, Iowa Falls and Cynthia Montandon, Alden were selected Thursday to represent Hardin district in the regional "Queen of the Furrow" contest. A luncheon honoring the entrants was held Thursday at Blanche & Ethel's Tea Room in Eldora.

The local queens will now compete with the winners of other district contests at the regional event to be held at the Boone County Fair in Boone on August 18.

The nine regional winners will be awarded 21 - jewel wrist watches and will compete at the colorful state finals to be held during the Annual Conference of Soil Conservation District Commissioners on September 20 at the Hanford hotel in Mason City.

Miss Hoffman is 16 years of age. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hoffman, Iowa Falls, operate a 460-acre farm located three miles east of Buckeye. She attends Iowa Falls High School where she will be a Junior this fall. She is active in Methodist Youth Fellowship, Pep Club, Speech and Latin Club.

Miss Mantandon, 17, comes from a 160-acre farm located five miles west of Alden. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Montandon. She will be a senior in the Alden Consolidated High School this fall. She is active in 4-H, currently serving as county vice president, Rainbow, Methodist Youth Fellowship and church choir. Her school activities include band, girls & mixed chorus, basketball, speech and editor of the school annual.