THOMAS FISHER

The following was Tom Fisher's entry to State for judging in 1976 and was printed in the local paper.

It was cut out and saved by Elnora Eckhardt who felt it would be an excellent addition to the book.

The following is as it appeared in the paper.

"TOM FISHER'S ENTRY TO STATE FOR JUDGING"

Tom Fisher, West Marshall fifth grade student and son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fisher of State Center, was recently named first place winner in the "My America - Yesterday, Today, Tomorrow" contest sponsored by the Bicentennial Commission of Pennsylvania and the National Education Association.

His entry, an original poem using the contest title letters to begin each new line of the poem, will now be judged on the state level. Local judges were much impressed with Tom's entry, according to his teacher, Marcia Quick. The following is the text of Tom's winning entry:

My America means a lot to me,
Yet it took many to make us free.

All of those heroes whose courage was tried
Made our America strong with pride.
Everyone pitched in with a helping hand
Really making this a beautiful land.
Indians greeted the pilgrims cautiously.
Columbus's dream became a reality,
And we began the search for liberty.

Yes, the colonists worked with great zest.
England's demands led to our unrest.
Starting the Revolution, a war that began
The fight for freedom - a man against man.
Each victory we won aided our cause,
Reminding us we should not pause.
Defeating the British was first in our mind.
Always a better way we must find,
Yearning for a peaceful life and no other kind.

Today with the help of you and me,
Oh, we can work together and be
Devoted to keeping our lovely land -
A country that is so very grand.
Year in, year out, we'll withstand.

America, we pledge our loyalty,
Never forgetting our responsibility,
Defending our nation's quality.

Think to the future everyone,
Oh, yes, there is a lot to be done.
Much thinking we must do on energy,
Outwit the problem of ecology,
Recover our nation's integrity.
Relying on each one's ability,
Our nation will grow more and more
Why, this is what America stands for!
