SOSers — Here to help

ANYTHING GOES

Freshman participated in many different events their first week at B.V. They had a freshman dance in Siebens Center, and an All-Campus dance at the Cobblestone. One day there were games for all. Games included a dunk tank (SOSers were dunked), egg toss, round the baseball bat races, three-legged races, and many more. The SOS organization planned the events and enjoyed coaching their individual teams.

Pep talks before the races begin!

Brett gives his team winning strategy.

Three legged races off to a "running" start.

The bat races were a "dizzying" experience for freshmen. Below: Freshmen scramble eggs in the egg toss.

Above: "Physical contact" was the call for the orange pass.
Right: SOSers settle a major controversy of the games.

Welcome Freshmen!

The highlight of the tennis team came before the season started when senior Julie Whitmore was named along with graduated Jackie Jerkovich as a 1984 ITCA Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

The ITCA selection process is difficult, requiring a high level of excellence in academics and in the sport of tennis.

The Beavers suffered through a dual year when they lost 13 of their matches. The team did bounce back to post a sixth place, 20-point conference finish. Susan Mingus captured third place in the #3 singles competition at the conference while Joy Johnson was fifth at #2 singles. Johnson combined with Whitmore for a fifth at #1 doubles.

Central won its third consecutive IIAC golf Tournament with a 715 team score on the Lake Creek Country Club course in Storm Lake.

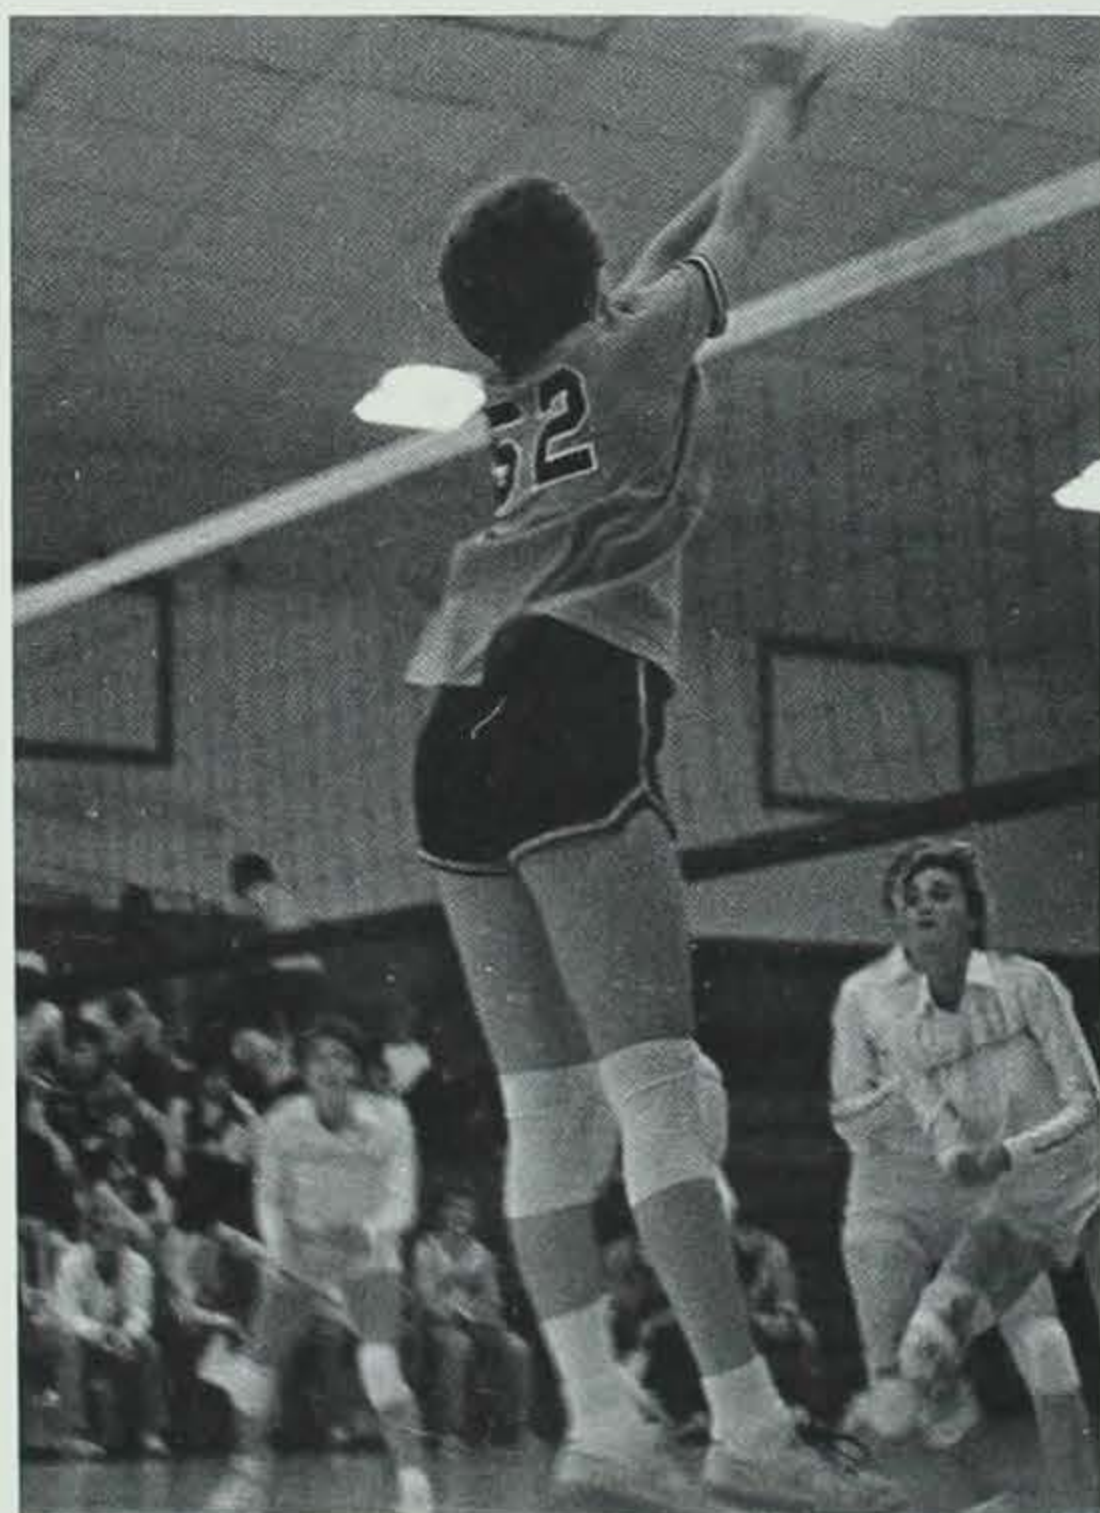

Luther was second at 732, Simpson third with a 770 and the Beavers fourth at 798. Kim Doyle of Central took medalist honors with a 170 and Cathy Hays of Luther was second at 171. Anne Vaske topped the Buena Vista charts with a 189 and freshman Sandy Pratt fired a 197.

BVC VOLLEYBALL 1984

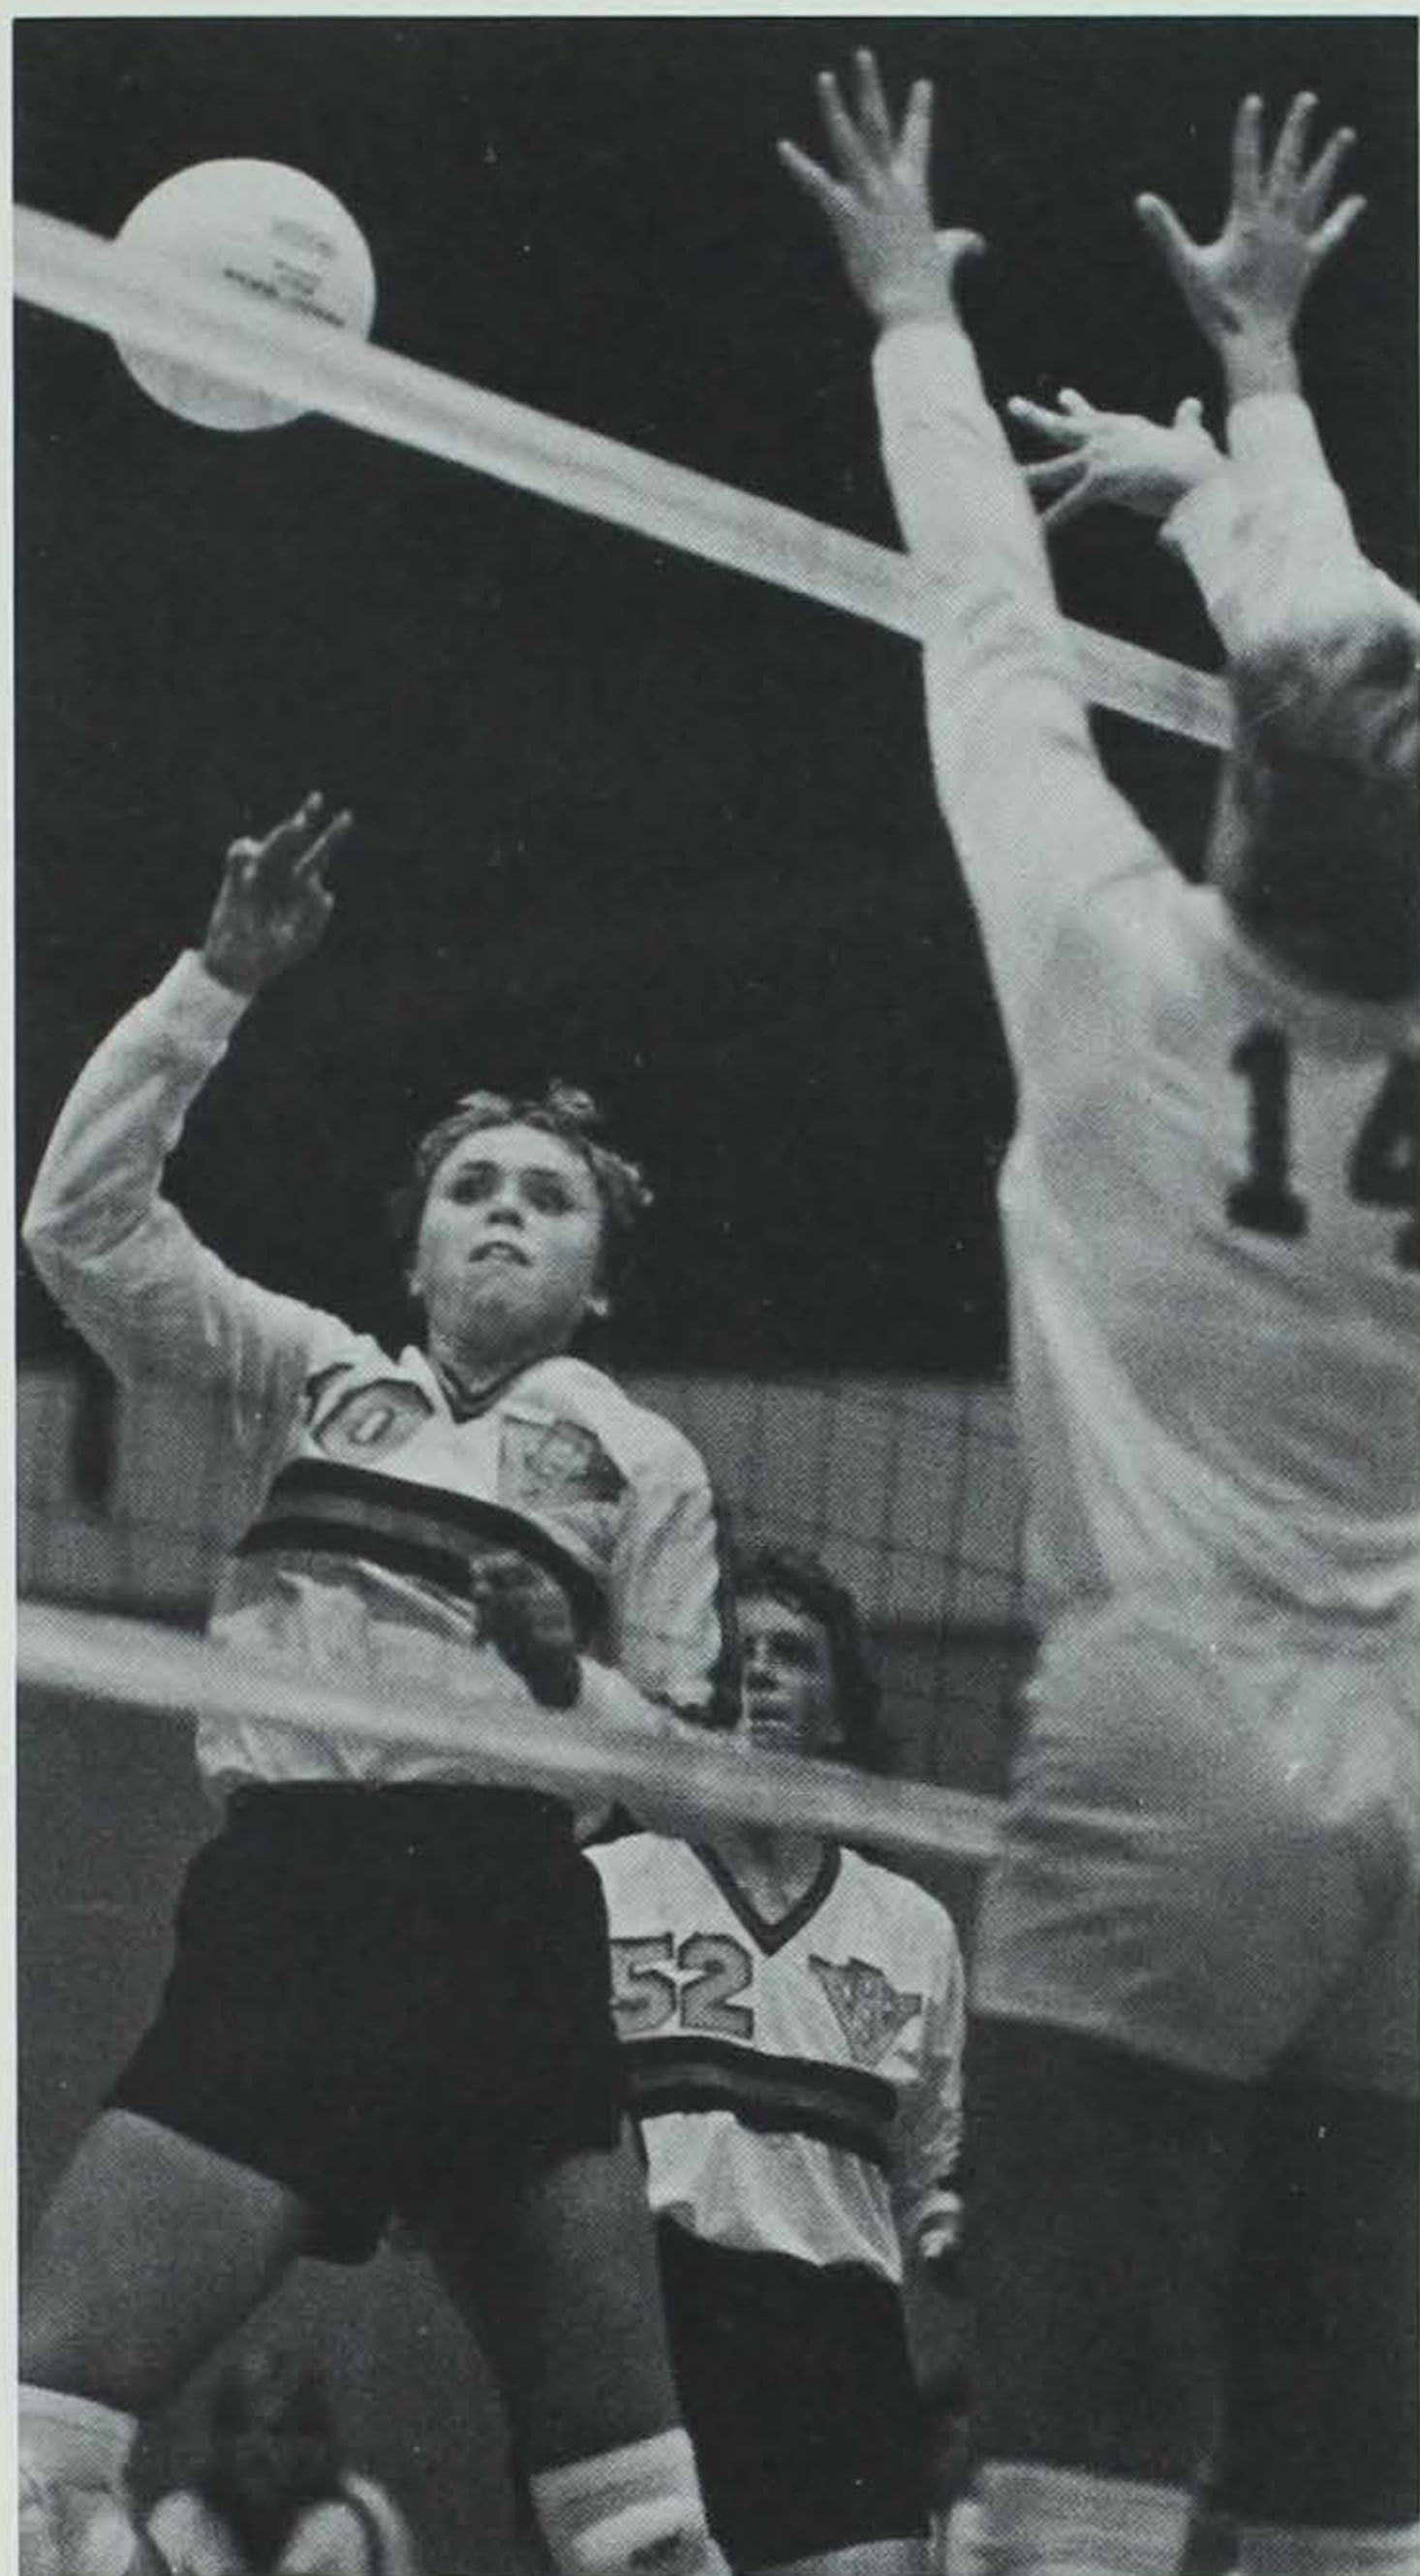

First Row: M. Lizer, S. Schirmacher, P. Schack, K. Weddle, Second Row: J. Stangle, P. Rayhons, E. Jaeger, A. Peters, D. Waddingham, B. Sanders, Third Row: S. Stille, D. Saylor, S. Fitzgerald, K. Steffen, J. Thompson, Fourth Row: Mgr. D. Ditto, K. Abbott, C. Hicks, M. Landsness, P. Wangler, S. Barr, Mgr. J. Rohwer.

