Dear Miss Rigby,

The use of cartoons for divider pages is used quite often in school annuals. I would suggest that the staff artist and the editorial dept. of your annual get together and decide what would be best in this matter for there is no set way of doing this. The more original it is the more interesting it will be.

If you wish to use the Peanuts characters in your divider pages, you have my permission to do so.

Kindest regards.

Sincerely,
Charles M. Schulz

Class Will

We, the class of '61, being of sound and disposing minds and memories, do hereby make, publish, and declare this our last will and testament:

To MR. BEGG we leave all the leftover "senioritis" that we didn't get a chance to use.

To MR. HOPKINS we leave the constantly depreciating old high school building to prevent it from disintegrating after we leave.

To our dearly beloved sponsor and coach, MR. VANDER LINDEN, we leave all the twice-used government tests.

We bequeath to MRS. PRATT all the things that education didn't do for us.

To MR. JAMES we leave either his proverbial bucket half full of water or "six of one and a half dozen of the other."

To MR. TROXEL we leave the key to the "fourth estate."

To MR. CARLSON we leave this sentence to write 10,000 times: Gum-chewing is frowned upon in Ankeny High School and is a sign of the deterioration of the mind by showing a definite lack of the proper attitude by not initiating the required citizenship conduct and it also causes decay of the teeth which makes one repugnant.

To MR. FRIEDMEYER we leave all our worn and torn contest music.

To MRS. ZUCK we leave the few remaining pages from our operetta books, which were used so much.

We leave to MR. WILLIAMS all the new business law books which didn't get too much use.

To MR. KRAMMER we leave this warning: Be sure to lock all the doors of the car before driving.

To MRS. KELTNER we leave a spy glass so she can keep a closer watch on all the library "rascals" next year.

To MRS. SHAFFER we leave our unfinished and unpaid for Randall Practice Sets.

We leave to MR. BOETTCHER all the college bulletins we forgot to return.

To MRS. PELTZ we leave our thanks for the fine help she gave the Future Medical Careers Club.

We bequeath to our friend, CAROLYN FONTANINI, a new book of admit slips.

We leave to MRS. CRUTCHER all our smelly towels and gym suits.

To MRS. FRIEDMEYER we leave our used-up shorthand notebooks.

To MR. HUNTER we bequeath an RCA recording of his well-known phrase, "All right, let's quiet down."

We leave to MR. LANTZ a handbook of Webster's Key Words for Perfunctory History Tests.

To MR. SCOTT, a basket of wood-shavings to scatter over the floor so as to make it look like his boys are really working hard.

MIKE FARNHAM wills his quiet manner and pleasing disposition to JO CRAWLEY and MARI DAVIS.
Maybe you don't need it, but that's all he has to offer.

GARY GABEL would like to leave all his muscles to KAREN WILSON.

JACK GONNER leaves his seat in government class to his sister, GAIL. (All answers are engraved.)

To TERI FINK, JACK GORDON leaves his dimples. If you don't want them, put them somewhere where no one can see them.

NORMAN HAINES bequeaths his charming smile to PATTY QUICK.

To DENNIS SMITH, PAT HALBACH wills his handbook on how to choose girls.

DARRELL H. leaves his books on philosophy to JIM PARDOE, to torment next year's seniors with.

"SHIFTY" JOHNSON leaves his "shifty" eyes to JIM JOHNSON, --Look what they got him, Jim.

REX LAMBERTI leaves to KEN H., GARY BROWN, GARY L., and DARRELL LAMBERTI his basketball ability. Divide it in equal shares. There's plenty to go around.

GARY MC MURRY says he wants to leave his key to TERRY LOWE and DOUG THORSON. I can't figure out why, it just turned out that way.

The carefree ones, DICK MOFFIT and DANNY DAVIS, will be the proud owners of all JIM MOON'S worries.

LYNN PADDELLFORD leaves all his school-spiritedness to DUANE BATEMAN and DAVE THOMAS. BILL H., LOU H., ALLEN J., RANDY K., RON M., and MARVIN M., the farm boys all, bequeath all their barnyard sediment to some of the future farm boys: MARLIN D., TOM NERVIG, DENNIS OBER, LES PECKLER, DAVE PEDERSEN, JIM R., DON R., and DENNIS STANFORD.

SHARON BENGIS leaves her talent in class plays to NANCY HALL. (As if Nancy needed it.)

MARILYN BIANCHI leaves to JILL VULCANO her will power. If she can let her fingernails grow, Jill, anyone can.

