

Hoffman Lake One Of Conservation Projects

With Soil Conservation Week being observed June 20-27, recognition is being given to conservation projects in the county. One such project during the past year was the construction of the 1.7 acre lake on the Gary Hoffman farm in Ellis township. The pond, just recently stocked with bass, was built primarily for recreational purposes. The Hoffmans plan to construct a small beach on the lake.

H-I Photo, Engraving.