Harriet Henry's volleyball squad had its best Iowa Conference season since the league opened competitive volleyball three years ago with a 7-7 league mark, good for fourth.

Though her team didn't pick up as much ink as the football team, Henry's volleyball club shook the early season blues and bounced five of their last seven Iowa Conference opponents for a 7-7 conference record. Overall, Henry's charges were 14-19 and 37-44 in all games. Melissa Landsness a second team all-conference selection in 1983 despite missing half the season, made the first squad this time as a hitter.

Landsness led the team with 191 kills and a 20.8 attack percentage. The Junior was good on 90.2 percent of her sets and 86.5 percent of her serves.

Second team all conference pick Shelly Barr had impressive credentials. The junior set 1,002 of 1,027 balls, good 97.6 percent ranked her as one of the best all-around players.

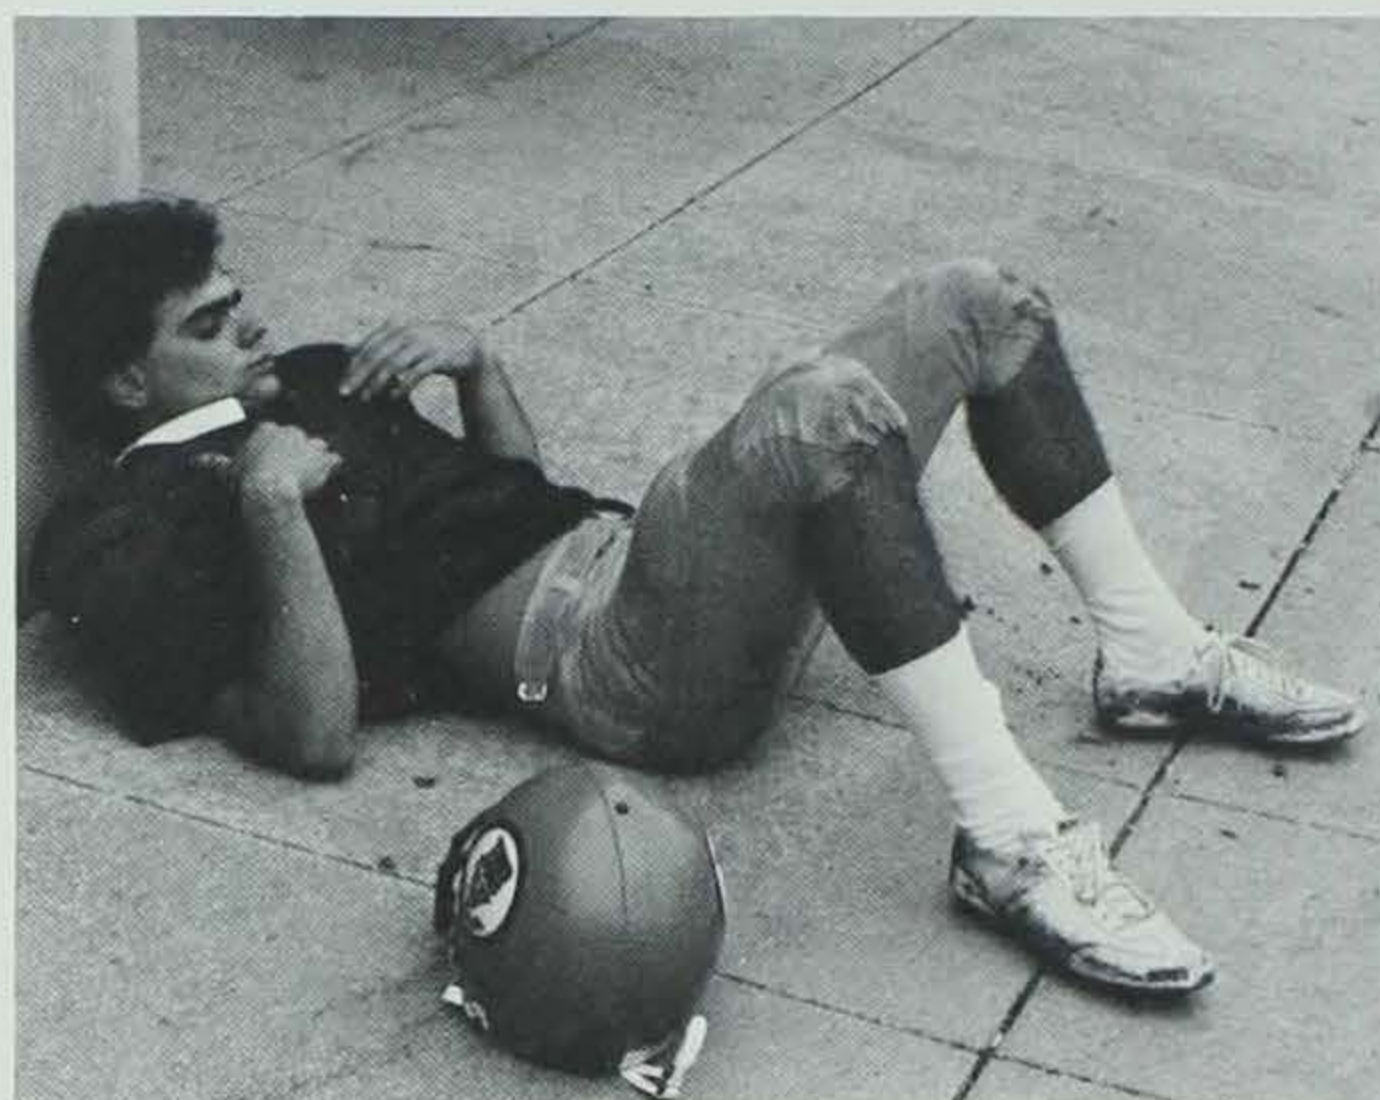

Kelly Abbott and Polly Wangler won't be found on the conference teams but should be. Abbott set 832 of 864 balls (96.3%), served 327 of 340 (96.2%), Wangler missed nine matches and 20 games but was good on 284 of 291 serves (97.6%), 116 of 119 sets (97.5%) and an 87.4 hitting percentage. Abbott was the only senior among the foursome and overall Henry has a young team that could seriously challenge for the Iowa title next year.

1984 BVC FOOTBALL

Five members were first team all-conference: defensive lineman Bob Larson, defensive end John Leinbaugh, defensive back Ewoldt, Higley, and offensive center Tim Saulsbury. Making the second team were guard Kevin Stumpf, for the second time, and wide receiver Barry Jacobson. Jacobson caught 33 passes for 540 yards and four touchdowns.

Dan Higley passed John "Pete" Peterson who held the mark with 2,463 yards from 1964-66. Higley, who has one more season remaining and 2,591 yards later proved his versatility in the game with less than three minutes left when he caught a 60-yard touchdown pass to help the Beavers win 21-15 over University of Dubuque. Higley waited until the final Iowa Conference game against William Penn the next week to become the college's first 1,000-yard rusher in a year with 1,070. He set the record in '83 with 906. He also owns the two top rushing performances in history, 240 yards against Upper Iowa in 1983 and 221 more this year, again versus the Peacocks. His 240 yards topped the 220 Jeff Trost rolled up in 1976 versus Dubuque. In his first carry next season, Higley will own the mark for career totes.

He now has 595 tying him with Peterson. Kevin Twait, a teammate of Higley's at Emmetsburg and a senior, was named to the District V All-Academic team, the school's first selection for that honor.

The Concert Band for 1985 started their long practice schedule in December for a Christmas Concert. Then in January it was along time but the members kept practicing. Spring Break finally came along and it was the famous saying from a band member, "Chicago Here We Come." The Band toured in South, Southeastern part of Iowa and eventually ending up in Illinois to catch the sights of Chicago. The band stayed there for a day and an evening. Once morning came around it was back to Storm Lake and home for Easter. The band members had a lot of fun and do hope that the band is bigger and better next year. Good job Concert band members and to Reggie Schive, Director.

The Choir started their climb up hill towards a Christmas Concert. Many of the members nervous, but very ready to sing.

The next thing on the schedule was tour. Tour came very quickly and the Choir was excited to go. The Choir began singing in Central and Northeastern Iowa. They sang in Southeastern Minnesota ending in Minneapolis. The Tour was a big success. Good Job to the members and to R.D. Pfaltzgraff.

PRESIDENTIAL STUDENTS

LEADERSHIP

The Presidential Fellows made up of a group of leaders. Leaders that originated from their High Schools. These leaders participated in this as captains of a sport team, President of the Student Senate, or even students who made Honor Society for graduation. These students were also chosen because they maintained a 3.0 and above grade average. Besides average they had to be on the top 10% of their class. Students from Buena Vista College were invited to a sleep in, at the Forum, January 11th and 25th weekends. There were workshops and just plain a lot of fun. Good Work Fellows!, Because when you succeed we succeed.

Women's Basketball

The Lady Beavers got out of the blocks fast, rolling to a 7-2 record and placing second at the Hamline University Tournament in mid-November and winning the Colorado College Tournament just before Christmas.

Buena Vista was 3-0 in league play before dropping back-to-back road games to Simpson and Central in mid-January. However, they bounced back to win seven straight league games. The streak ended when co-champion Simpson bounced them 95-84 at Siebens Center in late February.

The last weekend proved to be an exciting conclusion to the 1984-85 women's basketball race. Heading into action on Feb. 22, Buena Vista and Central were tied for the top spot with 10-2 marks, and Simpson and William Penn were a game back at 9-3. Buena Vista's loss to Simpson that night dropped them into a tie for second with Simpson and Penn, all with 10-3 records. The Beavers' opponent on Feb. 23 was league-leader Central. A Lady Red victory would clinch the championship and send them on to the regional tourney.