LOUISE COY leaves her ability to flirt with Mr. Williams to MARY HICKLE.

SANDRA DAVIS leaves to next year's Skit Club all her farmer's daughter costumes.

BONNIE DOUGHTEN leaves her artistic ability to TERI CURRAN. Use it in good health, Teri.

KATHY FUQUA leaves to PATTY UGULINI and JANE HOUSER all her good cheerleading qualities. You don't need it, but we know you'd like some of it.

CONNIE HALL leaves her measurements to HAROLD ALBAUGH.

NANCY HART leaves her ability to "Ace it" to JIM JOHNSON.

SUE HILDRETH leaves her athletic ability to MARCIA COLES and GLENDA LOGAN.

SHERRY JONES leaves her bubbling giggle to DAVE SARGENT with these words, "Laugh and the world cries with you."

KAY KENWORTHY and BARB SHELDAHL leave their closets full of clothes to PAM MC CLURG to carry on the trend.

RUTH KNOX and PHYLLIS SMITH leave all their chatter to MAURINE BRYANT and DIANA DU BOIS. We've heard some people say you are the quiet type, girls.

KAREN SODERSTROM leaves to LINDA HOFF these words of advise, "Don't do as I do, do as I say!" (She seems to think you'll be much better off, Hoffy!)

WANDA TRIPLETT leaves her naivete to BARB MOON. We think Barb could use come of it.

KIM WILSON leaves her obviously hidden quietness to KAREN BALLARD. We know Karen will appreciate it.

SYLVA WILLIAMSON and CATHY NIDAY leave their ability to snatch men to LONNIE MEDICI and OLIVIA MIKLUS.

DIANE VARNUM leaves her ability to talk Coach out of a test to MARY RIGBY, SHERRY COBB, and LINDA RANDOLPH. Take care of it, girls, it took her a long time to perfect it.--and she still hasn't completely.

LINDA SCOTT leaves her talent for getting along with teachers to KAREN WEICHERT who really doesn't need it, but we're running out of ideas.

JIM ADAMS leaves his boy scout ability to TOM SYSTER.

JOHN BYLER leaves his permanent wave set to DAVID RUFFCORN and LARRY DUNBAR.

MARTY CONWAY leaves his height to KATHY DRAKE and MARY JO HUTTON. (There's enough for both of you, girls).

GARY DALASTA leaves all his gooley-gooley escapades to NANCY ANDERSON.

LARRY DE MOSS wishes to bequeath his Zippo to Zane "Zippy" Smith. Wear it in good health.

WAYNE DEN ADEL leaves his charm with the girls to JIM KNOOP. Wear it in good health.

ART DRAKE, with his heart of gold, leaves this trait to DENNIS GOOD and ARNIE FISCHER who think they're so bold.

JIM WARRINGTON leaves his love for Buicks to FLOYD NEUBAUER.

KARL REYNOLDS bequeaths his over abundance of charm to JIM JOHNSON, DON JOHNSON, and DON DAVIS.

GARY VIGNAROLI leaves his wrestling physique to DICK BIANCHI and RON REYNOLDS.

DICK WILLIAMS, the track boy, leaves his "tracks" to JAMES SMITH and MIKE CHERRY.

JIMMY ZIMMER leaves his coin-flipping habits to RON TORRENCE and GERRY STANLEY.

JERRY KAHRs, a funny-type clown, leaves his humor and jokes to RAYMOND BROWN.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY "DOWN TO EARTH"

Before the big play: Makeup being applied with shaky hands.

I remember the chariot race, and then it must have ages.

Dear, DEAR, Aunt Augusta!

