Conservation Art Contest Judged Today

Judging in the annual Hardin County Soil Conservation art contest will be held today, May 23, at the First National Bank of Eldora.

Students in Hardin county schools, grade eight through 12, were eligible to join with entries brought to the First National Bank by 4 p.m. Friday. Judging will take place the same evening by a panel of three judges and a conservation consultant.

Judging will be based on originality, use of media and execution of theme. A total of $70 in cash prizes will be awarded to the winning entries by the Hardin Soil Conservation District.

Winning entries will be on display at the First National Bank from May 24 to May 31 and then displayed in various other Hardin county locations.