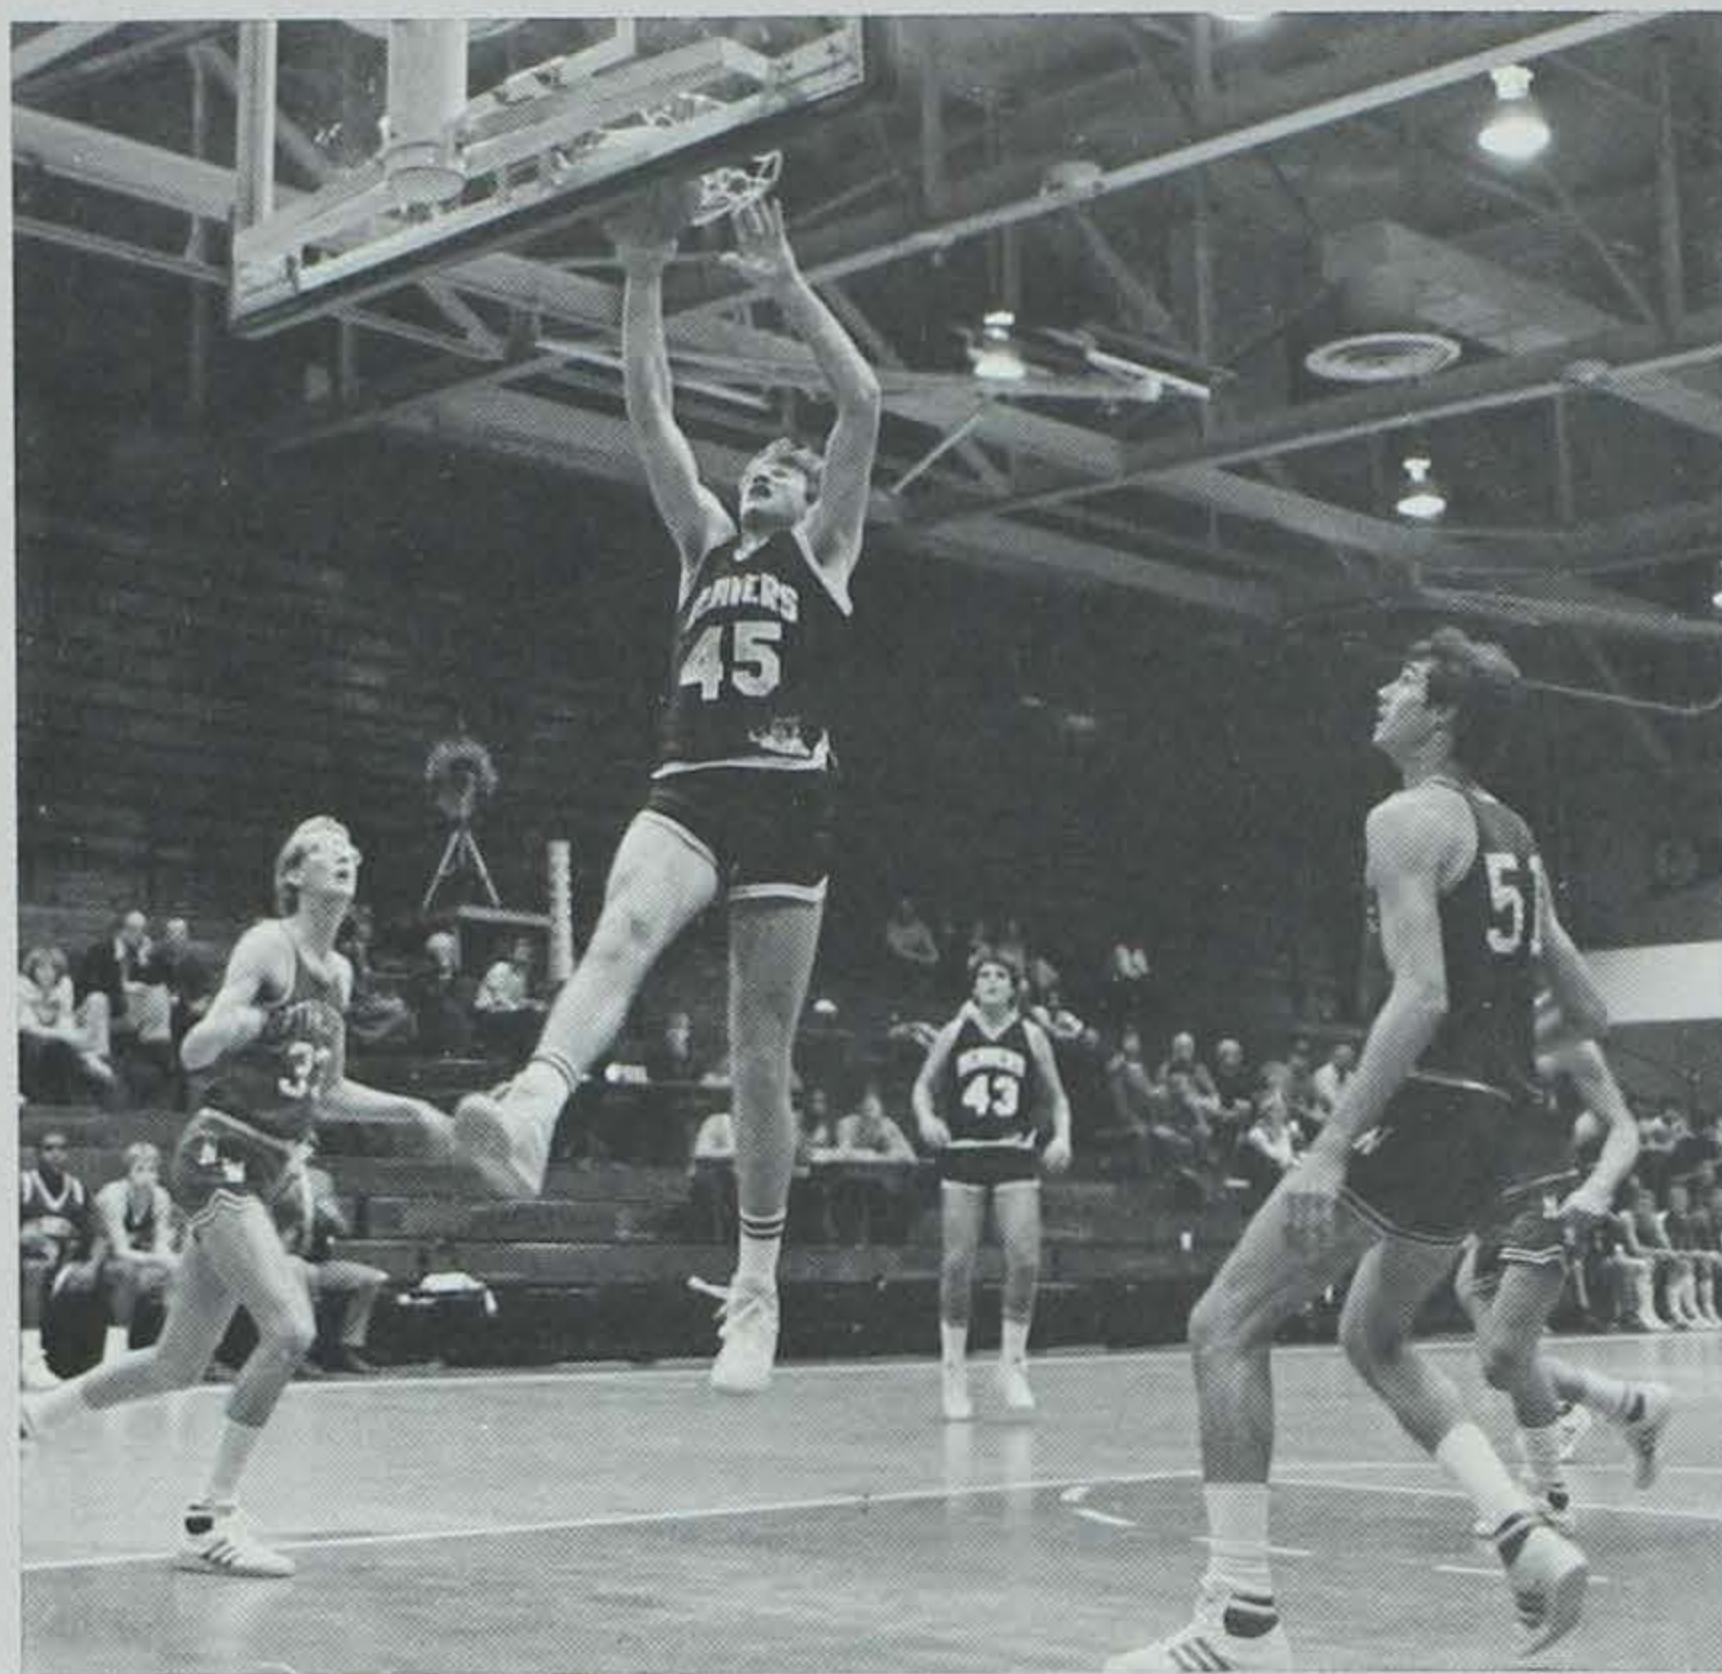

But Buena Vista rebounded from the Simpson loss and strolled to a 49-19 halftime lead enroute to an easy 80-61 win and tie for the conference crown. However, under a complicated point system, Simpson was selected as the conference's representative to the NCAA Division III Regional Playoffs. Two other co-champs, Buena Vista and Penn, received at-large berths to the four-team field, while Central, the season-long leader, was left on the sidelines.

Milliken College of Decatur, Ill., the host school, rounded out the field. Buena Vista met William Penn, a team it had defeated twice before, in the first round. But the Lady Beavers fell 75-53, dropping into the consolation game, where Simpson got the best of them for the third time, 80-71.

Buena Vista was one of the top scoring units in Division III and completed the season with a 75.8 average (75.2 in league games) and an impressive 20-8 win-loss record.

Demers (So., Albert City) led Division III scoring all year and finished with a 30.1 average. She led the IIAC with a blistering 30-6 average, more than 10 points higher than any other Iowa Conference scorer. She also ranked first in the conference in field goal percentage (52.3) and fourth in free throw percentage (72.6). She was a repeat selection to the All-Conference first team and was named the league's "Most Valuable Player."

Teammate Tara Bertram (Sr., Storm Lake) finished the season with the second highest free throw average in the league, 76.1 percent, and was fourth in rebounding with a 9.7 per game. Bertram was a repeat All-Conference second-team selection, and Buena Vista's John Naughton was named "Coach of the Year."

Men's Basketball

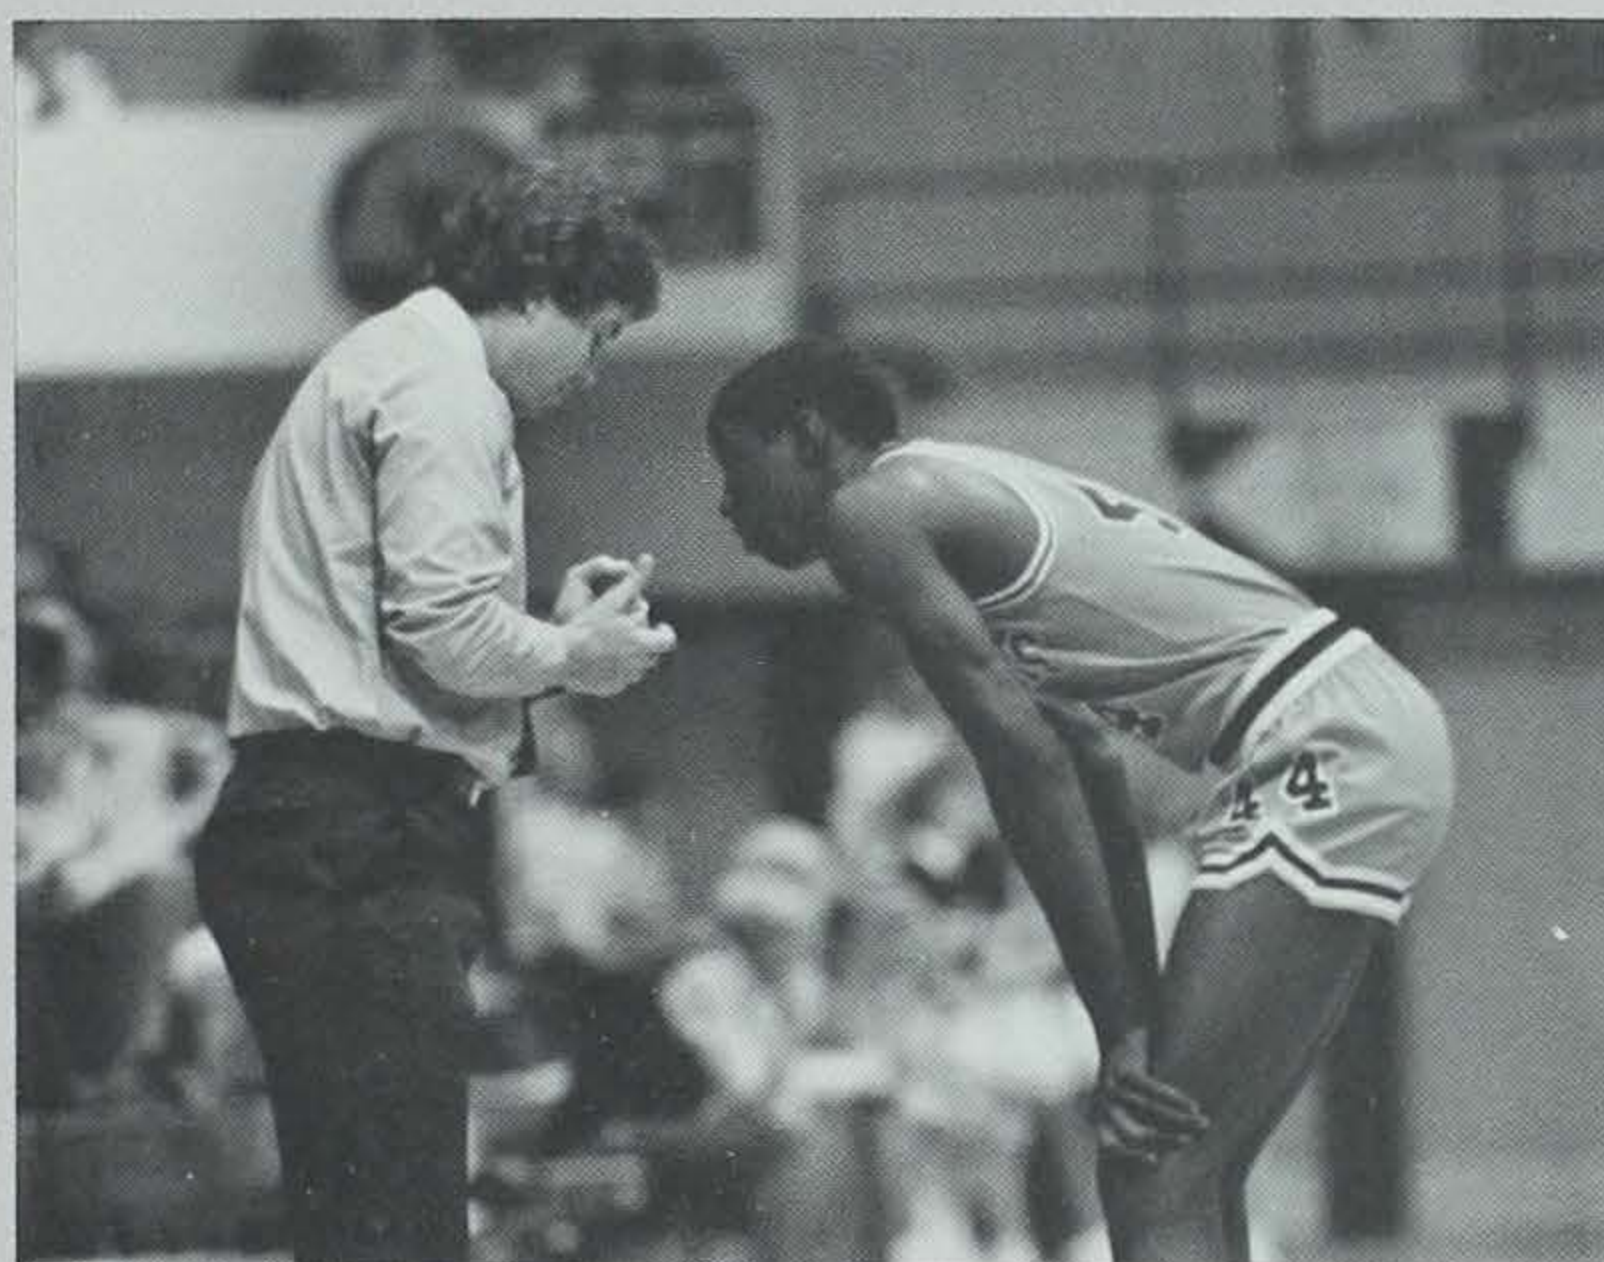

The Buena Vista men's team, led by the 6'6" Grintjes and second-year coach Jeff Spielman, rolled to a 7-7 league mark, good for a third-place tie. It was the best finish since the 1975-76 team won the IIAC title with a 12-2 mark.

Grintjes paced the team with a 19.1 scoring average and was one of the top rebounders in the country with a 10.5 per game average. In league action, he was the top scorer with 19 points per game; he pulled down an average of 8.4 rebounds, third highest in the league; and he was fourth in field goal shooting, connecting on 57.1 percent of his shots.

MEN'S BASKETBALL '85

Coached by J. Spielman

The Beavers got off to a relatively slow start, dropping three of their first 10 games. With some personnel changes and two transfer students from Yankton College, the Beavers took on a new look after the Christmas break and racked up a 4-3 conference mark.