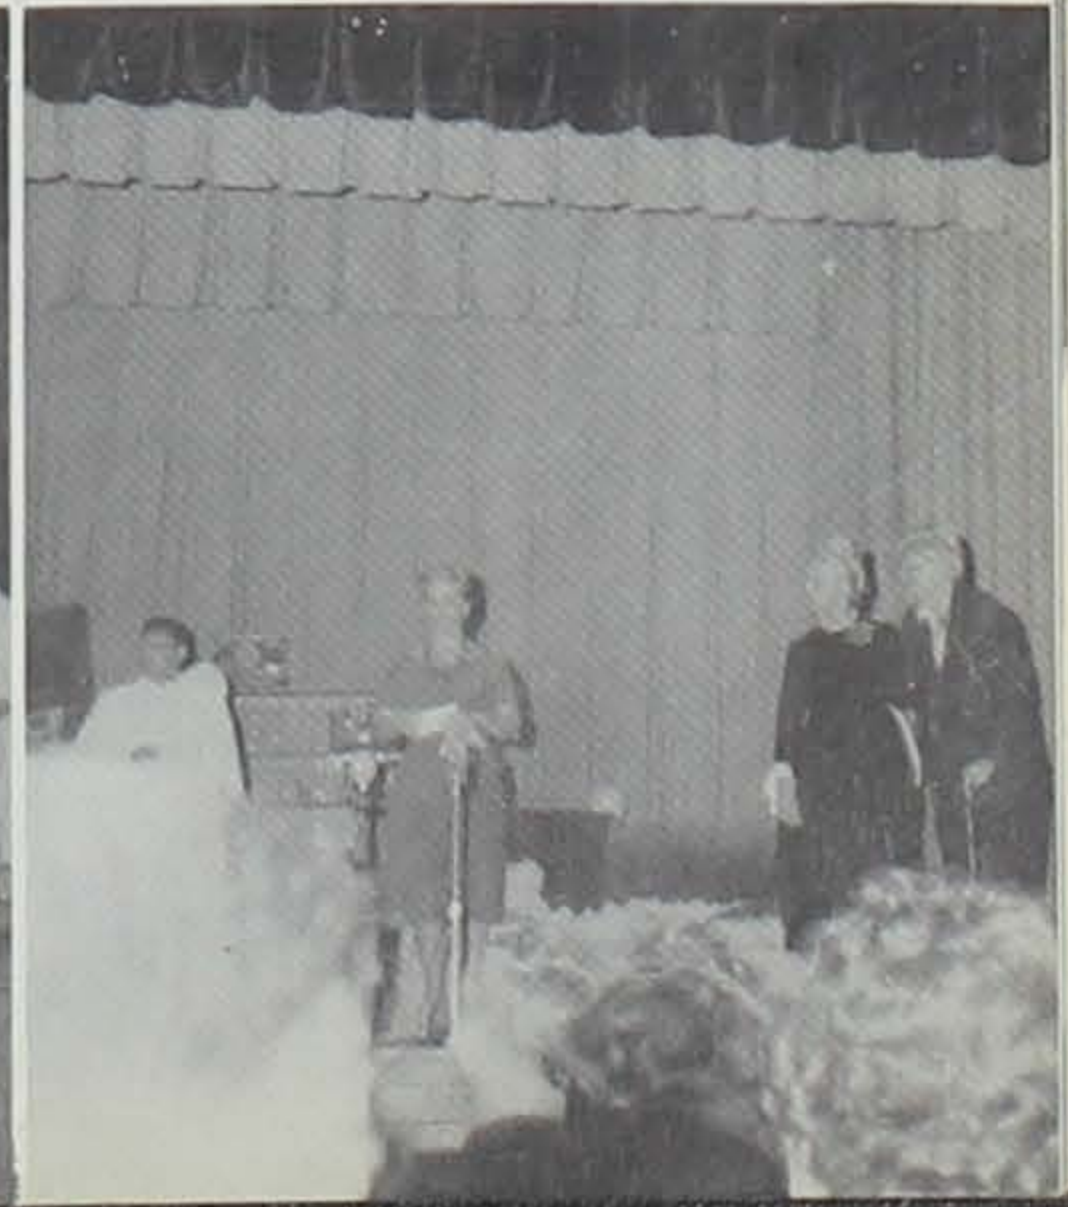

Mrs. Pratt, will you please come out on stage?

Why, even now I feel a constriction around my throat!

If you think I could be the least bit interested in you, you're very much mistaken!!!

All I want is you, Clementine, and my hyacinths!!

Quo Vadis?

THE final echo of the old school bell signals far more than just the end of four years of diligent study. It is a fanfare, heralding an altogether new life in a competitive and demanding adult world.

The school has done a big job conditioning young minds for this moment. And, properly, these minds are eagerly receptive to the challenge. But there's more required than a mental reservoir of facts and figures and a willingness to apply them in a practical way.

There is another item that is every bit as important or perhaps more so. It is the human heart. For, it must still be acknowledged that it is the heart that can direct these other attributes in such a way as to add to mere material success the quality of satisfaction—a quality that comes from using knowledge and wisdom and skill not only to improve oneself but to make a better world for all who dwell in it.

Rightfully, then, it's proper to pause here and ask oneself, "Whither goest thou?" And then to choose the way that invites this unbeatable partnership of mind and heart.