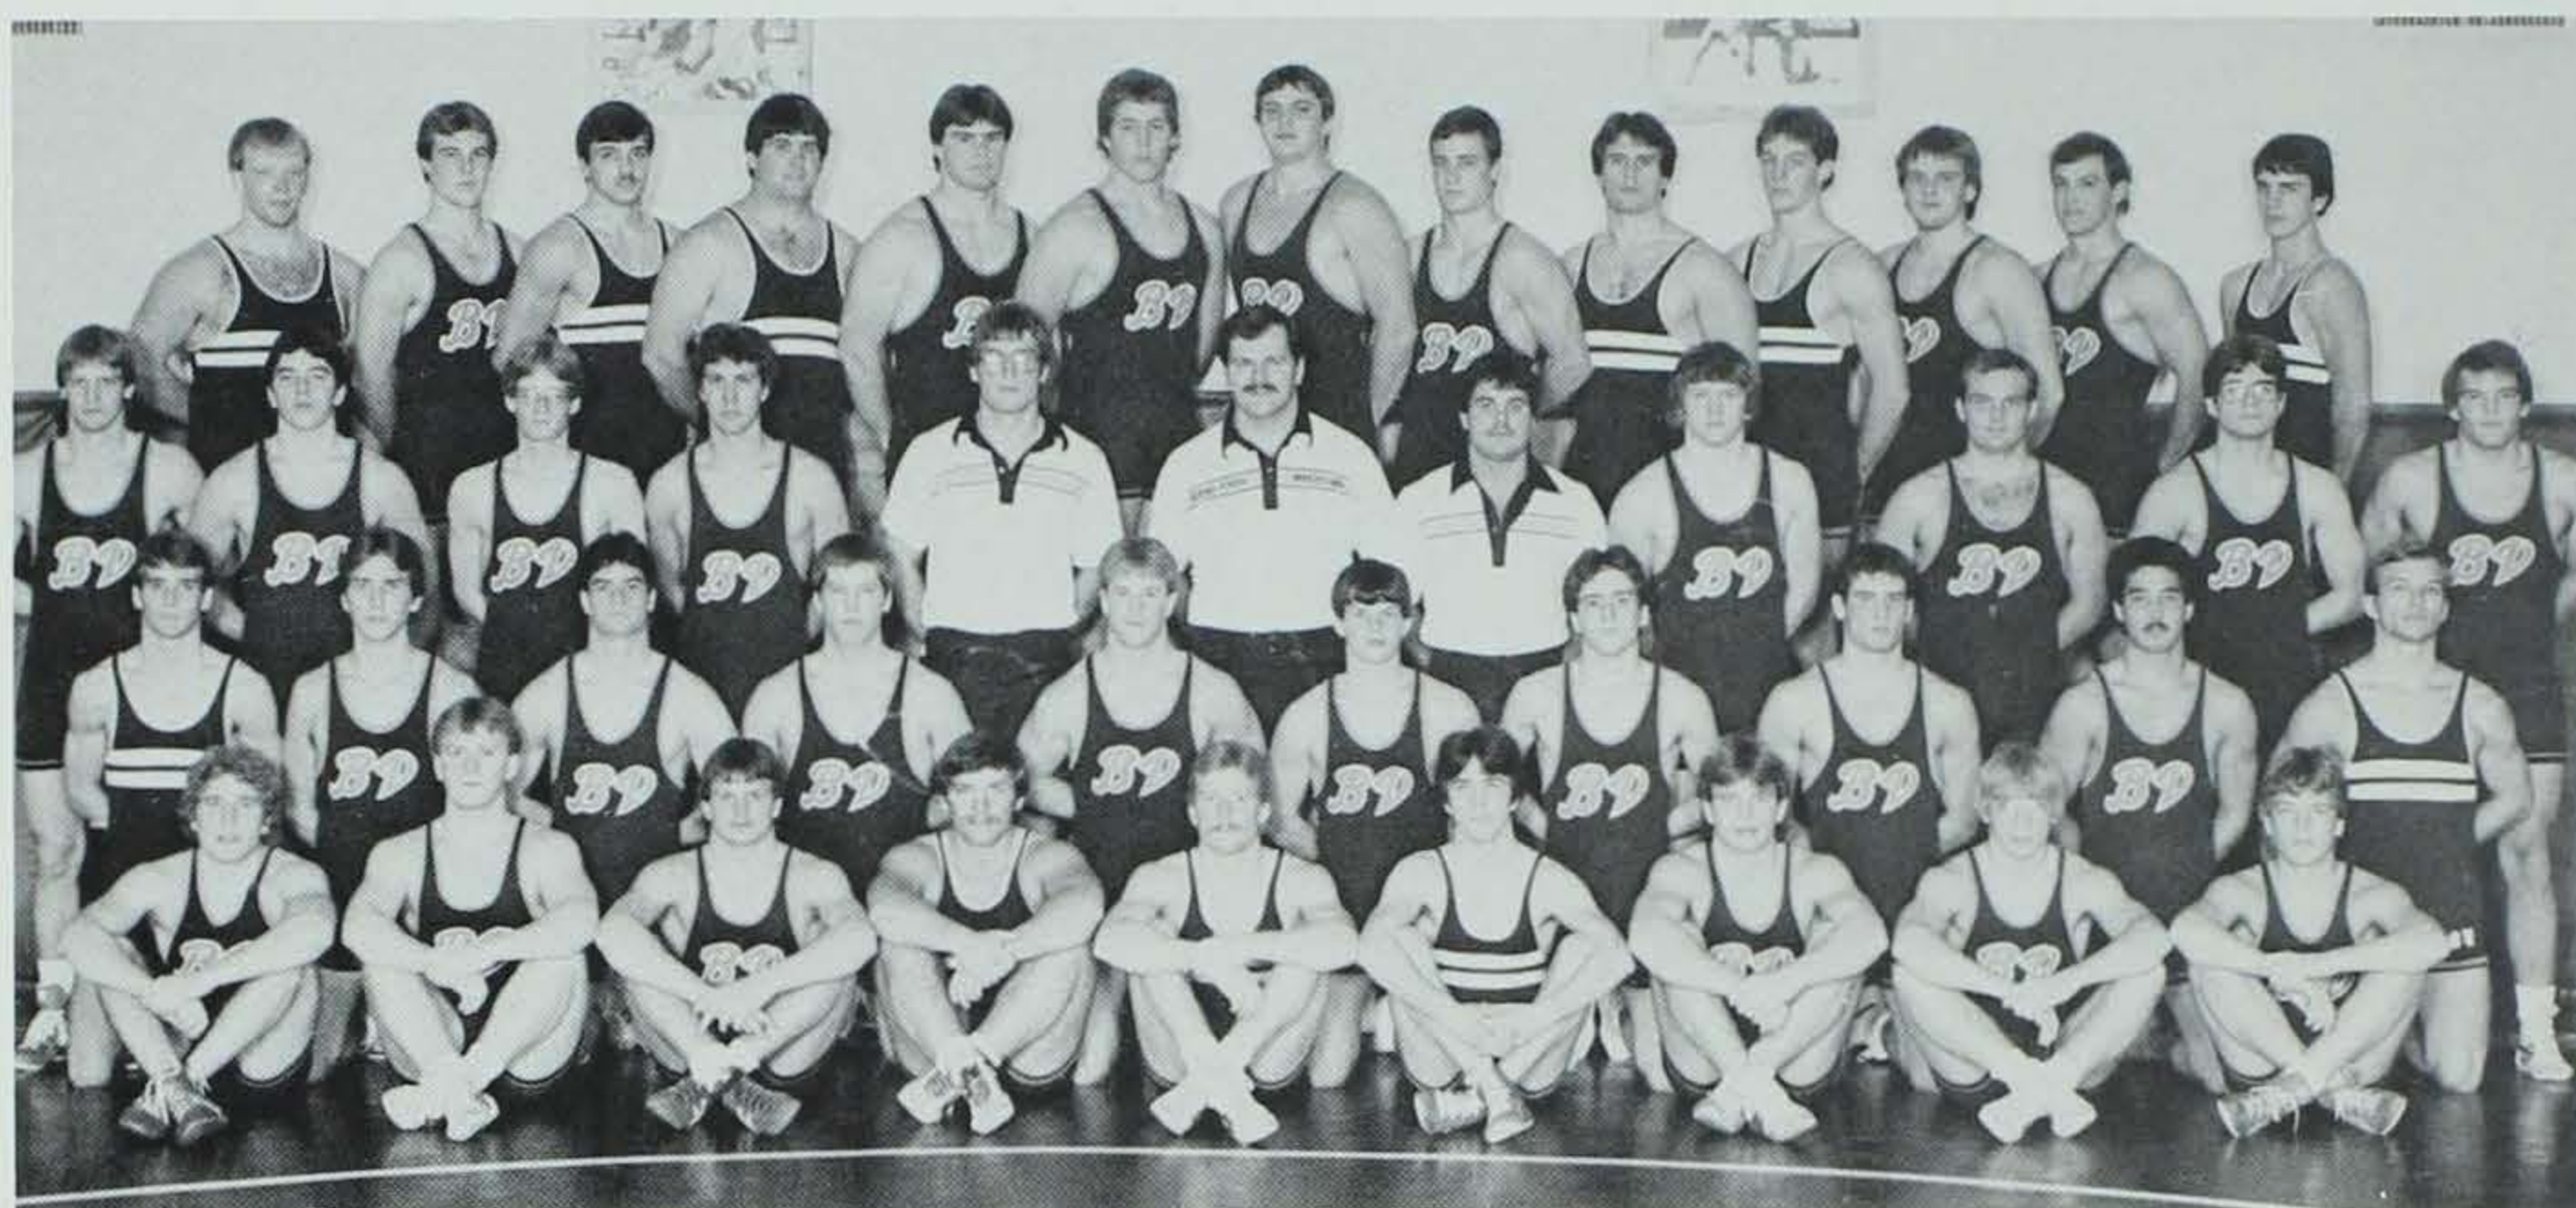

Heading into the last weekend of action, the Beavers were 5-7 in the IIAC with home games against Simpson and league-leading Central (who had already clinched the title). Buena Vista swept both games to raise its conference record to 7-7 and finish in a tie for third, behind Central and runner-up Dubuque.

Highlighting the season were a pair of back-to-back victories on the road against two teams in the upper division. The Beavers demonstrated some clutch play with both games going down to the wire. They stopped Dubuque on Jan. 25 by one, 48-47, and came back the following evening to sink Luther, 64-62.

The Beaver brand of electrifying fast-break basketball had the fans on their feet all season. Many games were decided on the last bucket and as the season progressed, it was Buena Vista that usually found itself on the winning side.

Overall, Buena Vista finished with a 10-16 mark, winning more games in 1984-85 than in the past three years combined. Spielman took over a squad that had finished a dismal 1-23 and was locked into the cellar of the Iowa Conference in 1983. Last year he led them to an improved 4-22 record and seventh place in the IIAC at 4-10. With three starters and several top reserves coming back next year, the Beavers look to continue their upper-division status and mount a serious challenge for the conference crown.

BAXTER'S BEAVERS

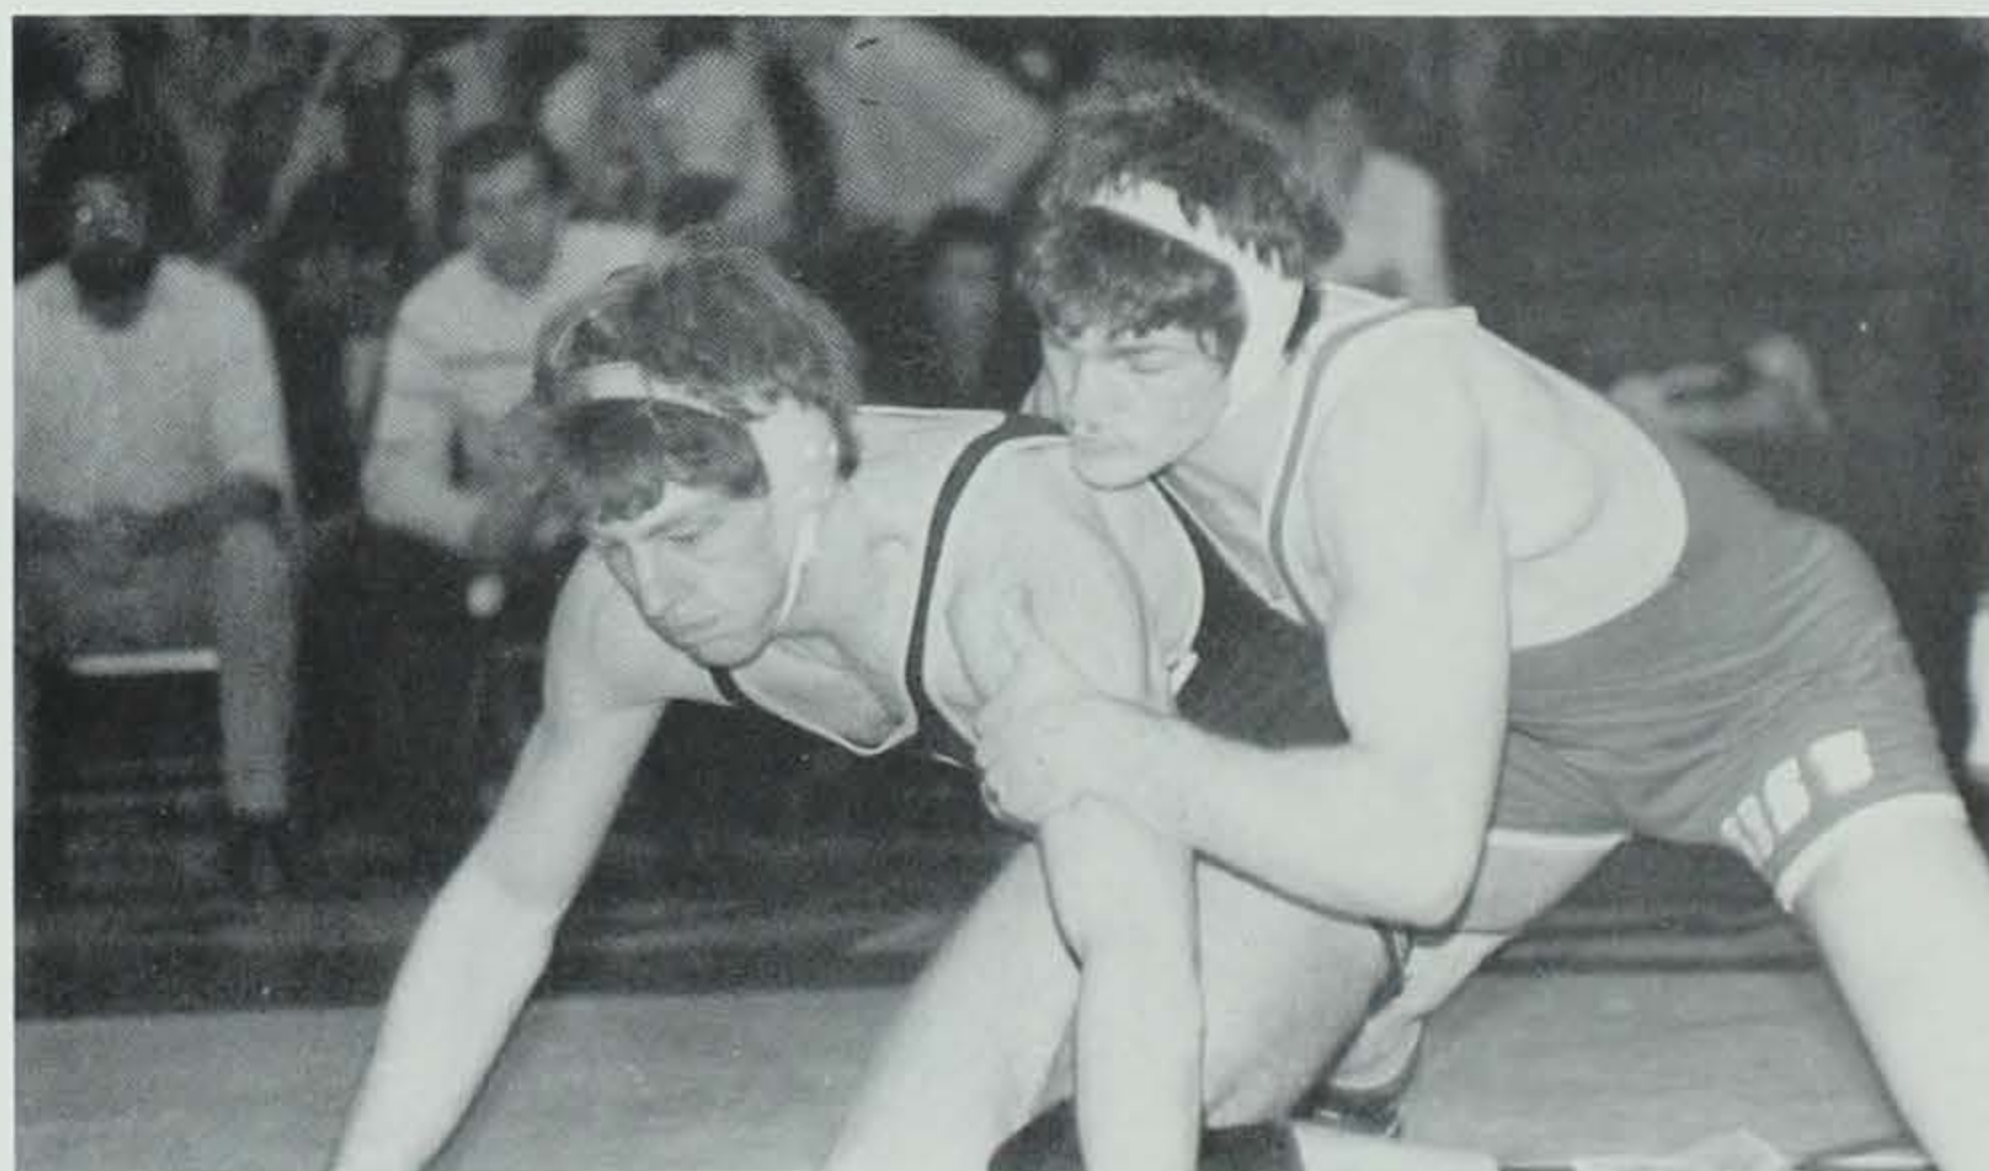

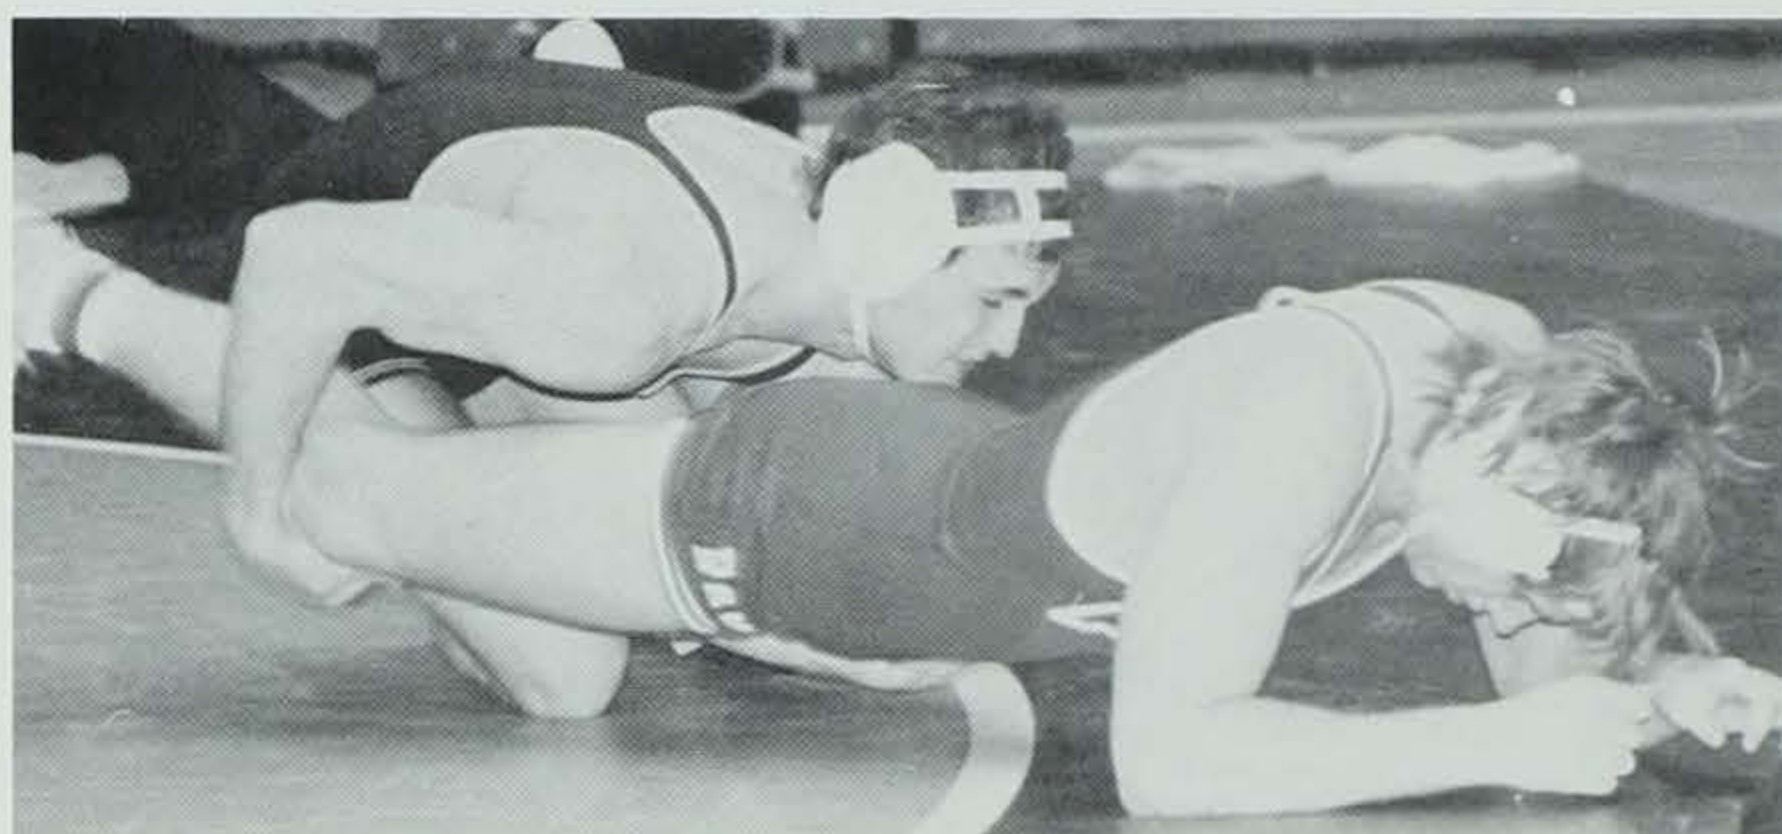

Wrestling

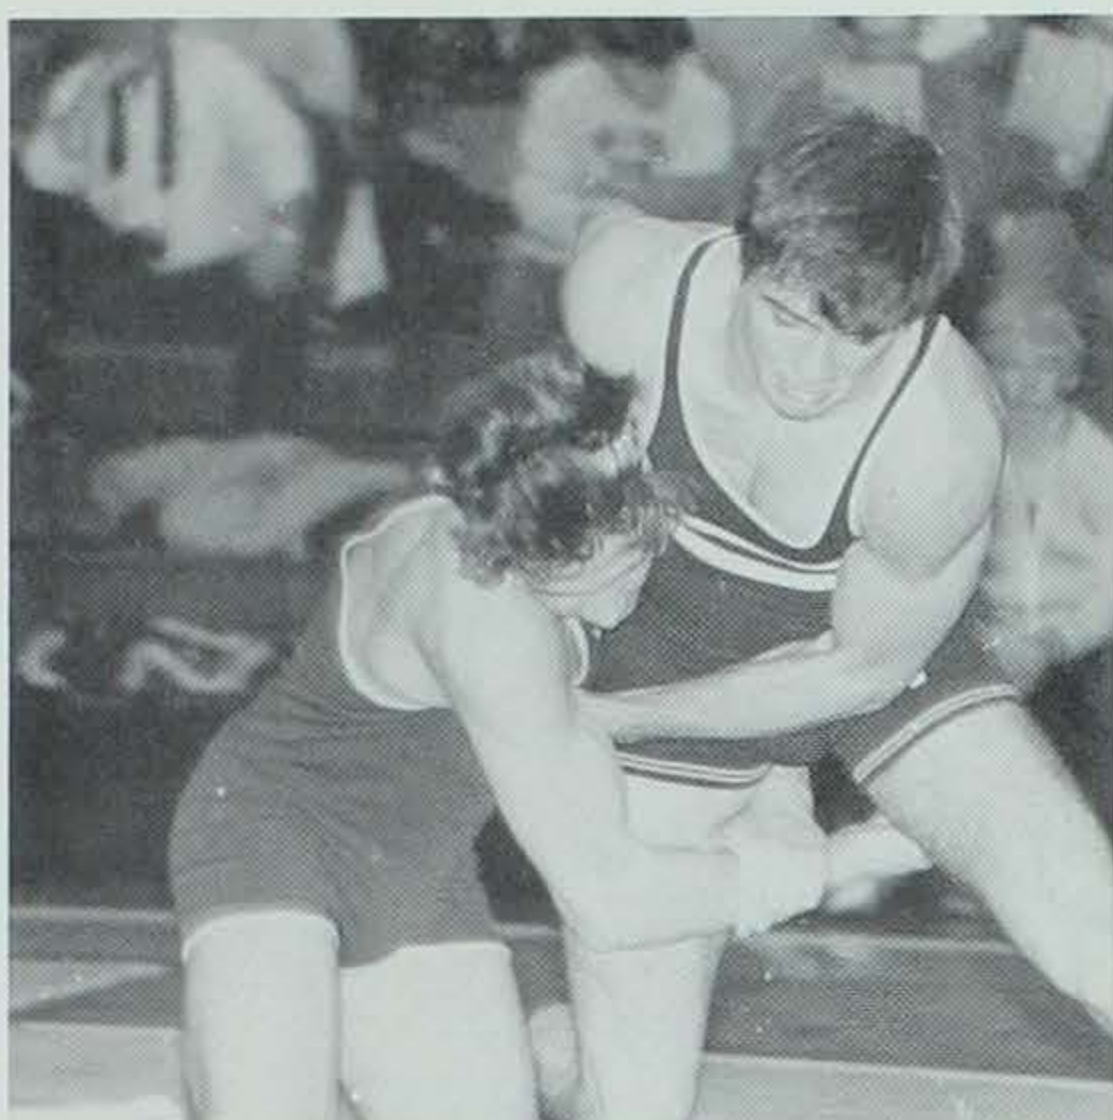

Ranked in the Top 20 in Division III for most of the season, the Buena Vista wrestlers came on strong at the end of the year to take second place in the conference tournament and finish eighth in the national tournament at Augustana College in Rock Island, Ill. Four Buena Vista grapplers gained all-American status by placing in the top eight of their respective weight classes.

Once again coach Al Baxter lined up a formidable list of wrestling opponents, including such Division I and II powers as Drake, Southwest State, Northern Michigan, and Southern Colorado. The Beavers held their own and by mid-season compiled a 5-4 dual meet record and won championships in the Wartburg, Upper Iowa, and Buena Vista invitational meets.

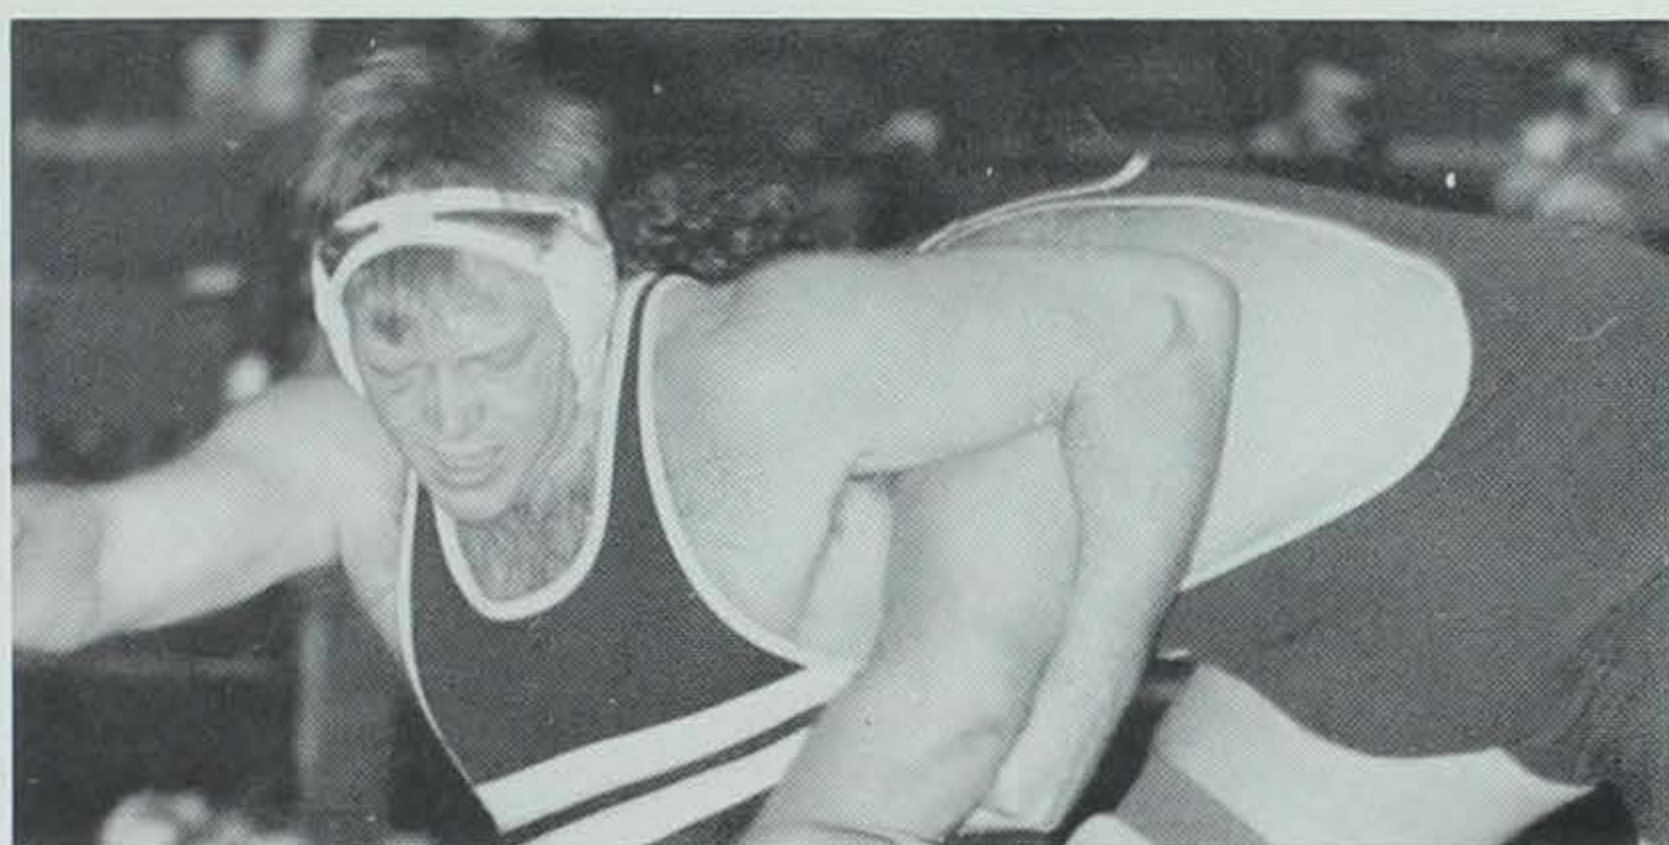

The lone conference dual-meet loss came at the hands of Central on Jan. 15. By the time the Iowa Conference meet rolled around, the Beavers were ranked 14th in the nation with a dual meet mark of 12-5.

Buena Vista put up a tough battle for the crown on Feb. 20 against favored Central. Buoyed by the home crowd at Siebens Center, the Beavers stayed even with the Flying Dutchmen throughout the first eight weight divisions. The championship came down to the last two matches, with Central and Buena Vista grapplers going head-to-head in the finals.

But Beaver Doyle Naig (Jr., Emmetsburg) was edged by Dale Lawrence, 3-1, in overtime, and top-seeded heavyweight Tom Brown (Sr., Graettinger) was upset by Central's Scott Storhohann, 11-3, giving Central the team title with 96 points. Buena Vista followed with 85.5. Paul VanOosbree (Jr., Emmetsburg) won his second straight title at 142, and Mike Schimp (Jr., Belmond) reigned at 150. Dan Dresser (Jr., Humboldt) took second at 158, losing a tough 4-2 match to two-time champion Scott Bouslog of Luther, the top seed in the national meet.

The champions in each of the 10 weight classifications were automatic qualifiers to the nationals, along with five runners-up. Dresser and Naig were selected along with the two champions.

All four Beaver wrestlers fared well at the national meet the first two days in March. Van Oosbree paced the Buena Vista contingent with a fourth-place finish at 142, concluding a 39-9 season. Schimp (28-7-1) and Dresser (29-9-2) both placed fifth in their respective weight classes, and Naig (24-8) was sixth at 190.

This could prove to be a banner year for Buena Vista. Combined with the football team's second-place finish in the IIAC and the volleyball squad's fourth-place tie, Buena Vista has now finished in the upper division in all five major sports offered by the conference in fall and winter. The baseball squad was second in the league last year and looks to challenge for the title again this spring. Buena Vista's softball team — which racked up conference, regional, and national championships last year — returns all but two starters. And the men's tennis and golf teams are looking toward successful seasons this spring, too.

BEAVERS FINISH WITH WIN OVER SIMPSON; THREE NAMED ALL-CONFERENCE

Buena Vista wrapped up its 1985 baseball season with a victory and post-season honors for three team members.

The Beavers thumped Simpson, 11-5, in the first game of a doubleheader on May 11. Rain and hail stopped the game in the seventh inning and forced cancellation of the second game.

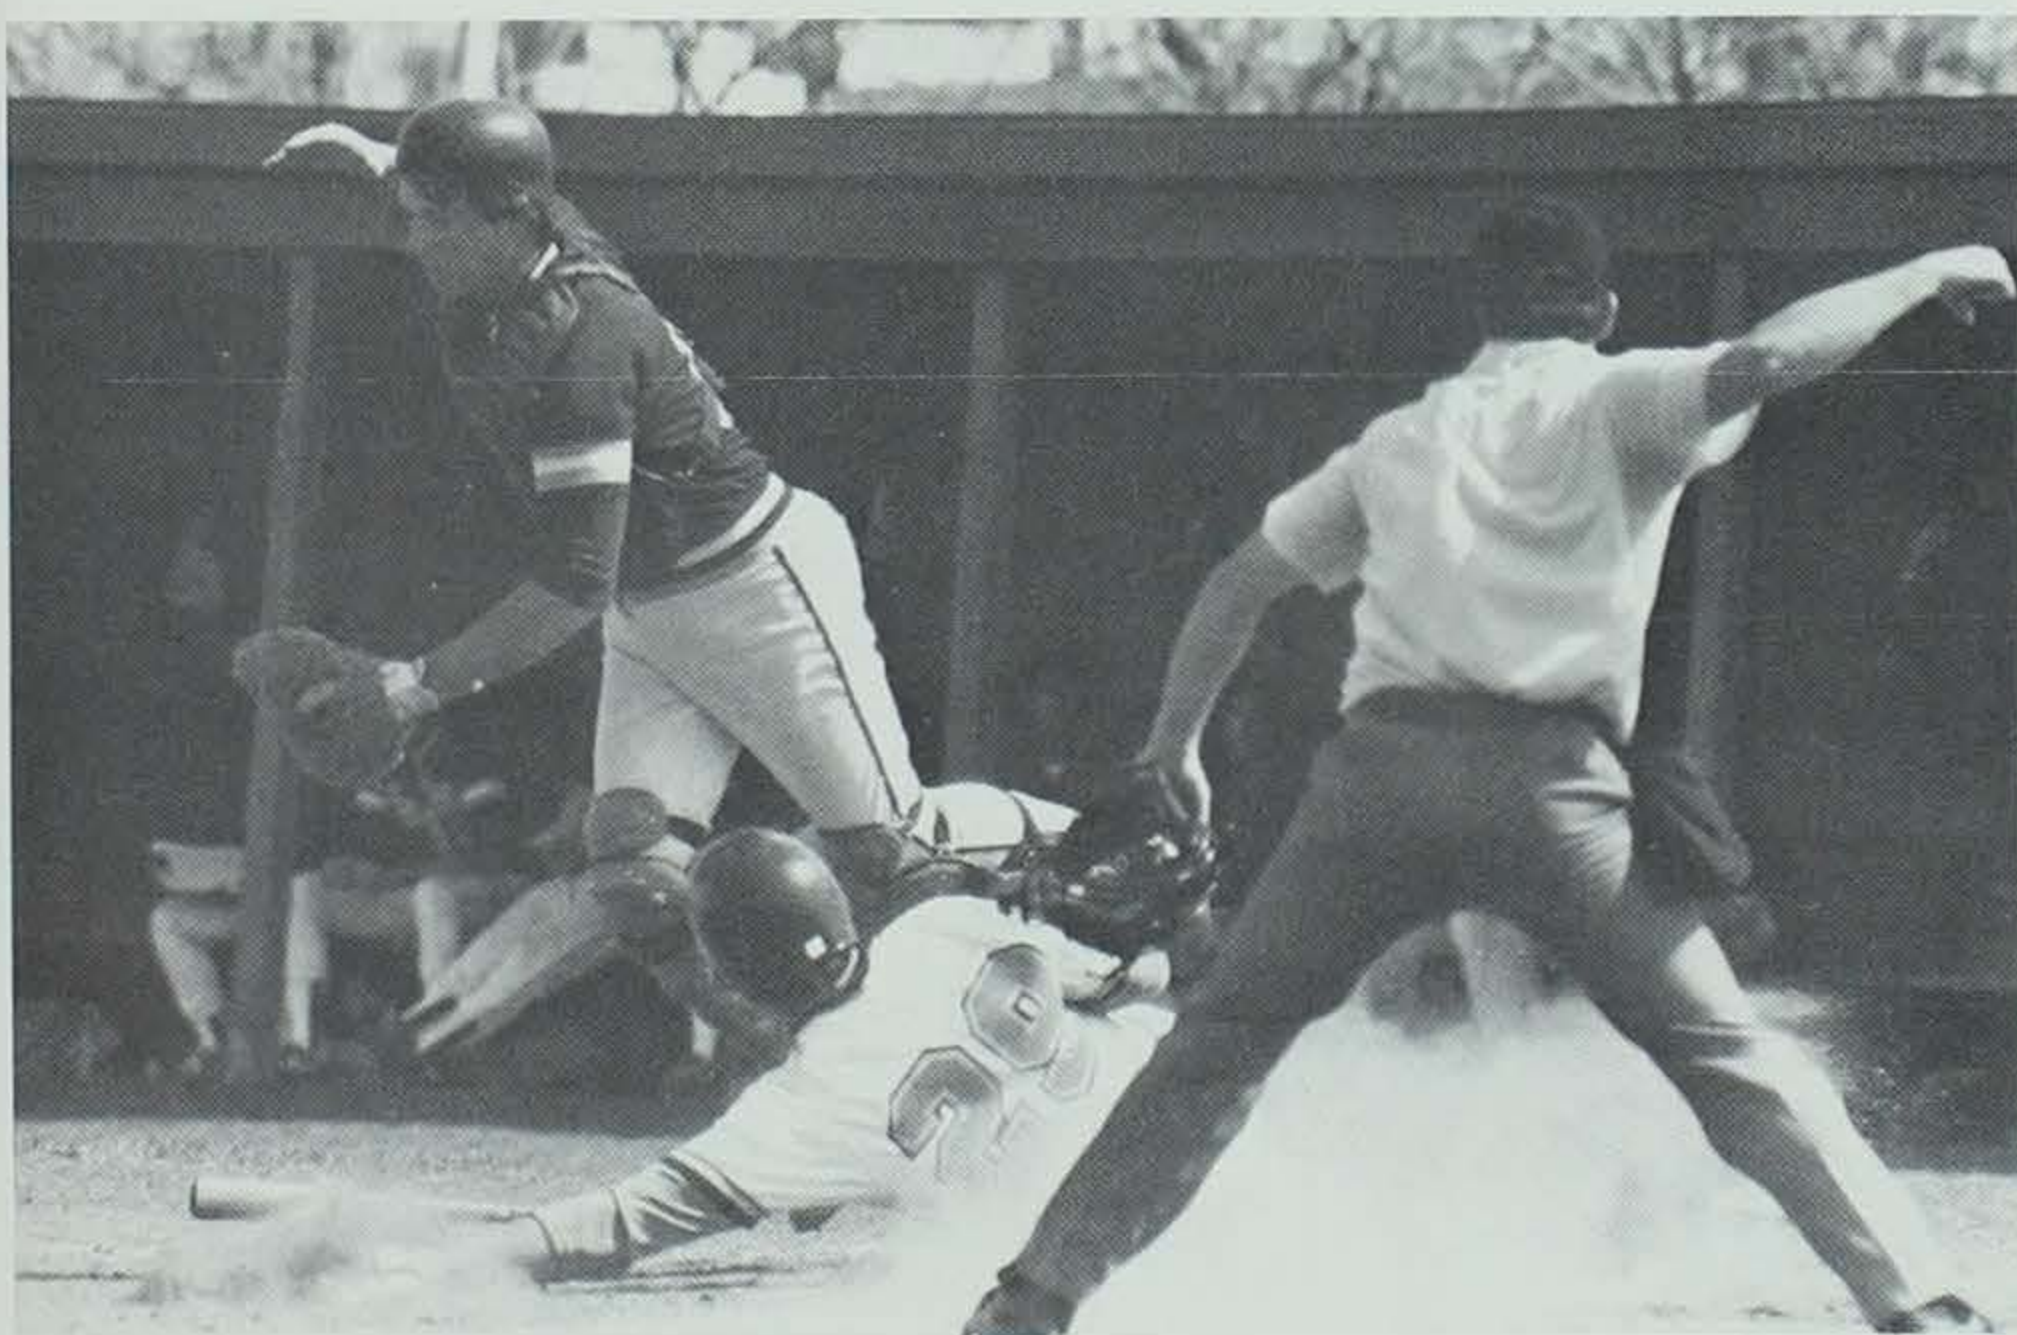

Buena Vista ended the season at 13-17, taking sixth place in the Iowa Conference at 10-14. Luther, eliminated by Wisconsin-Oshkosh in NCAA Division III Regional action last Friday, repeated as the IIAC champion with a 22-3 record, followed by Central at 20-4.

Pat Wright (Jr., Storm Lake) picked up the win by scattering eight hits, walking four and striking out three. Power at the plate came from Jeff Pierick (Sr., Manson) who went 3-3 and drilled two home runs and drove in four runs. Hitting again proved to be the Beavers' strong suit, with six players accounting for 11 hits. BV Coach Jay Beekmann said with improved pitching and fielding, the 1985 Beavers would have been more of a threat. "Pitching and defense hurt us during the season, but we hit .309 in the conference, and I'd settle for that any year. We lost some close games that we had an opportunity to win, and the good teams win those.

"Overall, the kids gave a good effort," said Beekmann. "We have a good nucleus coming back and we should be respectable next year. Our main losses will be catching, and we need to fill that area and get some pitching help. Pitching will be the main bulk of our recruiting."

Three Beavers were named to the All-Conference teams. Doug Westemier (Jr., Walker), who batted .421 in conference play, was named first-team first baseman; Mike Anderson (Jr., Davenport), a .355 hitter, was named second-team second baseman; and Todd Candor (Soph., Schaller) was a second-team pick as an outfielder. He compiled a league batting average of .356.

In Memory of Nita Skou

These are from the Nita Skou Memoriam

A campus memorial service was held Thursday morning, May 2, for Juanita "Nita" Skou, a 20-year-old Buena Vista sophomore who died early Friday, April 26, of injuries sustained in a one-car accident that occurred just north of her hometown of Schaller.

Dr. Robert Tollefson, professor of religion and philosophy at Buena Vista, officiated at the service. Dr. Frances M. Heusinkveld, professor of music, was organist.

Skou had enrolled at Buena Vista at the beginning of the spring term, transferring from Morningside. She had attended Indiana University her freshman year.

this season, Skou had an IIAC conference batting average of .400 and an overall batting average of .259. She was 3-1 as a pitcher and had a 2.5 ERA. She was named Honorary Player of the Week by the conference the week of April 29.

"Nita was an excellent athlete who loved sports," said softball coach Marge Willadsen. "She brought a smile to all of us, and we miss her tremendously."

The softball team contributed memories of Nita that Coach Willadsen read to the congregation at the memorial service.

Wrote one team member, "Nita had all the ingredients that you could ask for in a friend. We would all like to have a part of her in us."

Another wrote, "I grieve for the times we never had, for the thoughts we never shared. Without new memories, the old ones will soon fade, but they will never be replaced."

"Even though Nita has only been with us a few short months, she was just as much a part of our family as someone who has been with us in the previous years," wrote another player.

Skou, is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Skou of Schaller, and a brother, Dennis Skou of Buffalo Lake, Minn.

SEVEN BVC SOFTBALL PLAYERS NAMED ALL-IIAC

Buena Vista's Libby Kestel and Luther's Darci Doyle have been named co-Most Valuable Players by the Iowa Conference league softball coaches.

A senior catcher from Storm Lake, Kestel was named first team All-conference for the third straight year. She had a .409 batting average and a perfect 1.000 fielding average in helping her team to second place in the IIAC with a 10-2 mark.

Teammate Susan Mingus (Sr., Waverly) was also a third-year repeat selection to the first team at shortstop. She had a league batting average of .390 and fielding average of .931.

Two Lady Beavers were named all-conference for the second year in a row. Jeannie Demers (Soph., Albert City) was named first team third baseman, and pitcher Sam Meier (Jr., Bouton) was picked as a utility player.

Demers batted .281 and also had a perfect fielding average. Meier led the BV pitching corps with an unblemished 6-0 mark and a .55 ERA. In seven games, she pitched 38 innings and faced 143 batters. She gave up only 21 hits, struck out 16 and walked just two.

Outfielder Julie Quirin (Soph., Storm Lake) rounds out Buena Vista's six first team selections. She led the Beavers with a .421 average at the plate. Her fielding average for the conference season was .923.

Named to the second all-conference was Sherri Schirmacher (Fr., Ida Grove). Schirmacher hit .379 and was .980 on the field.

Kestel led the team in singles with 18, followed by Mingus and Quirin with 16 each. Mingus led the team in doubles with five and Kestel, Schirmacher and Cheryl Book (Jr., Minburn) each rapped a triple.

The Beavers completed the season with a 30-19 record.

SOFTBALL ACTION!

BVC DETHRONED AS IIAC SOFTBALL TOURNEY CHAMPIONS The Lady Beavers of Buena Vista College wrapped up their 1985 softball season with a fourth place finish at the Iowa Conference Tourney at Waverly May 4.

The Beavers opened with a 6-0 whitewash of Upper Iowa but then fell to Luther, 7-3, and William Penn, 2-0. Luther, the regular-season league champion, qualified for the NCAA Division III Regional Tournament. The Lady Norse took championship honors at the regional and advanced to the national tournament in Willimantic, Conn.

Buena Vista, the defending conference, conference tournament, regional and national champions, finished the season with a 30-19 record and 10-2 mark in the IIAC to take runner-up honors behind Luther.

In the opener against Upper Iowa, Sam Meier (Jr., Bouton) faced 23 Peacock batters and scattered three hits along with 10 strikeouts and no walks. She was backed by a 12-hit attack, led by ZoeAnn Jeppeson's 3-for-4 effort and three RBIs.

Julie Quirin (Soph., Storm Lake) added a single and a triple for one RBI, and shortstop Susan Mingus (Sr., Waverly) and first baseman Sharri Schirmacher (Fr., Ida Grove) each added two singles.

Kerry Weddle (Soph., Scranton) took the loss against Luther. She gave up six runs on six hits, walked two and struck out three. She was relieved by Meier in the fourth inning. Meier gave up six runs on six hits, walked one and registered one strikeout. Mingus had two hits in four trips to the plate, a triple and a single.

William Penn shut down the Beavers with a one-hitter from first-team All-Conference pitcher Patty Spielbauer. Jeannie Demers (Soph., Storm Lake) registered BV's only hit, a harmless single in the second inning.

Meier threw a good game, giving up only three hits, but two of them were solo home runs in the first two innings. She walked two and struck out three in her final outing of the season. Central won the league tournament with a 4-2 victory over William Penn in the championship game.

Created by the Guys of MacKay House.

CASINO NIGHT!

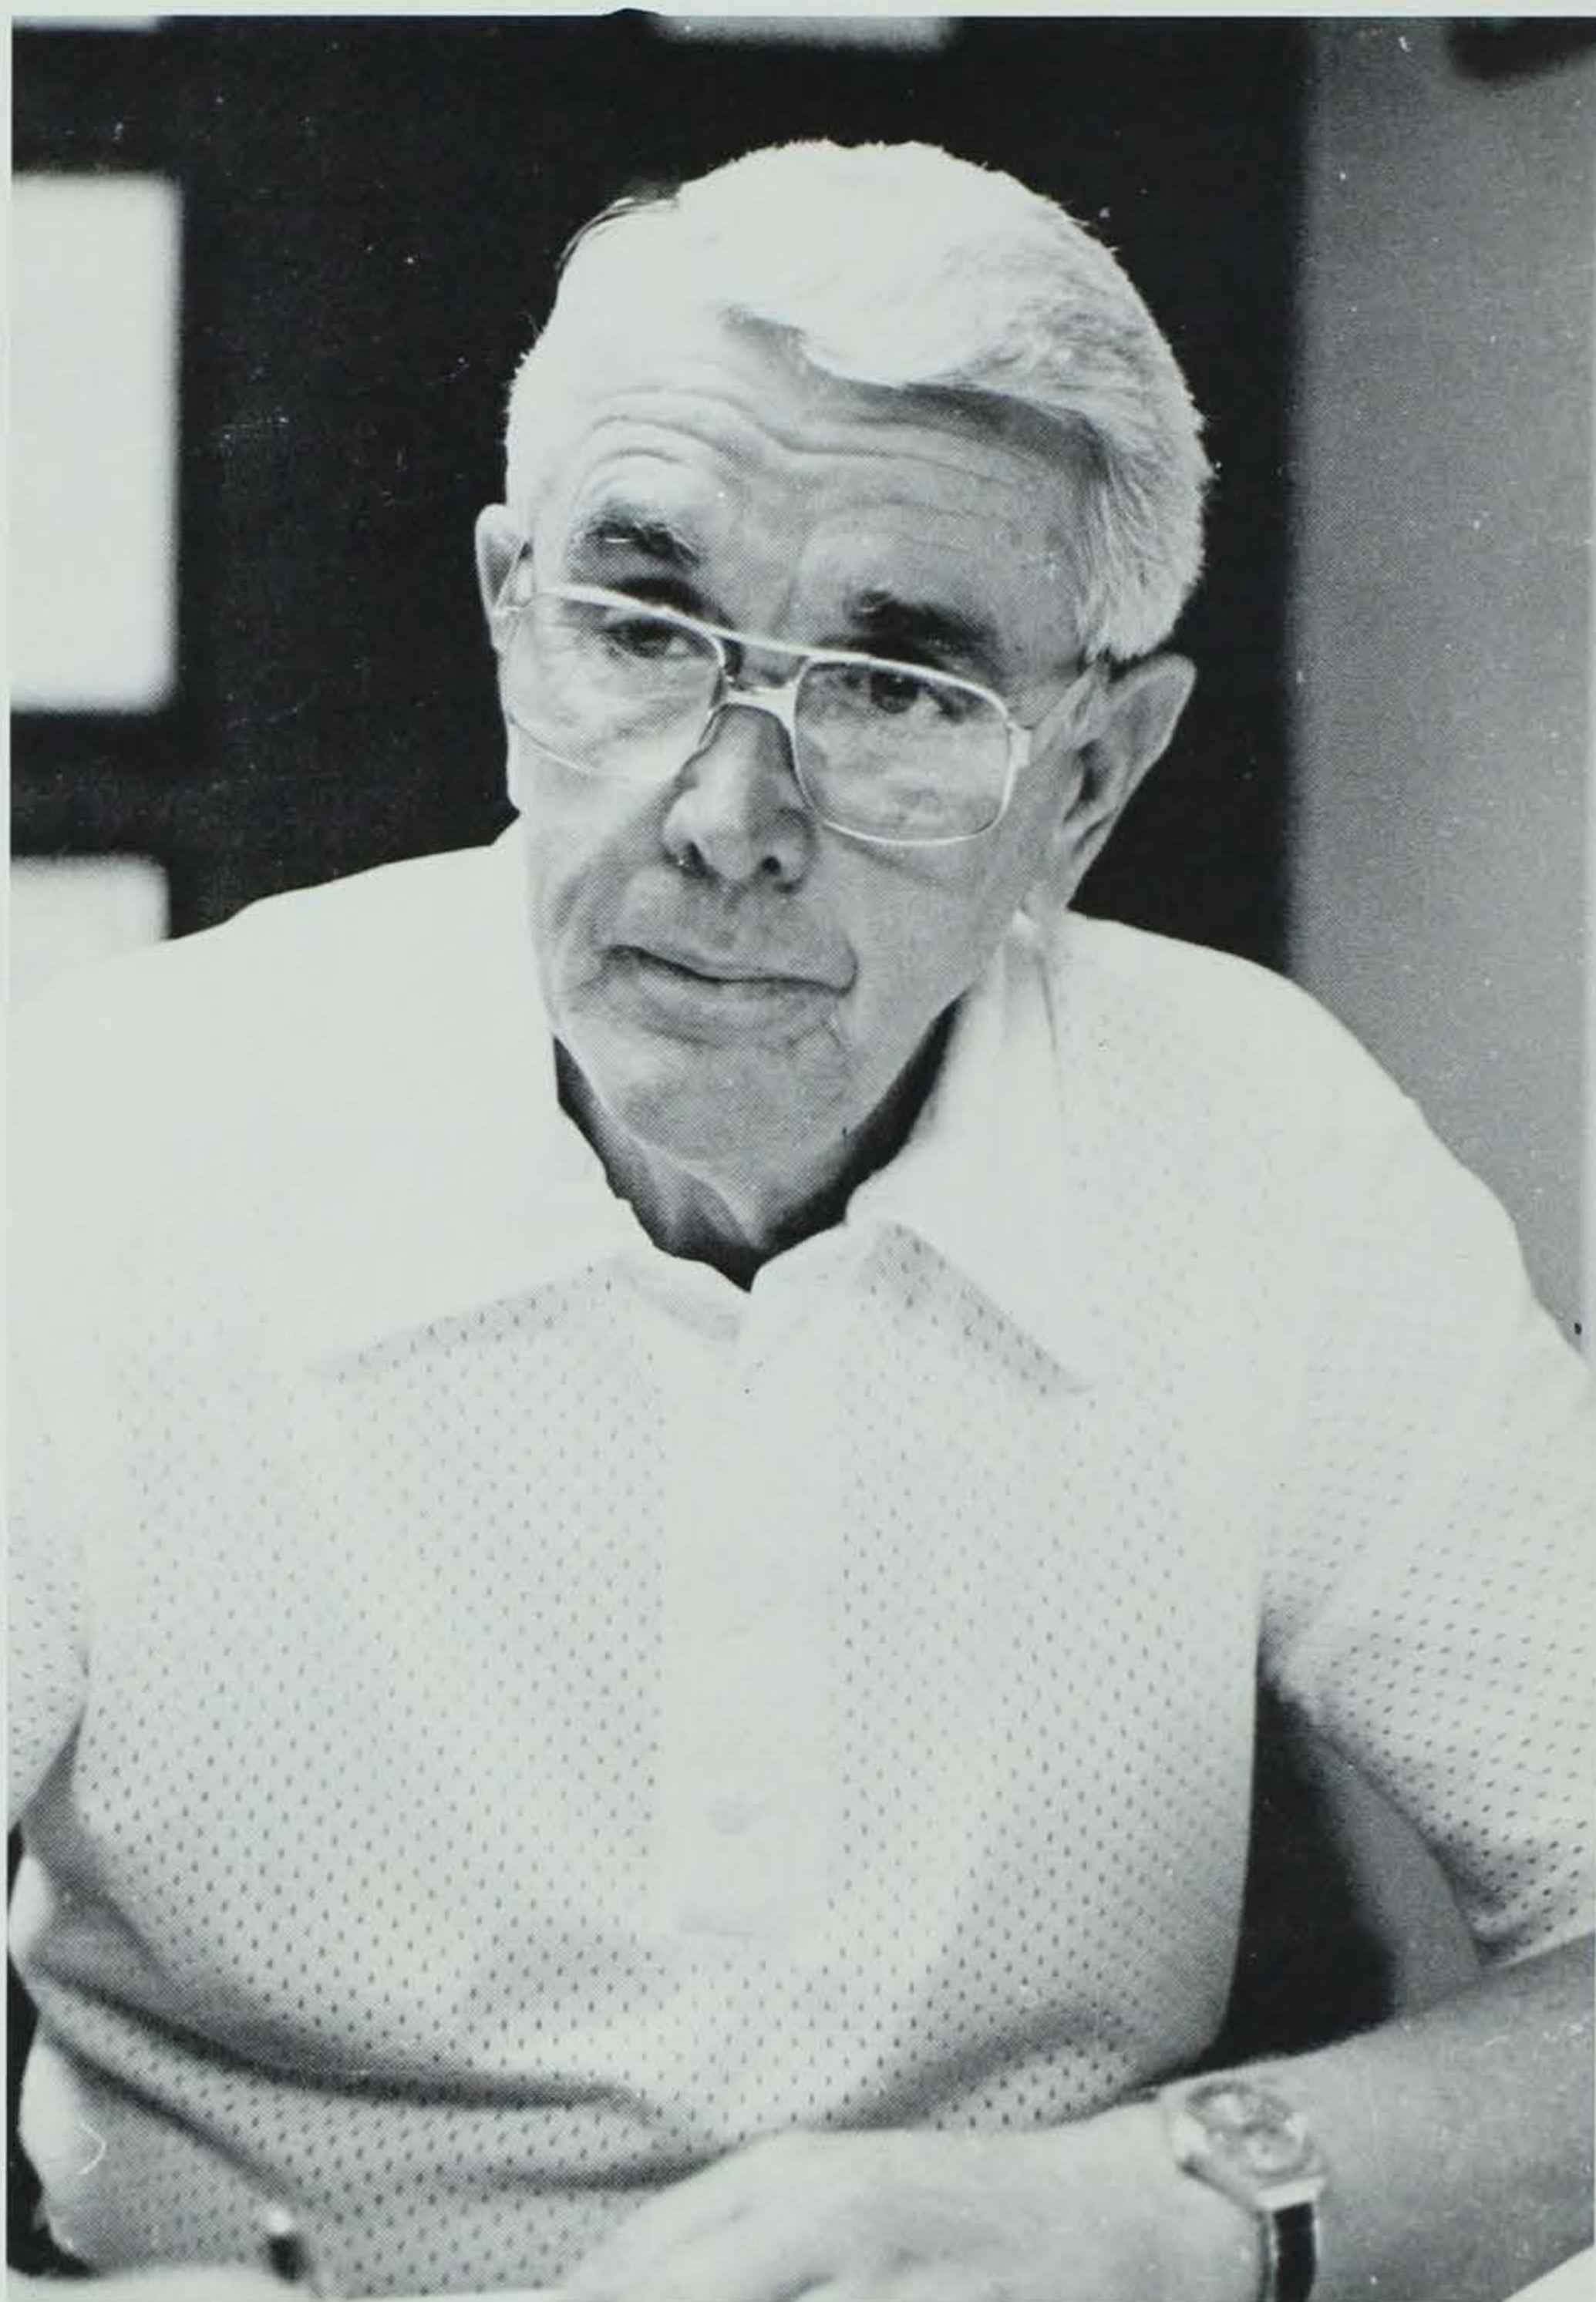

Jay R. Beekmann is celebrating his 30th year as athletic director at Buena Vista College. Regarded as the dean of Iowa collegiate baseball coaches, Beekmann has guided the Beavers to 14 Iowa Conference titles and several NAIA and NCAA post-season tournament appearances.

Beekmann, a native of Pisgah, graduated from Buena Vista in 1942 with a B.A. in education. After spending three years with the U.S. Army in Germany, he returned to Iowa and became a bookkeeping and American history teacher, coach and principal at Hayes Consolidated School south of Storm Lake.

He moved to Lake City in 1953 and was a coach and teacher there for one year before accepting the position of athletic director and associate professor in the teacher education and business administration department at Buena Vista in the fall of 1954. After earning a master's degree from Drake University in 1956, he was named professor of physical education at Buena Vista.

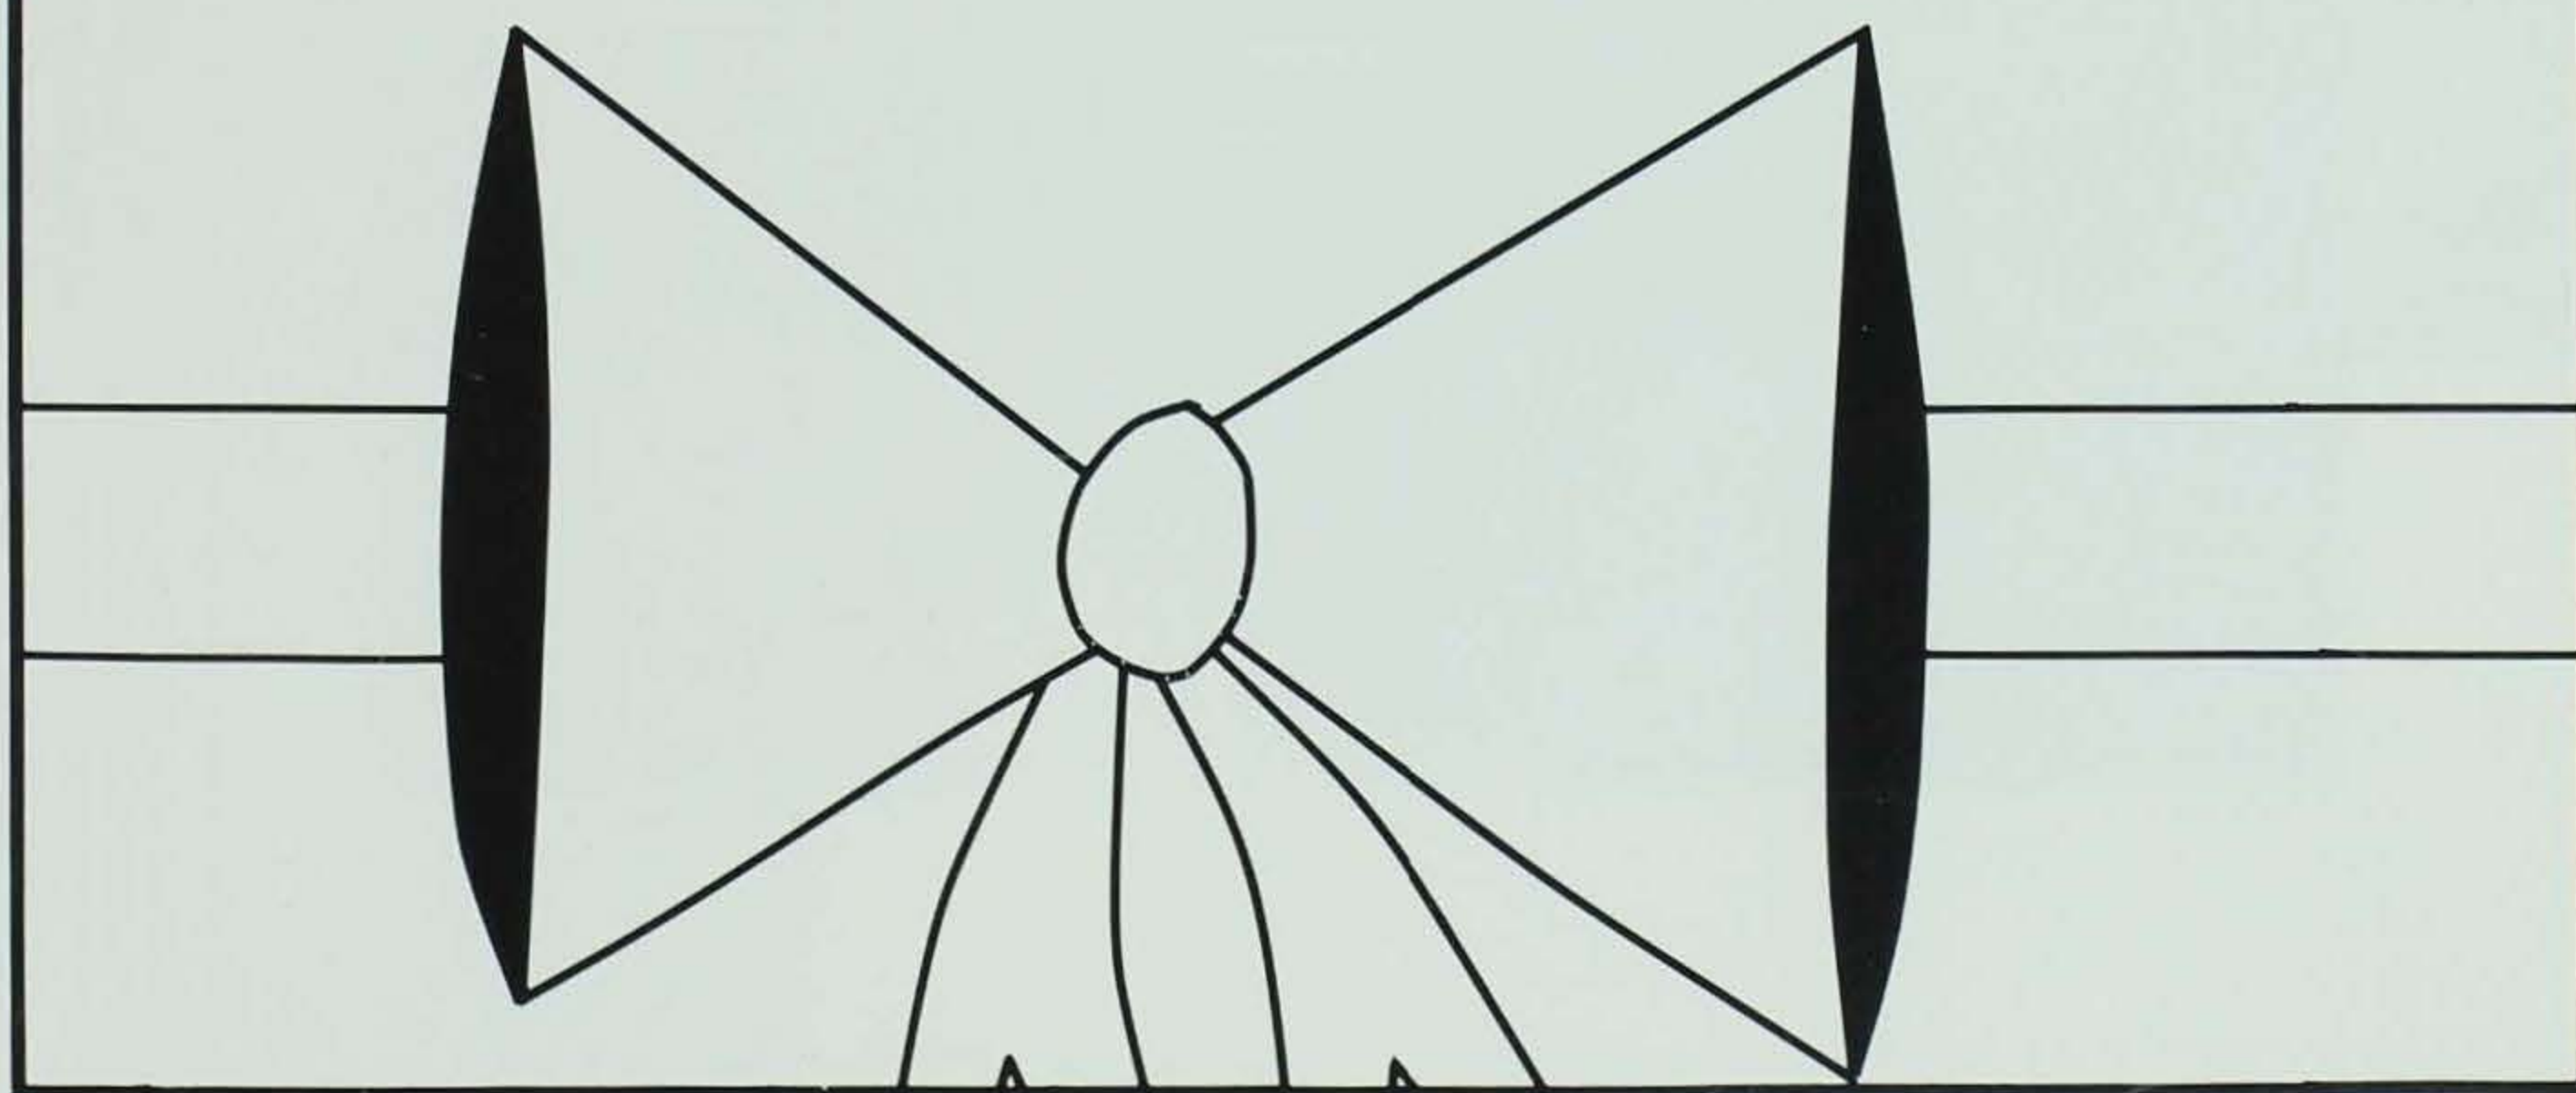

Beekmann has had an illustrious coaching career. He was named National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) district and area coach of the year a total of nine times. His career coaching record at BV is 478-307-2.

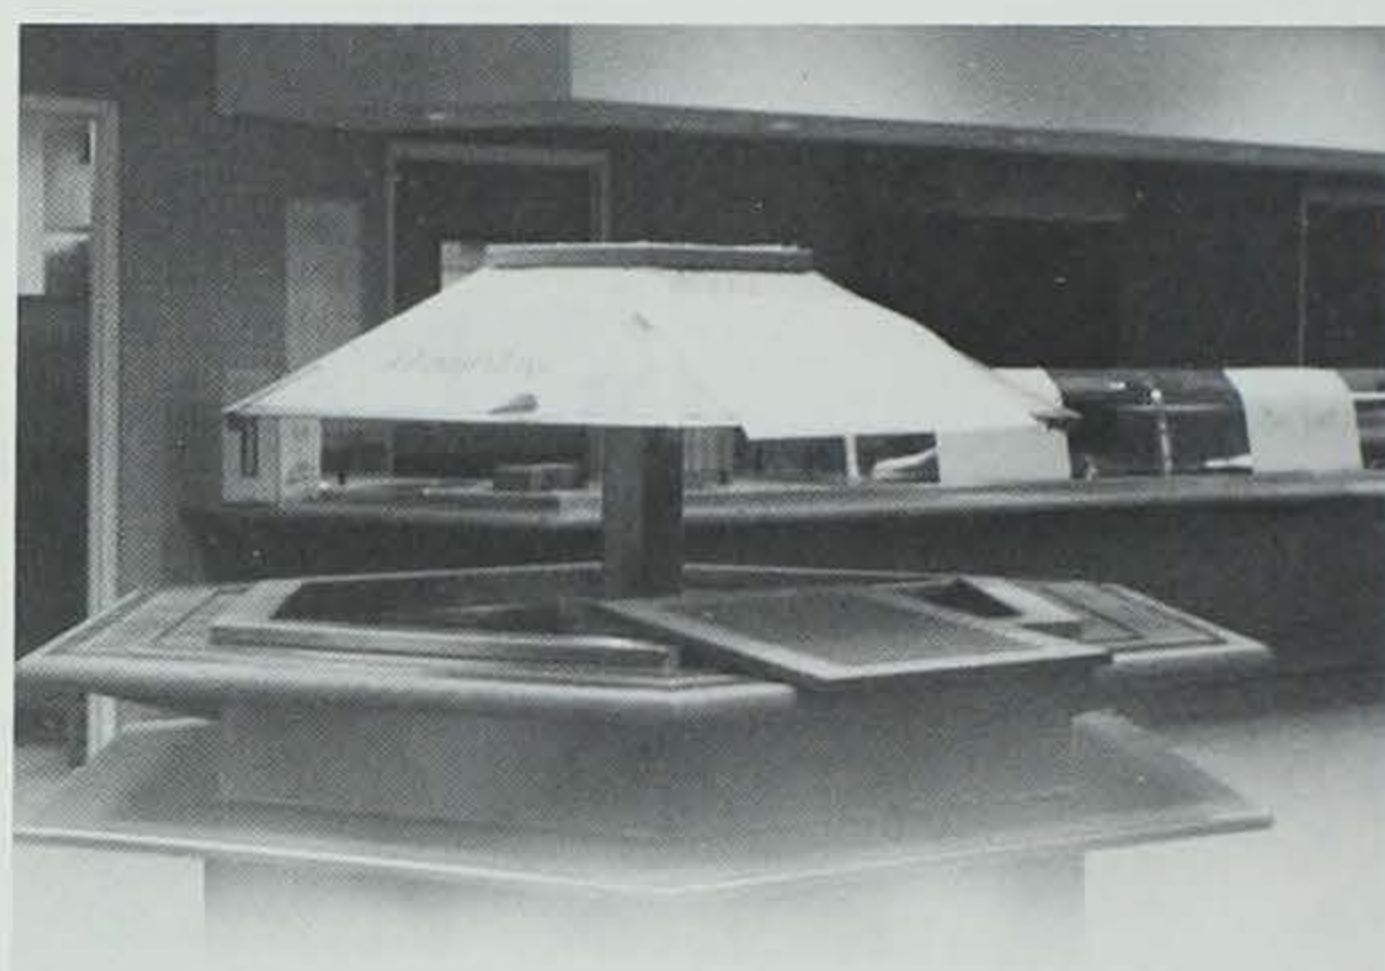

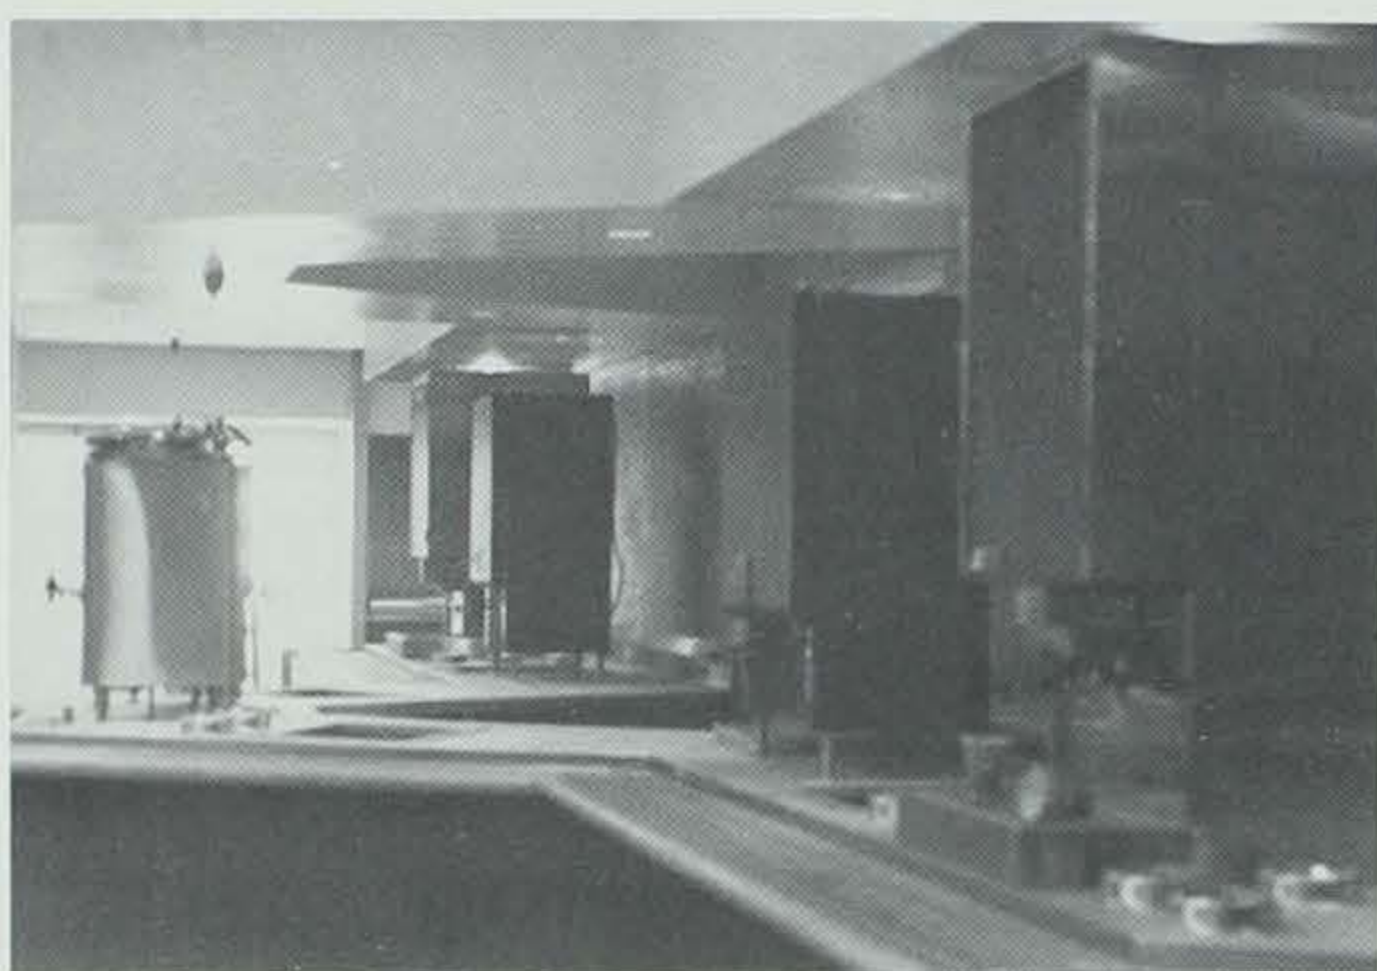

Beekmann and his wife, the former Jean Haareys, also a 1942 Buena Vista graduate, are the parents of three grown children. Daughter Trudy and sons Barry and Lonnie are all Buena Vista graduates, as is Trudy's husband, Gary Lane.

They chose their life's vocation . . .
And now complete their education

Which with ambition will be met
They are on their way . . .

Sophomores:

They desire an education . . .
Seeking knowledge and

They have a goal in mind . . .
A goal they are behind
They have passed the test

Now look forward to the rest

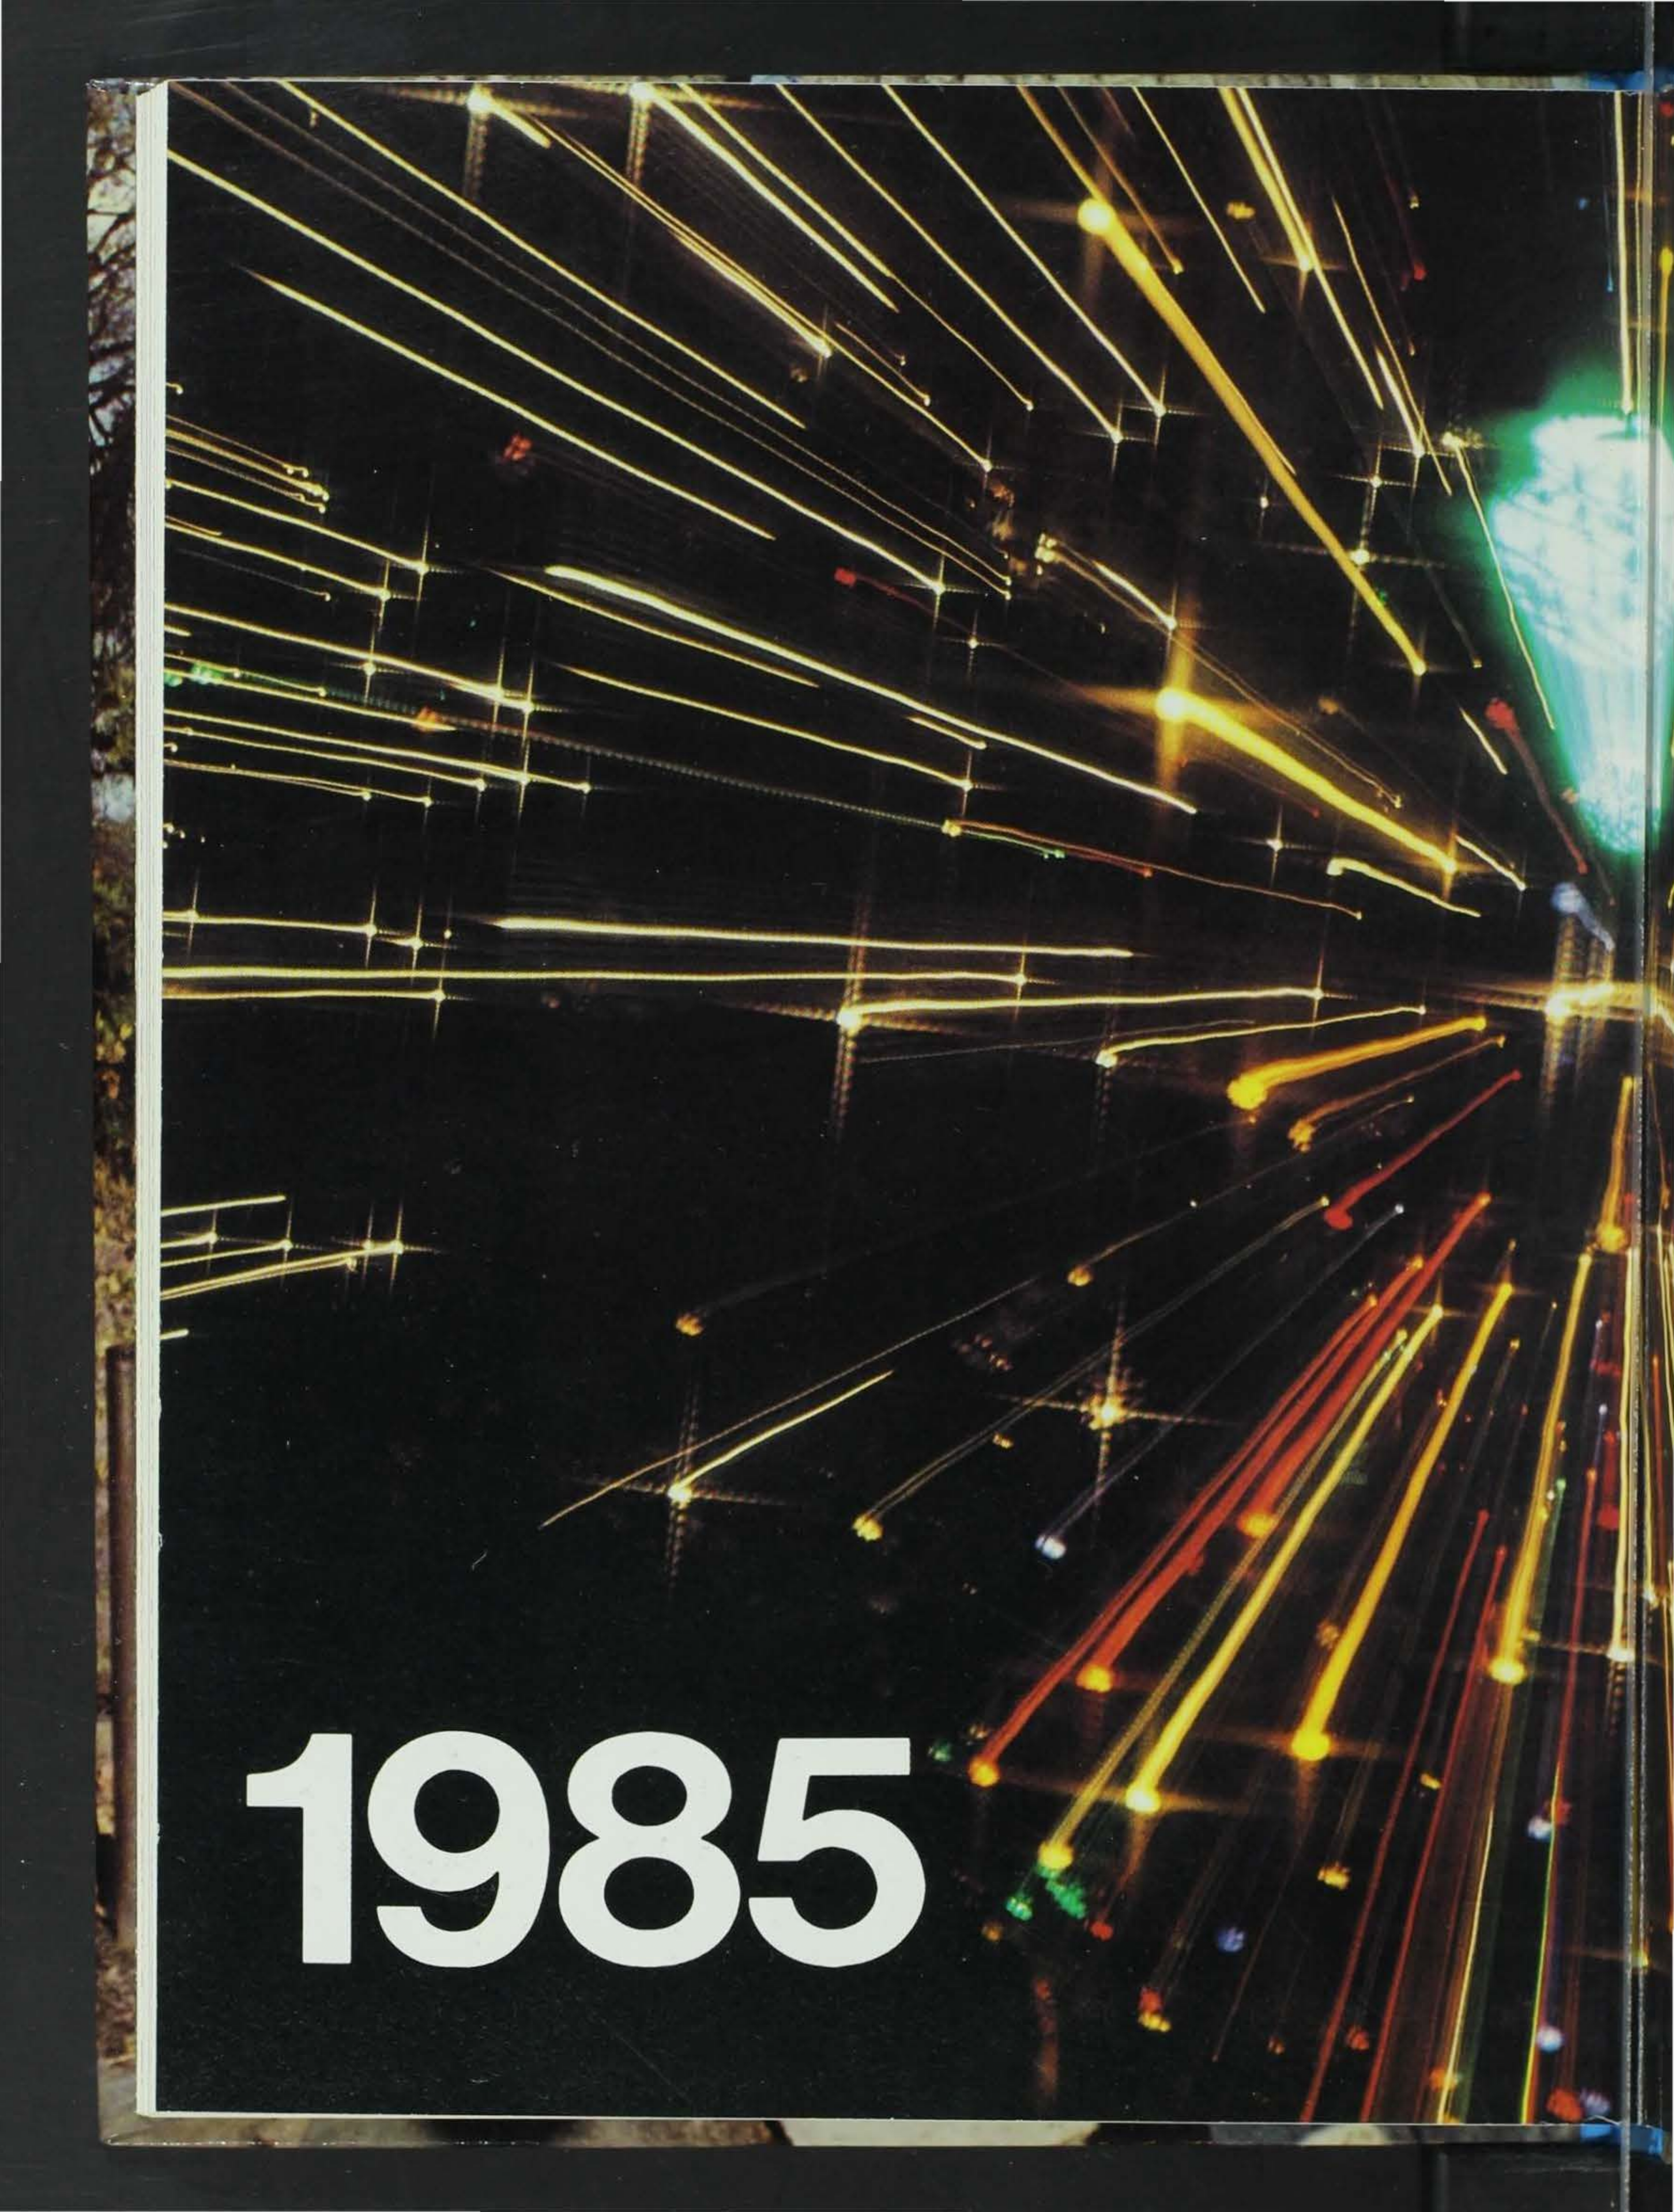

Freshman:

They wonder what the future

Time will pass — the story
